NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—All Advertisements, Business Notices, Marriages, Deaths, &c., must invariably be accompanied with the CASH.

Advertisements ordered in the regular Evening Edition are inserted in the Morning Edition without extra charge.

HARRISBURG, PA. Wednesday Evening, July 15, 1863.

FOUND.—The discharge papers of private Isaac Cramer, and a certificate of membership, were found on the streets, and can be obtained by calling at THIS OFFICE.

PORTRAITS OF THE HEROES!—Cartes de Visites of Generals Meade, Kilpatrick, Pleasanton, Grant and Sickles, with a lot of other Generals, just received at W. Knoche's, 93 Market street.

NOTICE.—All persons who received arms and equipments from the Friendship Hose House, will please meet at the Hose House with arms and equipments, to deliver them to the Government, this evening at 7 o'clock.

GOING TO ASSIST IN QUELLING THE RIOT.—The several companies composing the 65th New York State volunteers, passed through the city this morning, on their way to the scene of mob law in New York city.

CHEAP GROCERIES.—Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. Nichols & Bowman, who now offer the public (in addition to the articles advertised) a choice assortment of groceries, which will be sold at low rates.

NEW MUSIC AT WARD'S MUSIC STORE, THIRD STREET.—"Dear Mother, I've come Home to Die," by Henry Tucker; "Yes, I would the War were Over," words and music by Alice Hawthorne—the best of all replies to, "When this Cruel War is Over," fully equal to the original. Also, a large number of new songs from New York publishers.

GATHERING IN THEIR GRAIN.—The farmers throughout the county are very busy garnering their wheat, and every hand they can employ is placed in the field on double duty with more than the usual allowance for rations, when not drawn in kind. The grain crop is an all important one this year, and there cannot be any too great a supply from present appearances.

ORDERED TO PITTSBURGH.—We learn that Col. Kane, of the famous Bucktail regiment, (otherwise known as the First Pennsylvania Rifles), has been ordered to Pittsburgh to open a rendezvous for the drafted men of Western Pennsylvania. We did not learn whether he is to repair to that city immediately or not, but suppose that he will establish his rendezvous there without unnecessary delay.

SENT FORWARD.—Over one hundred deserters, stragglers, etc., were sent to Washington and Annapolis this morning—the deserters and stragglers to be forwarded from Washington to their regiments. There have been no straggling soldiers arrested the present month there were usually collected together in the same length of time heretofore, which accounts for their being sent forward to-day, instead of the 20th, as is generally the case.

EXTENSIVE BREAK IN THE PENNSYLVANIA CANAL.—The water has been let out of the Pennsylvania canal, between Allegheny City and Freeport, for the purpose of repairing a break, two miles above Trenton, at the Soda works there. The company will scarcely be able to repair the break within two or three weeks, though it might be done in a much shorter period, were it not for the difficulty experienced in procuring the requisite number of laboring men to facilitate its completion.

NEW PLACE OF CONFINEMENT.—One of the "Traverse Jury" rooms in the second story of the Court House, has been opened recently, and is now used for the accommodation of the Provost Marshal of the city, who places many of the officers and soldiers found in the city in confinement here until they have been examined by the proper officers. The room is generally well filled, and occasionally an unknown innocent is placed in among the other captives until his innocence is clearly established, and a release granted.

ANOTHER REGIMENT ORGANIZED AT READING.—At a meeting of seven company commanders from Schuylkill county, one from Montour, and two from Berks, held at Camp Heister, Reading, on the 13th instant, a regimental organization was formed, and the following field and staff officers were elected:

Henry Royer, Colonel, Schuylkill county. James Conner, Lieut. Col., do James Ellis, Major, do Israel C. Becker, Adjutant, Berks county. Jesse C. Ammerman, Sergeant Major, Montour county. Madison Sallade, Q. M. Serg't, Berks county. T. M. O'Brien, Jr., Com'y Serg't, do G. B. Beaver, Hospital Steward, do

HARRISBURG CEMETERY.—The new Board of Managers elected their permanent officers on Monday, the 13th inst., excepting the President, who was elected by the lot holders at the last general election. We give the salaries of each officer, in connection with his name and office:

President—Hamilton Alricks. No salary. Secretary—John H. Small, vice John A. Wier, resigned. Salary, twenty-five dollars. Superintendent—Rudolph F. Kelker; fifty dollars.

