OFFICE TO ADVERTISERS.—All advertisements, notices, marriages, deaths, etc., to secure insertion in the TELEGRAPH, must invariably be accompanied with the CASH. Advertisements ordered in the regular Evening Edition are inserted in the Morning Edition without extra charge.

HARRISBURG, PA.
Tuesday Evening, July 14, 1863.

FOR SALE.—A first class riding horse, fourteen and one-half hands high. Inquire at J. D. Hoffman's livery and sale stable, Third street, above Walnut.

Lost!—Supposed to be on Market, Second or Third streets, a dark green Leather Belt, studded with steel and tipped with silver. The finder will please return to this office, or 3d street, two doors above North.

In Town.—The agent of Nixon's Cremorne mammoth circus is again in the city, and desires us to state that the entire company will be here next Tuesday, and will probably perform in the city the remainder of the week, commencing in the afternoon of that day.

No ARRESTS.—Up to two o'clock this afternoon, but one case had been before Alderman Kline, since last evening. The police are unusually vigilant lately, and the law-breakers appear to have withdrawn to some other locality where there is less danger of molestation and arrest.

THE CITY LOCK-UP.—The lock-up under the Court House is again used by the military authorities as a place of confinement for deserters, stragglers and disorderly soldiers. This morning the cells were nearly all occupied, and a strong guard was stationed outside to render any service that might be required of them.

REWARDS FOR RE-ENLISTING.—We learn that Adjutant General Russell was recently ordered by the Secretary of War to provide appropriate medals of honor for troops who, after the expiration of their terms, have offered their services to the Government in the present emergency. The order applies to volunteers from other States, who have volunteered to go to the relief of Pennsylvania and Maryland.

THE NUMBER.—Since the first day of July, one thousand five hundred and forty six rebel prisoners, and deserters, have been reported to the Provost Marshal of this city. Nearly all these rebels have been sent to Philadelphia, where they are securely confined, or sent to Fort Delaware to be exchanged, unless they signify their willingness to take the oath of allegiance to the government. They are then set at liberty, with the injunction not to go further south than Philadelphia.

FORGIVENESS AND THE DRAFT.—The plea of allegiance will not exempt any person of foreign birth from the draft who shall have declared on oath his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and who shall be found within its limits at any one time during the continuance of the rebellion, or after the expiration of sixty days from the date of the President's proclamation, issued May 8th, 1863. The time thus specified expired last Tuesday, the 7th inst.

FOR THE COEN EXCHANGE REGIMENT.—Two companies of volunteer militia arrived in the city this morning from Philadelphia, took breakfast at the "retreat," and were sent to Camp Curtin, to be attached to the Corn Exchange (49th militia) regiment, now being organized. Six companies were already here when the two from Philadelphia arrived, and but two more are required to complete the regimental organization.

Since the above was written the regiment, in charge of Colonel Murphy, passed down Third street, and crossed the Harrisburg bridge, into Cumberland county.

DISCHARGED FOR DISABILITY.—The discharges resulting from sickness produced by the vicissitudes of camp life, and the casualties in the field, have stood out among the prominent military returns to the Surgeon General's office at Washington. The returns in the medical director's office of the army, show that since the war commenced 135,000 soldiers have been discharged from service on surgeons' certificates of disability. This does not of course include those discharged through other departments, nor those whose terms of service have expired, but simply comprises those whose health and physical inability to be a soldier prevented them from being of further service in the army.

TO THE DRAFTED MILITIA.—As the conscription act will soon take effect in this district, we publish the following circular of instruction, which the Provost Marshal General has issued in relation to the draft. He says: "All men who have been mustered into the United States service, under the call of the President of the United States, dated June 15, 1863, for troops for six months' service, or who have volunteered for the State service alone, are liable to draft under the enrollment act. If any of those who have been mustered into the United States service should be drafted, they will receive credit for the time they may have served, or may yet serve, under their present engagement. Those so drafted are to be taken up on the descriptive roll of drafted men, and notified through their present commanding officer. They will, until further orders, continue on duty with the organizations to which they may belong at the time of draft, and, at the expiration of that service, will be assigned to three years' regiments for the completion of their term of service.—Those called out by Governors of States, for State service, and not mustered into United States service, will, if drafted, be duly notified through their commanding officers, and required to report to the Provost Marshal of the district where they were drafted, to be enrolled in the United States service for three years from the date of such enrollment." This settles the question of the liability of these months militia to the draft, as well as those mustered into the State service for ninety days.

