REGULATIONS FOR MUSTERING OFFICERS.-Mus tering officers have been directed, whenever they muster in troops, to ascertain, as nearly as possible, and report to the Provost Marshal General, the Congressional district from which every man comes, in order that a fair allowance may be made to each district in assigning quotas for the coming draft.

THE 220 NEW YORK BRASS BAND .- The regimental brass band, connected with the Twentysecond New York Militia, serenaded General Sigel last Monday evening, when the General responded in a short, patriotic speech. General Hall, commanding the New York troops now in this department, also made a few remarks which elicited the applause of those collected in the vicinity of the Jones House to hear the speeches and listen to the beautiful music of the band.

THE ENROLLMENT IN LANCASTER COUNTY.-The county is finished, and all the papers have been forwarded to Washington. The total number enrolled in the district is 13,439; number in service, March 3d, 1863, 3,030; subject to draft, 10,409. The draft in the Congressional District is to commence next Thursday. The laborers are busily engaged in laying the foundation for the building, and two houses now standing on the ground where the building is being put up, will have to be torn down or removed from the spots they now occupy, in order to make room for the new structure. From what we could learn, the round house is to hold eight or ten locomotives. It will be erected without any unnecessary
