MILITARY RELIEF FUND.—The usual payment cannot be made this week, owing to the removal of the funds from bank. The delay is unavoidable, and families may rest assured that it will be made at the earliest possible time, of which notice will be given in the daily papers GEO. BERGNER, Pres't.

O. EDWARDS, Sec'y.

THE WAY TO CELEBRATE THE FOURTH OF JULY most gloriously, would be for every citizen housekeeper to invite two seldiers to assist in eating a good dinner, and for every bache lor to pay for the dinners of at least a dozen other soldiers. There would be sense and sympathy in such a celebration, and we trust that It not only relieves the child from pain, but the eighty-seventh annive sary of American invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects Independence will be thus celebrated in the system. It will almost instantly relieve capital of Pennsylvania.

encouraging. Resecrates is moving successfully after Bragg; Grant is making constant headway at Vicksburg; and Banks is doing good work at Port Hudson-all indicating that the entire South West will soon be restored to the control of the General Government. If the insurgent forces now in Maryland and Pennsylvania are routed, and if possible captured, the end of the rebellion will soon be welcomed by millions of loyal hearts.

BLISSED BE HEAVEN for the living green !-- the color that rests and refreshes the wearled eyethe symbol of youth—the promise of golden gifts to some. What were Nature's floral of the grass! Take away the verdure of the fields, and who would care for the wild flowers? The yellow dandelions - who would mark them, which they lie lik stars newly fallen? And the ruddy strawberras in which Dauphin county abounds—would you stoop to gather are mere imitations, and should be avoided. them, if, instead of flushing the tufted hill RARCHAY CT LY and level meadows, they lay have burning blood-spots on the verdureless sand?

HARD ON HORSES. - The present sultry weath. is particularly hard on horses. But those who have control of such beasts do not all realize this fact, or they do not care to give it any at tention, if we may judge by the manner in which some of the cavalrymen, backmen and genteel equestrians deal with their animals. I every citizen should be perfectly calm in Hackmen particularly, are hard beasts on poor the performance of his duty. Therefore, to horses. Yesterday evening this was exempli- exclude all unnecessary excitement in this city, fied by the death of a horse in the hack service. it is hereby enjoined on all Tavern Keepers, The jaded animal had been literally driven and Retail Liquor Dealers and Keepers of Leger beaten to death. A. L. ROUMFORT, Camp Curtin. It knew no respite. Its harness was was never removed until at last it fell down in its own tracks, breathing its last breath beneath the driver's lash. Heaven help that driver! There is a lash over his head which must sooner or later fall, if he does not amend his actions and change his disposition. But in the meantime, we would advise the authorities to protect the horses from the tyranny of the savage beasts who have them in charge.

Re-Arrest of a Rebel Sty.—Yesterday we referred to the fact of the arrest of a cavalry Captain, named J. H. M. Wertbrecht, under the most suspicious circumstances, which it is not necessary now to repeat. After a hearing before the military authorities, Wertbrecht was set at library authorities of these whose whose were referred to the finding time of these whose was a library authorities of these whose whose was a library authorities of these whose whose was a library authorities of these whose whose whose was a library authorities of these whose whose was a library authorities of these whose was a library authorities of these whose was a library authorities of these whose was a library authorities. had arrested him, and the people who understood the facts connected with the case. He was taken in custody and committed for a hearing. His release yesterday was the most mysterious transaction of the week; and his arrest this morning under all the circumstances has filled the public with just alarm. Spies are undoubtedly lurking in every secret or available place for deriving information along the river, in the Cumberland Valley and in Harrisburg. These should be dealt with sharply. They should not at least be let off, as this fellow was, to run the chances of escape with the most important information.

HORRIBLE BARBARITY OF HINDRAN. The intense and refined fiendishness of the treatment that Union men at the South receive from their rebel enemies, is unsurpassed in any story of arbarons ages. At Little Rock, Ark., lived a nu derous body of Union men, praying for a sight of the old flag and a day of deliverance, as non ever prayed save the men of Leyden. They mut nightly in cellars—bad their secret They make make with all the heroism of martyrs, bore suspicion, taunts, threats and violence, unflinching in their resolution never to enter the rebel ranks alive. One day their wives, thildren, parents, brothers and sisters were invited by Hindman's order to come and visit them. Their dungeon doors were opened, and arm and arm with their rejoicing families, they were a affered to wander, under guard, about the town and in the fields.

The bright sunlight and sweet air of this unwonted freedom intoxicated them into credulity. They and the dear ones from whom they had been so long sundered, were felicitating themselves with the idea of the hope of permanent liberty, and fancied that the tiger Hindman had forgotten his taste for blood. Just at the limits of the town the officer in command bade the families of the suspected halt—and marching those twenty-seven brave men out of the very arms of love, ranged them into an open lot before a file of riflemen, and there shot all of them to death in plain sight of their shricklog

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!

PHILADELPHIA, May 30, 1863. M. C. Sadler, Esq.:

Dear Sire: During the night of May 19, 1863, our Grocery and Provision Store, at North Second and Willow streets, took fire at about 2 o'clock a. M., and as the store was a two-story wood building it burnt rapidly, and before the fire engines could act upon the fire, our whole fire engines could act upon the fire, our whole stock of goods, including much combustible material, and amounting to over $2,000, were wholly destroyed. We had one of your No. 11 Chilled Iron Safes, which was in the hottest part of the fire, and it came out of the fire not in the least injured, except the melting off of the name, plate and paint. The contents inside were not affected in the least, and we consider the Safe just as good a protection against fire now as before, and shall use it hereafter with increased confidence. The lock works as perfectly as before the fire.

perfectly as before the fire.
Yours truly, McMANUS & CROFT,
Late 429 North Second Street. Attention to the above certificate is particularly requested, as it is the first trial of LILLIE'S SAFES in an accidental fire in Philadelphia.

I would say to all parties who want a Fire and Burglar-proof Safe that LILLIE'S WROUGHT AND CHILLED IRON SAFES are much the cheapest and the only real Fire and Burglar proof Sales now made; and to those who want proof sales now made; and to those who want simply a Fire-proof, I would say that LILLIE'S WROUGHT IRON SAFE is fully equal in all respects to any of the most approved makers and is sold at fully one-third less price.

All parties interested are invited to examine the safes above described at my store.
