HARRISBURG, PA. Thursday Evening, June 25, 1863.

SENT TO FORT McHENRY.—George W. Thompson, the deserter, who attempted to escape recently, while being brought to this city from Pittsburg, was sent to Fort McHenry, in charge of Sergeant Heald, where he is to await the action of a court martial.

FROM PITTSBURG.—Lieut. Harbour reached this city to-day from Pittsburg, having in his charge twenty-three stragglers and seven deserters. The provost guard of the State have arrested deserters and stragglers within the last two months sufficient to form a regiment of one thousand men.

THE BLACK MEN of Harrisburg are to hold a meeting this evening at the Masonic Hall, Tanners' alley, for the purpose of organizing and offering their services to the Governor. The city is at present full of negro refugees who, we understand, are anxious to render some sort of service in the emergency; and, therefore, we trust that the meeting will be a success.

CAPTURE OF TWO REBEL LIEUTENANTS.—Day before yesterday two rebel officers, 2d Lieutenant H. C. Knicy, company L, 18th Virginia cavalry, and 2d Lieutenant Wm. B. Triplett, company D, same regiment, were captured near Hancock, Md., taken to Bloody Run, Bedford county, Pa., and immediately sent on to this city by the Provost Marshal of the 21st division, 8th army corps, Capt. Dwight Kellogg. At noon to-day they had not been examined by the proper authorities here, and we infer that they will be sent to Fort Delaware and exchanged.

FLAG PRESENTATION.—The "Henry Guards," composed of members of the Philadelphia police force, and commanded by Captain John Spear, are still on duty in this city. A beautiful silk flag, regulation style, and appropriately inscribed, has been procured through contributions of their comrades in the police force at home, and will be presented to the company by a committee appointed for that purpose from Philadelphia. The presentation will take place at the quarters of the company, this afternoon, at five o'clock. The company quarters are in the "Sons of Temperance" building, corner of Second and South streets, near State.

A MOTLEY GROUP.—A party of thirty negroes from Chambersburg and vicinity came over the bridge this morning, and stopped to refresh themselves in the Front Street Park, a short distance from the bridge. While there they attracted much attention from passers-by, and many inquiries were made concerning the whereabouts of the rebel army, and their probable strength. The poor negroes, as a matter of course, had never seen the rebel army, or they would not have been here, but they answered the questions as near as they could, the questions going away evidently satisfied with the information received. Like many of the other refugees from up the valley, they had no place to go to, and appeared lost in this section of the country.

THE HARRISBURG BRIDGE.—This outlet for thousands of refugees from up the Cumberland Valley was thronged with a moving mass of beings pouring into this city all day, and the arrivals from up the valley surpassed anything we ever saw. Wagon load after wagon load of men, women and children poured into the city from morning till night, many of them contrabands and free negroes, seeking to escape from the grasp of the Southern rebels. The sight of these defenceless people was truly pitiful, but few of them knowing which way to turn, and all depending on the generosity of the people east of the Susquehanna for support and sustenance. Where many of them go, after reaching this city, we know not, but many remain in our midst, unable to sustain themselves without aid from our citizens, numbers of whom have plenty to give, and will give, willingly, without a murmur or feeling of regret.

TABLE OF DISTANCES UP THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY.—The following table shows the towns and distances on the Cumberland Valley railroad, from Harrisburg to Hagerstown, six miles north of Williamsport, on the Potomac, near where the rebels crossed into Maryland. The rebels appear to have advanced along this line of railroad since they crossed the border, hence we give the distance along the whole length of the road.

ARREST OF SUSPECTED REFUGES.—Yesterday morning the guard stationed at the Northern Central railway bridge, at Dauphin, discovered six white men and three negroes, all mounted, approaching, and halted them as they came up to the place where the guard was standing. The officer in command questioned the suspected strangers, asked them the object of their business, etc., when they replied that they were from the neighborhood of Winchester, in Virginia, and had come North to escape the rebels supposed to be approaching the town when they left. This led to their arrest, and the prisoners were brought to this city, taken before Captain Clements, who asked them a few questions and placed them in confinement until this morning. Their horses, ten in number, were placed in the various stables in the city over night, and were given to them when released, to-day noon, nothing having been found against them to sustain the arrest.

