CARPENTERS WANTED .- A large number of another column.

ORPHANS' COURT .- This court was in session, at the Court House, this afternoon, and a small amount of business transacted. The ringing of if not quite, a hundred long cars, and drawn by the Court House bell, supposed by many to be four locomotives. This is one of the longest interested in the proceedings of this court to Valley Railroad, rendered necessary by the inthe meeting room.

In Acrive Service. - Last Saturday morning Capt. Val. B. Hummel's company of cavalry, recently raised in this city, left Camp Brisbin. and are now in the Cumberland Valley. The company was nearly full, when ordered off, mounted on good horses.

BAD ON THE GRAIN.—The recent heavy rains will have the effect of breaking down a large amount of the wheat and other grain now rapidly ripening and ready for harvest. The result will be that the largest heads will lay by the most direct routes, and the Quartermasdown lower than those which have small heads, thus preventing the scythe from cutting it without spoiling the large and most desirable tops of the grain.