THREE MONTHS' MEN.—There appears to be no doubtment in the arrival of volunteers, who are offering their services to the State for ninety days. Large squads of men are constantly coming in to day, and every passenger train that reaches the city contains a greater or less number of "militia," who are marched to Camp Curtin, and formed into companies and regiments without delay.

PICNIC OF THE PAXTON HOSE COMPANY.—The picnic of the Paxton boys, advertised to be held on the Fourth of July, was postponed on account of the war excitement, which appeared to absorb everything at that time. Since then, however, the committee of arrangements have re-inserted their advertisement, changing the time of holding the picnic to next Saturday, the 18th. Weber's unexcelled string band will be in attendance, to disperse some of their sweetest music. Carriages will leave different points of the city for the woods every fifteen minutes during the day. For full particulars see advertisement.

THE RECRUITING SERVICE.—The following table will convey an idea of the success of the three years' recruiting offices in this State, since the first of June, 1863:

Forwarded to this depot during the month, 218
Sent from general depot to regiments, 140
Deserted from Camp Curtin, 13
Rejected by surgeon, 13
Remaining in Camp Curtin July 1st, 59

The prospect of the success of the recruiting service is much better now than it was in the beginning of June, and more recruits have been reported since the 1st of July than were remaining at Camp Curtin at the close of last month.

PANORAMA OF THE WESTERN WORLD.—Mr. H. H. Davis, at the request of many citizens, has consented to exhibit his great Panorama of the Western World this evening, for the first time in many months. The panorama opens with the life-like painting of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus, which is followed in succession by forty-six scenes, representing different interesting events in the new world, down to modern times. In addition to this attraction offered by Mr. Davis, a number of valuable gifts will be distributed to the audience, including a beautiful silver watch, purchased expressly for the occasion. The prospects are that the hall will be crowded to-night to see the best panorama extant.

CONCERT BY THE BAND OF THE NEW YORK 22d REGIMENT.—This concert, which came off on Saturday evening, was everything that could be desired, so far as the music was concerned. The band sustained its well earned reputation, and we are not extravagant in saying that our citizens never enjoyed so fine a treat of the kind. The leader, Mr. Holmsmuller, and his band, are entitled to the highest praise, both for their excellent music and their gratuitous services in the affair. The audience was an appreciative, though not a large one, owing to the absence of many of the music-loving citizens, the intense heat of the weather, and want of the usual attention of those of our citizens who had the matter at heart, but whose attention to other philanthropic duties in the Christian commission and hospitals, prevented their looking after the distribution and sale of tickets. We are happy to say that a number of the crowd in the alley, who were supposed to have only carb-stone tickets, had really paid at the door, but preferred to take the music "out in the cold." The agent netted a very nice sum for the benefit of the wounded heroes of Gettysburg. Our thanks are due also to General Hall, at whose instance the band furnished this delightful music.

DIED IN CAMP CURTIN HOSPITAL.—We publish to-day the names, companies, regiments, etc., of those who have died in Camp Curtin hospital since the first of the present month:

Christian Crider, private, company D, 13th Pennsylvania cavalry; died on the morning of July 1st, from the effects of being thrown from his horse a few days previously.

John E. Gikerson, company C, 1st Pennsylvania militia, died July 7th; chronic diarrhoea.

Charles Latham, belonged in United States regular army; company and regiment not known; died July 9th, of typhoid fever.

Charles Latham, though but twenty-six years of age at the time of his death, possessed the highest order of intellect, and had a liberal and refined education. He had formerly been a reporter of both the New York Tribune and Times, and an occasional correspondent of the former journal. He was much loved and respected by those who had the care of him in the hospital, and the greatest care and attention was paid him by the nurse; but the fever done its work, and the poor victim gradually sunk lower and lower until death finally came to his relief.

William R. Norman, private, company G, 3d Alabama; died July 10th, with pneumonia. This man was captured in a private building, in company with several other rebels, a few miles from this city, just before the battle of Gettysburg. He was confined in the guard house at Camp Curtin until stricken down with his disease, when he was taken to the hospital July 4th, from whence he never was removed until taken out a corpse.

