HARRISBURG, PA.

Saturday Evening, June 27, 1863.

FREE BAPTIST CHURCH.—Rev. G. M. Steele, of Boston, will preach in the Free Baptist church, corner of State and Fourth streets, to-morrow morning at 10 and evening at 8 o'clock.

DEPARTERS FROM THE REBEL ARMY.—Nine rebel soldiers came into Altoona yesterday, and gave themselves up to the military authorities of that place. They were brought to Harrisburg last night, and are still in this city.

DESERTER CAPTURED.—James Hummel, the deserter who shot at the United States office in the church at New Berlin, was again arrested on last Sabbath, by Capt. Cox and Sergeant Gelhart, and brought to this city. He was found near his residence in Snyder county, where he had secreted himself for some weeks.

FILLED WITH SOLDIERS.—Last night the Pennsylvania railroad depot was filled with tired and sleeping soldiers. The room where the gentleman passengers purchase their tickets for the Pennsylvania and Northern Central railroads, was strewn with weary men, and every seat and available place on the floor was occupied by sleeping militia men.

THE COLORED TROOPS OF HARRISBURG.—Two companies of colored troops have been organized in this city within a week. The one commanded by Capt. Henry Bradley is full, and the one being recruited by Capt. Chester, has over sixty men. This latter company is rapidly filling up, and will soon reach the minimum number required previous to being mustered into the United States service as a company. Last evening the men turned out on parade, and over one hundred and twenty were in the ranks.

ATTENTION, CITIZENS AND FIREMEN OF THE 5TH AND 6TH WARD.—You are invited to attend at the Good Will engine house, this evening, at 7 o'clock, to form a volunteer company immediately, to assist in defending our city and our State. It is hoped that every man capable of bearing arms in the Wards will present themselves and be ready to march at a moment's notice.

W. K. VERBEKE,
President Good Will Fire Company,

A NEW UNIFORM FOR COLORED TROOPS.—Considerable discussion is being excited among medical men in regard to the uniform of the colored regiments. Many of the profession claim that their habits, physical natures, and the fact that many of them are to be used in the extreme South, demand an oriental uniform like that of the original Koum of Africa. It has been urged upon the Secretary of War to substitute for the straight jacket, well adapted to the Northern white soldier, the loose, and well ventilated oriental uniform.

THE CITY MARKET.—This morning the market appeared to be nearly as well attended by the farmers around the city as usual. The butchers were all present, and any one who visited the stalls, before market hours were over, could scarcely distinguish any difference between this and the regular semi-weekly markets we had before our city was threatened by the rebels. The prices of vegetables and other produce was above the average, but the uncomfortable state of the weather, and the muddy condition of the roads throughout the country will, in a measure, account for this rise in prices.

PENNSYLVANIA RELIEF ASSOCIATION.—On Tuesday evening last, the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Soldiers' Relief Association was held in Washington City. The reports for the past year show that the total amount of moneys received was $6,403 42. Of this sum, $6,635 52 has been expended, leaving a balance in the hands of the treasurer of $767 90. The total value of donations, in the way of hospital supplies, clothing, delicacies, &c., is estimated at $28,712 99. Hon. J. K. Moorehead was elected President for the ensuing year, Jay Cooke, Treasurer, D. L. Eaton, Corresponding Secretary, and Samuel Caldwell Storekeeper.

WAR MEETING IN LANCASTER CITY.—Last Thursday evening a meeting of the citizens of Lancaster was called by the Mayor, which convened at the Court House in that city. Speeches were made by the most prominent citizens, and resolutions adopted encouraging the speedy organization of military companies, both cavalry and infantry. In view of the many inducements offered at this meeting, the patriotism shown by all present, and the enthusiasm manifested throughout the city and county, Lancaster will make her mark in the call for militia, issued by the Governor, on the 26th instant.

THE U. S. COMMISSION.—Too much praise cannot be awarded to this patriotic and Christian enterprise, designed for the bodily and spiritual improvement of our noble volunteers. Wherever their influence is exerted in the army, the happiest effects are visible. Whatever has been said in this Commission in other places, Harrisburg can fully endorse. Its delegates at this point have erected the Union Tabernacle Tent in the centre of Camp Curtin for religious services, which are held three times a day, and always well attended by the men. They have also a Post office established in it for the convenience of the soldier, and a large amount of letters are daily transferred from that point. The stores of the commission are opened in the tent and distributed by the delegates in every direction. Messrs. H. J. Smith, Joseph Parker and Rev. Messrs. Long, Meacham and Higbee are the gentlemen now on the grounds, and whose faces have become familiar to the different regiments, and whose words of counsel and sympathy will long be remembered with pleasure and profit.

LEFT ON Wednesday at Camp Curtin, at headquarters of the 23rd Regiment, Penna. Militia, Col. Chambers, commanding, a Hand Trunk, Brush and Curry Comb. A suitable reward, will be paid by leaving it at the Mayor's office.

THE 39TH REGIMENT P. V. MILITIA.—This morning the 39th Regiment Penna. Vol. Militia, organized at Camp Curtin, left the camp and crossed the Harrisburg bridge into Cumberland Valley. The regiment is commanded by Col. Mooney, and is composed chiefly of men from the northern counties.

SECOND AND THIRD WARD MILITIA.—Captain Foster's company of militia were out this morning, and marched through several of the principal streets of the city. The men composing this company are chiefly from the Second and Third wards, and are among the principal business men of the city. The company had about sixty men in their ranks when they passed this office.

