HARRISBURG, PA. Tuesday Evening, July 7, 1863.

MILITARY RELIEF FUND.—The regular payment to families, will be made, this (Tuesday) afternoon, 7th inst., at the usual place, between the hours of four and six.

Old Soldiers.—The members of this company are requested to meet at the Court House on Wednesday morning, at 9 o'clock, with all their arms, for the purpose of being mustered out. By order of the Captain.

A SPECIAL MEETING of the Ladies' Union Relief Association, will be held to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church, Market Square.

DISCHARGED.—The City Guard, Capt. Foster, was mustered out of service yesterday afternoon, and have landed in all their guns and accoutrements to the Superintendent of the Arsenal.

THE CARLEIS GARRISON BAND, one of the most accomplished corps of musicians in this country, and in the employ of the U. S. Government for thirty years, will appear and perform during the exhibition of Davis' Panorama of the Great Rebellion this evening, at Brant's Hall.

DANGEROUS FALL.—Yesterday evening, a cavalryman's horse received a severe fall at the corner of Walnut and Third streets. He was driving rather fast, and as the horse passed over the cross walk, the stones being wet, the horse slipped and fell on his haunches, hurting him internally.

FIRST CITY TROOP.—The First Philadelphia Troop, the volunteer company which attracted so much attention when they left this city a few days ago, left Columbia last week, and about forty of the members are now staying in the hotels in this city, chiefly at the Bush's House.

TWELVE MILES LONG.—The Pennsylvania railroad company have had a large number of their locomotives, passenger and freight cars stationed along the road, between East Liberty and Wall Station, Pittsburgh, for the past week. This rolling stock was thus concentrated through fear of its destruction by the rebels.

GOING TO THE BATTLE FIELD.—The sub-committee of the Committee on National Affairs of the city of New York, consisting of Alderman Long, Ottwell and Mitchell, and Councilmen Brandon, Healy and Shannon, arrived in our city this morning.

NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILWAY.—The repairs on the Northern Central railway are nearly completed, and the trains will soon commence running again as usual. Owing to the untiring energies of the President of the road, J. D. Cameron, Esq., the business management had never flagged, until it received the injuries committed by the rebels while invading York county last week.

SERENADE.—Major General Franz Sigel, whose arrival in this city we noticed yesterday, was serenaded at the Jones House last evening by the brass band recently stationed at the Carlisle Barracks.

General Sigel was loudly cheered by the crowd assembled to see him on this occasion, and much eagerness was manifested to hear what he had to say. He is a slim, middle-aged man, and has an expression of countenance which denotes unmistakable energy and endurance.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY RAILROAD.—The sudden stoppage of travel over this road by the unwelcome visit of Ewell's army, will be resumed its whole length as soon as practicable.

GOING TO THE BATTLE FIELD.—The general desire now appears to be to obtain passes and permission to view the battle field near Gettysburg, and many Harrisburgers started this morning for that place.

NEW REGIMENT FORMED.—A regiment of three months' men was organized yesterday afternoon from the troops now stationed along the Susquehanna, below this city.

MORE REBEL PRISONERS.—A train from up the Cumberland Valley yesterday, brought down one hundred and sixty rebel prisoners, captured near Gettysburg while on a foraging expedition.

DAVIS' PANORAMA.—Brant's Hall was opened last evening, and the grand panorama of the rebellion was presented before a Harrisburg audience for the first time since Mr. Davis' return to this city.

AT A SPECIAL MEETING of the Good Will Fire Company, held June 20th, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Good Will Fire Company have heard, with deep regret, of the death of our esteemed associate and fellow member, and by his death we have been deprived of a worthy member whose noble acts shall always be cherished in our hearts.

Resolved, That we tender to the relatives of the deceased the expressions of our sympathy in this the hour of their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That we attend the funeral of our late fellow member, and furnish the family of the deceased with a copy of the above resolutions, and that they be published in the daily papers of the city.

Resolved, That we attend the funeral of our late fellow member, and furnish the family of the deceased with a copy of the above resolutions, and that they be published in the daily papers of the city.

Resolved, That we attend the funeral of our late fellow member, and furnish the family of the deceased with a copy of the above resolutions, and that they be published in the daily papers of the city.

A Card from the Invalid Corps. HARRISBURG, July 6, 1863. EDITOR HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH: In the issue of the Patriot and Union of the 6th inst. is an item doing great injustice to two most worthy officers of the Invalid Corps, who were neither "cavalrymen" nor "spalpeens"; and perhaps it would be as well that Officer Campbell (who may be a very efficient man) should, before he makes his reports, ascertain the facts, before he casts so serious an imputation upon officers in discharge of their duties as bearers of important dispatches, which require speed in their delivery.

The stage is always in waiting upon the arrival of the cars at Newville.

AN INVALID. I am a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alternative power as to afford an effective and safe remedy for all the various ailments of the system.

A STEAMBOAT, coming up from Vicksburg the other day, a soldier stepped aboard on the way, and asked for a free passage to this city. The Captain asked, "What is your rank in the army, sir?" "I'm a private in the 8d Kentucky, sir." "Give me your hand, for I—d if you ain't the first private I have seen for a month."

THE boys in Roseburg's army have a new word which they use very frequently. It is "snapped up"—suddenly caught—by the enemy, they say he was "snapped."

A NEW YORK letter writer, who is well advised, states that Mrs. Tom Thumb is in excellent health, and would be the subject of daily bulletins, were she the Empress Eugenie.

THE MOVEMENT UPON RICHMOND.—A letter from a member of the Massachusetts 40th, dated at Williamsburg, Va., 23d ult., says: "There is quite a large force landed at Yorktown, and on their way up. Our division has advanced as far as Hanoverville, and I hear Concord is at White House. Although this is considered an unhealthy section, yet we have but very little sickness in the regiment."
