THE BATTLE AT CARLISLE. We are still without full details of the battl at Carlisle, day before yesterday. All passes t cross the Susquetanna have been refused, and consequently we have been obliged to gather items from fugitives and couriers. These men report that our forces entered Carlisle at 9 a. w the infantry at 8 P. M and continued to come in up to 8 P. M.

Between 6 and 7 a large column of dust an nounced the approach of the enemy on the road leading to York, in the rear of Carlisle. Soon after a flag of truce appeared, and demand was sent in for an unconditional surrender by Gen. W. F. H. Lee. General Smith promptly refused to entertain it, and the enemy, having placed their guns, a battery of six commenced to shell the town. General Smith