Keeper—Jeremiah Barnes, in place of John Parr; four hundred dollars, house, &c. Treasurer—A. K. Fahnestock; one hundred dollars.

The salary of the keeper was increased one hundred dollars, and that of the Treasurer fifty dollars, over what was previously paid these officers. The second vote on the election for Treasurer stood four for A. K. Fahnestock; viz: Wm. Colder, D. W. Gross, John A. Soull and B. F. Kelker, and two for H. Murray Graydon, viz: William H. Kleckner and Hamilton Alricks.

SPECIAL MEETING OF COUNCIL.—Council met last evening at 7 1/2 o'clock.—President, Mr. Hickok, in the chair.

Members present, Messrs. Bernhard, Hamilton, Shoemaker, Stahl, Verbeke, Weaver, Wolfinger, and Hickok, President. Messrs. Haehnel, Linn and Mayer were also in attendance during the latter part of the meeting.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved. The President said he had received a communication from the Mayor, and on that account he had called a special meeting of Council.

The clerk (Mr. Harris) was ordered to read the communication, which referred chiefly to the employment of extra policemen in the city at the time there was such an excitement in our midst, caused by the invasion of the Cumberland valley by an armed force of rebels, anxious to reach the capital. Arms had been anxiously distributed to the citizens of Harrisburg, wherewith to repel these invaders, had they made an attack on our homes, and it became necessary, on account of the unusual excitement, to have a larger number of policemen to maintain order throughout the city.

Mr. Linn moved that these extra policemen be paid for their services. The President thought that some ordinance ought to be passed to pay these extra policemen for their past services; which was moved and seconded by Messrs. Verbeke and Bernhard.

Mr. Shoemaker referred the Council to section 45 of the city charter, and said that the Mayor had no right to employ extra police at $1 25 per day, (as shown by their bills,) in the face of this section. The Mayor was not clothed with the authority to present these bills to the Council when a section of this kind was before them.

The yeas and nays were then called, on a resolution to instruct a committee of three to prepare an ordinance forthwith. Yeas—Messrs. Bernhard, Linn, Mayer, Stahl, Verbeke, Wolfinger and Hickok; President.

NAYS—Messrs. Haehnel, Hamilton, Shoemaker and Weaver. A committee of three were appointed by the President to draw up an ordinance.

While the ordinance was being drawn up, The President said he was informed that the bridge near the State Lunatic Hospital barn, in the Sixth ward, had been swept away by the recent flood, and he hoped the committee in that district would take some action to have it rebuilt without delay.

Bill of J. & K. Greenawalt, amounting to $3 00, for sole leather furnished to the watering committee, was presented. Ordered to be paid.

Bill of Kelker & Brothers, amounting to $17 70, for furnishing iron, etc., in the erection of the Good Will engine house, (built in 1860), was laid before Council. Ordered to be paid.

Mr. Linn offered a resolution to the effect that the Mayor displayed much discretion and forethought in employing an extra police force in this city during the recent emergency.

Mr. Stahl said he gave his objections at the last meeting of Council in relation to the subject of employing an extra police force. He further said that Council was not, in another sense, able to pay these expenses. We had bridges to build, streets and alleys to grade and repair, besides many other things to see to before employing such a large extra police force.

Mr. Haehnel approved of the resolution offered by Mr. Linn, and thought it was a "buncombe" one in every respect. The President said he could not vote for the resolution. He was in favor of passing the ordinance, but hereafter he should have strong objections to paying them.