CAPTURE OF A SUPPOSED REBEL FEMALE SPY.—Yesterday the pickets stationed a short distance up the Cumberland Valley arrested a woman on suspicion of being a rebel spy. She was taken before the Provost Marshal, Capt. Clement, who questioned her and handed her over to Lieut. Odyoke, in whose care she will probably remain until sufficient proof can be ascertained to confirm the arrest, or enough evidence can be shown to set her at liberty. She gave her name as Mrs. M'Combes, but could not give a straight, unvarnished answer to the question propounded to her, why she was in the valley.

THE MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.—The Mayor's proclamation relative to the sale of liquor in the city during these exciting times, has had a very good effect, and scarcely an intoxicated person can be found anywhere within the city limits. But, while our respectable hotel and restaurant keepers have complied with the proclamation, several of our liquor dealers have made a good thing of it, by dealing their liquor out by the pint and quart. In selling the same, some of them have been heard to urge their purchasers to keep quiet in the matter, and thus enable them to reap a rich harvest from an order intended to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors by any person, either by the glass or quart. This trickery, practiced so successfully by the ones spoken of above, requires instant attention; and we hope the authorities will take the matter in hand at once.

DISTURBANCE AT COLDER'S LIVERY STABLE.—About twelve o'clock, Friday night, a party of mounted men, belonging to General Mitroy's force, and commanded by an army surgeon, entered the Buehler House and asked for accommodation for their horses. The clerk in attendance at the bar told them that there was no stable connected with the establishment, and that he thought the public stables in the city were full of horses owned by the Government and citizens of the city. One of the party then hinted that the horses belonging to the citizens should be turned out of the stables, in order to find room for their own. A regular army officer standing near, and well known by the respectable portion of the community, feeling that it was his duty to say a few words at this crisis, told the men that it would not do to turn citizens' horses out of the stables they occupied, and warned them to desist from doing so. Shortly after the men left, the Chief of Police happened in the neighborhood of Mr. Colder's livery stable, in Strawberry alley, where he discovered the men composing the squad under the Surgeon busily engaged in putting their horses away for the remainder of the night. Where they intended putting them, without driving other horses out of the stables, is hard to conjecture; but they were informed there was no place for their horses in the stables, and the Chief of Police, in company with a police guard, ordered them to leave the premises.

THE SURGEON DID NOT SEEM disposed to vacate the place, but quietly ordered his men to draw their revolvers, which they did. This only increased the ire of Barney, who told them to clear the grounds, or both parties would use their weapons. Disconcerted by this movement of the police, the men were willing to leave forthwith, and the regular army officer, before mentioned at the Buehler House, sent them to Camp Curtin, where their steeds found good accommodations for the night, besides plenty of feed.

SKIRMISH NEAR CARLSBERG.—Ten of Captain Murray's Cavalry Company taken Prisoners.—Last evening between five and six o'clock, while at Mechanicsburg, Capt. Murray detailed thirty-four men, under Lieut. Wm. A. Fisher to proceed on the Walnut Bottom road to reconnoitre the position of the rebels. When within one-fourth of a mile from what is known as the Stone Tavern, and five miles southeast of Carlisle, Lieut. Fisher sent out three men of his squad to find out if any rebels were about. Arriving near the tavern, they asked, what they supposed to be a farmer, if the enemy were in the neighborhood, and he replied, "No." The men then advanced to the tavern, and were immediately surrounded and captured. One of the men, John Bates, shot two rebels who attempted to capture him, and killed them instantly. Bates was afterwards dragged into the tavern by the other rebels and has not been seen since. First Duty Sergeant James Cosgrove was seriously wounded in the thigh, but managed to escape. After the capture of the advance of our men, the rebels came out in every direction and captured ten prisoners out of Lieut. Fisher's squad. The following are the names of the prisoners:—Joseph Weaver, John Egles, Jacob Steller, Richard Bucher, Wm. Rudy, John Robert, Jacob Feig, John Stormfeldt, D. Slack and James Irvin.

Lieut. Fisher immediately fell back to Trindle Spring with his command, and joined his company.

Still Later.—Joseph Weaver, Richard Bucher, John Robert, John Stormfeldt, Daniel Slack and Wm. Rudy are reported wounded, and are now in the hands of the enemy, and are quartered in a farm house near the scene of action. The enemy is reported, by a clergyman who lives in the neighborhood, to be 800 strong. There were four rebels killed; and a number wounded in the action.

RELIGIOUS.—Preaching in the Hall of the Senate.—The Second Lutheran congregation will hold divine service in the Senate Chamber to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, and also in the evening at six o'clock.

THE SHARP SHOOTERS met at the Court House at 2 o'clock, and adjourned to meet at the same place this evening at half past seven o'clock, p. m. All sharp shooters are invited to attend at that time for organization.

LOST.—On the morning of the 26th inst., a package of three letters, addressed to H. C. Lewis, Isaac Lamey and George W. White, all belonging to the 23rd Regiment, Pa. militia.—The finder will be rewarded by leaving them at this office. The letters are of no value to any one except the owners.

YOUNG MEN RALLY FOR THE DEFENSE OF YOUR STATE.—The young men of the city willing to join a company forming under the recent call of the Governor, will meet at the Second Ward House, corner of Second and Market streets, this evening at 7 o'clock.
