HARRISBURG, PA.

Monday Evening, July 13, 1863.

FOR THE ARMY.—Saturday and Sunday, Market street, at certain hours, was thronged with government trains, consisting of wagons, ambulances, horses, &c.

THIRTY-SIXTH PENNSYLVANIA MILITIA.—The 36th Pennsylvania militia were organized last week, when H. C. Alleman, Esq., of this city, was elected Colonel.

TWO NIGHTS MORE.—Mr. Harry Davis, having met with such gratifying success in his entertainments last week, proposes to exhibit his panorama at Brant's Hall, two nights longer, commencing this evening.

SEVENTY-FIRST PENNSYLVANIA MILITIA.—This regiment, composed of men from seven counties, and under the command of Colonel James P. Wickersham, is made up of some of the best material in service.

TO BE RIGIDLY ENFORCED.—The order of Major General Couch, issued last Saturday, relating to officers and soldiers having passes, went into effect yesterday noon.

REBEL PRISONERS FROM CHAMBERSBURG.—Saturday evening, an extra train from Chambersburg reached this city with one hundred and fourteen rebel prisoners, captured from Lee's army last week.

THE CURTIN CAVALRY.—This promising company only wants a few more men to fill its ranks. Its commander, being a thorough drilled man, has an advantage over many others now raising cavalry companies.

"MURDER WILL OUT."—Our readers doubtless remember the daring burglary committed in Highspire, last March, when the store of Mr. Henry Stoner was forcibly entered and robbed of a large quantity of valuable goods.

COBURN STONE LAYING.—The laying of the corner stone of the First Free Baptist Church of Harrisburg, Sunday, was very interesting and appropriate. The ceremonies were conducted by Rev. James Collier, the pastor of the new church, who took the deepest interest in the whole proceeding.

SPECIAL MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL.—City Council held a special meeting at their room in the Court House, Saturday evening.

Also, bill of Wm. B. Swope for services performed—$2 70. Approved.

Also, bill of John H. Gram, $12 50. Approved.

Mr. Hamilton, bill of Daniel Muench, amounting to $5 00, for work done at Water House. Approved.

Also, a resolution for the employment of an assistant at Water House, to be employed as long as necessary, or until Council shall dispense with his services.

Mr. Stahl, bill for the payment of Wm. Toop and George Myers, for cleaning lock-up, $3 00. Ordered to be paid.

Also, bill of Mr. Callendar, for posting bills, proclamations, &c. Withdrawn by request of Mr. Callendar.

The President then arose, and said he had called Council together at the instance of the Mayor, to take some action with relation to the payment of the extra police force of the city.

Mr. Stahl desired to know if the Mayor had authority to put so many extra policemen on duty in the city, and wished to learn the reason why 125 police (including the Philadelphia force of 95 men) were required to keep the peace in our midst.

The bills of sixteen extra police were handed in for approval. These men were recently employed by the Mayor at the rate of $1 25 per day, to assist the regular policemen in the fulfillment of their duties.

John Sullivan, for five days duty, $6 25. Joseph Enger, ten and one half days, $13 12. H. Carberry, one day, $1 25.

Samuel Oswald, three days, $2 75. Samuel Redifer, thirteen days, $16 25. Wm. Ounkel, nine days, $11 25.

Patrick Costello, two days, $2 50. Wm. P. Boyce, one day, $1 25. Robert Fry, thirteen days, $16 25.

Geo. Brenizer, fourteen days, $17 50. Michael Fitzgerald, one day, $1 25. Patrick Loyd, nine days, $11 25.

Charles S. Miller, eight days, $10 00. Andrew Moyer, eight days, $10 00. John Connelly, seven and a half days, $9 37. J. S. Rhine, seven days, $8 75.

Mr. Shoemaker objected to the extra police force being paid, unless some bill was passed to that effect, in order to guide Council in the matter in future.

Mr. Verbeke spoke in favor of the bills being paid. He said they had always been paid heretofore, and if the Council thought it improper to pay them hereafter, they ought to notify the Mayor of the fact, so that he may make some arrangement in future.

Mr. Stahl thought that some more definite understanding ought to be arrived at.

Mr. Wolfinger remarked that the Mayor ought to be treated with all the courtesy that was due him, but Council ought to inquire into the necessity of an extra police force.

Mr. Verbeke replied, followed by Mr. Shoemaker, but the sum and substance of their remarks was lost by the reporter, who was unable to hear the speakers on account of the disturbance made by the entertainment in Brant's Hall, directly opposite, and the concert of instrumental music in the Court room below.

The President thought these bills ought to be paid the way they stood, and if any objections were to be made to their payment, should they be presented in future, the Mayor ought to be notified at once.

Mr. Shoemaker offered a resolution that the Mayor make a statement of the amount of fees the extra police force received in addition to their pay, while on duty, during the time specified in their bills; when the year and days were called, as follows—years 9, days 2.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. PROCLAMATION. MARSHAL'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, July 13, 1863.

The grave considerations which led to the restraint imposed upon tavern keepers and others engaged in the liquor business, having ceased to exist, those persons can now resume the legitimate pursuit of their respective occupations. The Mayor congratulates his fellow-citizens upon the remarkably good order which has reigned in this city, under circumstances of the most exciting character.

This is due not only to the excellent spirit which animates this community, but also, in a measure, to the disinterested manner in which an entire class of our fellow-citizens cheerfully sacrificed their personal interests to the public good. To them especially the Mayor returns his sincere thanks for this evidence of their patriotism, and he has no doubt that should the occasion require it, they will again show themselves worthy of the public respect to which they are so fully entitled respectively. A. L. ROUMFORD, Mayor. jyl3-tf