HOW GRANT BECAME A GENERAL.—Gen. Grant entered the service for this war as colonel of the 21st Illinois infantry. He had raised his regiment near Springfield, and was about to have it mustered into the service, when many of his men gave evidence of disaffection, and expressed an unwillingness to be sworn in. They had tried camp life a short time, and didn't like it well enough to bind themselves to it for the long period of three years. Grant was getting disheartened, and was mourning the prospective loss of his eagles, when he accidentally met Gen. Logan, who happened to be in Springfield about that time. He made his troubles known to him. They counseled together on the subject for a while, and finally Grant told Logan that he thought if he (Logan) would make a speech to the men it might do some good. Logan consented, and soon after the 21st was drawn up in line to give him an audience. Logan made a speech, in which he urged them to enlist, one and all. He painted the soldier's life in rainbow hues, and soon dispelled the prosaic ideas which the new recruits had of what was in store for them. His address had the desired effect. Every man was sworn in, and Grant was commissioned as colonel. He has often said, since that, if it had not been for Logan he would probably never have been in the army.

NOTICE.—All persons who received arms and equipments from the Friendship Hose House, will please meet at the Ho-o House with arms and equipments, to deliver them to the Government, on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. My order. J. WESLEY AYL.

EVERYBODY should go to Sanford's Hall this evening to Jake Budd's benefit, when he will produce the largest bill ever given in this city. Budd appears in several new and original negro acts. This is a rare treat, and all should go and enjoy the fun. We advise all to go early and secure seats.

JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING CERTAIN AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.
Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provision of the tenth article thereof:

There shall be an additional section to the third article of the Constitution, to be designated as section four, as follows:
SECTION 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the President of the United States, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are or shall be prescribed by law, as full as if they were present at their usual place of election.

There shall be two additional sections to the eleventh article of the Constitution, to be designated as sections eight and nine, as follows:
Sec. 8. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature, containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills.
Sec. 9. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any power or privileges, in any case, where the authority to grant such powers, or privileges, has been, or may hereafter be, conferred upon the courts of this Commonwealth.

JOHN CESSNA,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN P. PENNEY,
Speaker of the Senate.

SECRETARY OF THE COMMISSIONERS,
HARRISBURG, July 1, 1863.

PENNSYLVANIA, SS:
I do hereby certify that the foregoing and annexed is a full, true and correct copy of the original joint resolution of the General Assembly, entitled "A joint resolution proposing certain amendments to the Constitution," as the same remains on file in this office.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Secretary's office to be affixed, the day and year above written.

DEPARTMENT OF THE SUSQUEHANNA,
Harrisburg, July 10th, 1863.
GENERAL ORDERS
NO. 6.

Officers commanding posts, divisions, detached brigades and regiments, are hereby ordered to grant no passes to troops under their command, to visit Harrisburg or leave the limits of their command unless in cases of extreme necessity.

All officers and soldiers found in this city and outside the limits of their commands, without passes approved as above indicated; or all those having proper passes who act in a disorderly or improper manner, will be arrested, and accompanied by a statement of the offence will be sent under guard to their commanding officers. Officers commanding posts, divisions, detached brigades and regiments, who have occasion to come to Harrisburg, must have their passes approved at these headquarters. All passes must state the reason of the temporary absence.

Captain R. I. Dodge, commandant at this post, will see that the above order is strictly enforced in this city.
By command of
MAJ. GEN. D. N. COUCH,
Jno. E. Schultz, Major and A. A. G.

THE LARGEST IN THE WORLD!
With Men and Horses, Life Size!

Vast and comprehensive, officially authentic and minute in all its details. The most extensive, popular and complete exhibition of the kind before the public. Every scene sketched upon the spot, and painted with scrupulous fidelity by a corps of celebrated artists. Commenced at the first breaking out of the rebellion, it has been in steady progress down to the present time, and showing every event of importance connected with this terrible contest for liberty and Union, from the bombardment of Sumter through a space of more than two years of hostilities to the last grand battle, profuse with startling dramatic effects, entirely new, and on a scale of magnificence never before attempted. The fire and smoke of the advancing fort is seen; the thunder of cannon and the din of the battle-field upon the ears of the audience, and the fearful words of carnage and death is presented with a distinctness and vividness mocking reality, so that the audience can readily imagine themselves actual spectators of the sublime and stirring scenes represented.
Doors open at 7, Panorama commence moving at 8 o'clock.