ATTENTION, THIRD WARD.—A meeting of the citizens of the Third Ward of this city will be held at the upper Market House, this evening, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of perfecting an organization for the defence of the city.

ARRESTED FOR BREAKING DISHES.—A drunken soldier entered Hay's Hotel this morning, and caused a disturbance by breaking several dishes in the dining-room. He continued his sport until arrested by Officer John Brooks, who escorted him to Alderman Klinc's office, and from there to prison, to answer for his conduct when sober.

COMMITTED TO PRISON.—This morning a man was arrested in the lower end of the city for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. When seen by the officers who made the arrest, (Fry and Wickert,) he was firing off a gun, and going through several foolish manoeuvres on the street. He was taken before Alderman Klinc and sent to jail for ten days.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—This morning, an apprentice in the Eagle works, (known as Hickok's), a son of Major Linds, of Middletown, had his hand caught in the machinery, while in motion, injuring two of the fingers so badly as to require amputation. The operation was performed by Dr. Dock, of this city, and the patient is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES.—Edward M'Laughlin, belonging to the Grey Reserves, (Colonel Smith), injured one day last week, while diving into the water from the bank of the canal, near this city, died at his residence in Philadelphia Tuesday morning. His funeral will take place at the residence of his brother, No. 521 South Ninth street, Philadelphia, to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

THE MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.—The last arrest before this proclamation went into effect, was made this afternoon. One John Harris, a resident of Philadelphia, who came here to enlist and get intoxicated. He was discovered by Officer Fry, near the depot, showing his valuables and handling his money rather carelessly, when the officer made information and Harris was sent to prison for twenty-four hours to sober up.

PATRIOTIC CONDUCT.—This morning, a large majority of the clerks and employees of the State government in the different departments, located in this city, tendered their services to Governor Curtin as a military organization, to aid in the defence of the State Capital during the present emergency. There are enough men connected with the different departments, on the hill, to make quite a respectable company, and the Governor was surprised as well as pleased to find that those who lived by being in the employ of the State should be so willing to offer their services to protect its capital at this crisis.

THE SENSAS at the railroad depots are full of interest. Each train that arrives from the south on the North Central or on the Cumberland Valley road, brings its load of fugitives. There are congregated at the depot the old and the young, mistresses and maid, strong men and weak children, white and black, all commingled in one common mass, panic stricken, weary, hungry and exhausted. Piled up like huge stacks—trunks and carpet sacks are continually accumulating, while amid the pile which rears its leather and brass nails, we noticed at least a dozen boxes containing coffins with the bodies of those who have already offered themselves a sacrifice that freedom might be sustained and the country preserved from utter ruin. The scenes at the railroad depots, if nothing more frightful grows out of the present excitement, will long be remembered by those who daily witness them.

VISIT OF THE VETERANS TO THE GOVERNOR.—Yesterday afternoon the veterans of 1812 called upon the Governor at the Executive Chamber, and were introduced to his Excellency, the Governor. Captain Goslin, on behalf of the old soldiers, said that though they were few in numbers, they were strong in faith. They had called upon his Excellency to offer their services in defending the city. They were feeble, but with the "old fashioned fit," to which they were accustomed, he thought they could do good execution at the rifle pits.

His Excellency the Governor, thanked them for the offer of their services. He accepted them thankfully, and said their example should incite the young men of the city and vicinity to do better, than (he was sorry to say) they had yet done in defence of their homes and firesides. The enemy was almost at their doors, and the time for hesitancy had passed. We must arouse to the importance of the struggle, and with stout hearts, endeavor to hurl back the impudent foe, now pressing towards us. Lusty cheers were given for the Governor, and the war veterans, by those in attendance.

HIGH PRICE FOR STOCKINGS.—To-day noon, two volunteer soldiers entered the clothing store of Charles Segelbaum, in Jones' row, Market street, and inquired the price of a pair of stockings, intending to purchase them. They were told that the pair would cost them sixty-two and a half cents, an exorbitant price for the articles referred to. The soldiers remonstrated against paying such an unreasonable sum for a pair of common stockings, at the same time saying they could purchase them much cheaper in Philadelphia. This remark was replied to by some one connected with the store, stating that they might go there and get them, adding a few other ungentlemanly words by way of emphasis, which caused a dispute between the parties, ending by the clerk drawing a revolver on the soldiers, and threatening to shoot them if they did not leave the store. Impelled by curiosity, a crowd soon gathered around the door at this stage of the proceeding, threatening personal violence to the clerk if he did not desist in his menace, and settle the disturbance here wrongfully created. If any of our clothing dealers insist in charging similar exorbitant prices for goods we are not surprised that such volleys are poured into us by the people and press of other cities, for allowing these frauds to be imposed upon their

FROM THE PHILADELPHIA GAS WORKS.—Last evening, the Philadelphia train, which arrived in the city about half past nine o'clock, brought in a company numbering nearly seventy men; composed of laborers recently employed in the Philadelphia gas works. The company was commanded by Capt. Mills, from the Quaker City.

CARELESS AND DIXEY.—The entertainment at Brant's Hall, last evening, attracted a large audience. Dixey appears to be the same comical genius he was several years ago, the only difference being a decided improvement in his jokes, while Carecross is gaining in popularity daily. A change of programme every evening added new interest to the performance, and aided the managers in filling every seat in the house, besides all the other available places in the hall. A good programme would have been offered this evening had the troupe remained in the city, but the excitement was so great in town all day the company left, rather than run the chances of good house during the few nights they had availed to stay with us.

Those in want of goods would do well to call, as we intend to reduce our stock, and our goods will sell less than the market price. S. LEWY.

TO THE STRANGER. If the strangers that are now in the city wonder why our citizens are so very healthy, we would say in reply that Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines are still successfully used, and that all who take of them are satisfied in to their virtues. Now is the time for all going into the army to have their blood cleansed, and in a short time they will get fat and hearty. No one need have the Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, a Cough or a Cold. Thousands have been cured, and so may you. Satisfy yourselves by giving the medicine a trial. Call at No. 27 South Pine street, Harrisburg, Pa. Orders from a distance promptly attended to, je22

New Advertisements. FIRE! FIRE! FIRE! PHILADELPHIA, May 30, 1863. M. C. SMITH, Esq.

DEAR SIR: Last night, May 19, 1863, our Grocery and Provision store, at North Second and Willow streets, took fire at about 2 o'clock A. M., and as the store was a two-story wood building it burned rapidly, and before the fire engine could act upon the fire, our whole stock of goods, including much combustible material, and amounting to over $2,000, were wholly destroyed. We had one of your No. 11 Chilled Iron Safes, which was in the hottest part of the fire, and it came out of the fire not in the least injured, except the melting of the name plate and paint. The contents inside were not affected in the least, and we consider the safe just as good a protection against fire now as before, and shall use it hereafter with increased confidence. The lock works as perfectly as before the fire.

Yours truly, McMANUS & CROFT, Late 429 North Second Street.

Attention to the above certificate is particularly requested, as it is the first trial of LILLIE'S SAFES in an accidental fire in Philadelphia. I would say to all parties who want a Fire and Burglar-proof safe that LILLIE'S WROUGHT AND CHILLED IRON SAFES are much the cheapest and the only real Fire and Burglar-proof Safes now made; and to those who want simply a Fire-proof safe, I would say that LILLIE'S WROUGHT IRON SAFE is fully equal in all respects to any of the most approved makers, and is sold at fully one-third less price. All parties interested are invited to examine the safes above described at my store. GEO. W. PARSONS, Agent, 110 Market street. je9-d2law3w