Mr. Linn withdrew his resolution. Mr. Shoemaker offered the following preamble and resolution:

WHEREAS, The law commonly known as the "conscriptio law" is about to be enforced; and whereas, Under the law, every drafted man will be obliged to pay a certain sum to be entitled to exemption;

And whereas, There is a large and valuable portion of the population of this city who cannot pay the sum that will be thus requisite for exemption;

And whereas, This class comprises the workmen who cannot now be spared from the city, being indispensable to our growth and prosperity; therefore,

Resolved, That the Ordinance Committee be directed to report an ordinance at our next stated meeting, appropriating the sum of twenty thousand dollars for the purpose of paying to the General Government, the amount required to exempt any and all citizens of Harrisburg who may be drafted and unable to pay the amount of such exemption.

The President wanted to know if he (Mr. Shoemaker) offered the preamble and resolution in good earnest.

Mr. Shoemaker replied that he did, and he thought that this resolution was entitled to much more consideration, than one implying the right of the Mayor to employ and pay an extra police force. He said that many of our citizens had ample means to pay the required sum wherewith they might stay at home; but many poor men were absolutely necessary here, who could not raise enough to avoid being drafted into the service of the Government, however much they might wish to remain at home.

Mr. Weaver thought the money had better be subscribed to pay General Lee to stay away from the city.

Mr. Verbeke was not prepared to vote for the resolution offered by his colleague, and moved it be referred to a committee of five. Not seconded.

Mr. Wolfinger hoped that the gentleman would withdraw his resolution.

Mr. Shoemaker was of the opinion that the real interests of the city required that a resolution of this kind should be presented to Council. Other cities would no doubt pass something of a similar character, and he did not think it out of order to offer the resolution as presented before Council this evening.

The yeas and nays were required on the resolution as offered by Mr. Shoemaker, and were—Yeas 11, nays 10.

So the resolution was negatived. The committee appointed to draw up an ordinance relative to the payment of the extra police, recently employed by the Mayor, made a report and presented the following, which was read:

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Harrisburg, That the sum of three hundred and fifty-four dollars and thirty-seven cents be, and the same is hereby appropriated, for the payment of the special police force appointed by the Mayor during the excitement attending the invasion of the Cumberland valley.

Mr. Shoemaker believed that these extra police should not receive any more wages than were granted to the extra police force of six, who were employed by the Mayor, with the consent of Council. Their rate of pay was $25 per month. He again referred to the 45th section of the city charter, and said that Council need not look beyond this section for the desired information, which required no argument.

The yeas and nays were then called, and were—Yeas 11, nays 0.

The following title was also agreed upon: "An ordinance making appropriation for the payment of the special police force."

Messrs. Shoemaker and Verbeke made a few remarks in relation to the supply of broken lime stone for macadamizing the streets, alleys &c. It was almost impossible to purchase the desired quantity, on account of the Pennsylvania railroad company buying it up for the purpose of bedding their road.

The President referred to the streets of the city at the present time, and said they were in a very bad condition; and it was with forbearance on the part of the citizens that complaints in relation thereto had not been made.

Mr. Shoemaker remarked that it was utterly impossible to repair the streets as they should be, at the present time, on account of the scarcity of out-door hands.

Mr. Wolfinger had been appointed one of a committee to buy stone for the use of the city; but it was utterly impossible to obtain any, on account of the railroad companies buying all the stone they could for ballast.

Messrs. Verbeke and Shoemaker corroborated the statement of the committee; but if any stone was purchased, it ought to be purchased where Council could get it the cheapest.

On motion, the Council Adjourned.

SAD CASE OF VAGRANCY.—A young woman, probably sixteen years of age, was brought from over the river and taken before Alderman Kline this morning, charged with vagrancy.

It was alleged that she had been staying in the vicinity of Fort Couch for several days, and that she had no permanent dwelling place in the neighborhood. The Alderman examined her very closely, and ascertained that she was born in Mechanicsburg, and had no father nor mother living. She gave her name as Kate Trimmer, and although her clothing was very dirty and torn, the expression of her countenance betokened no lack of intellect or moral sense. It is one of the most pitiful cases that has been before the Mayor for a long time, and we think if some kind-hearted, benevolent person would take care of her, she might yet be saved from the wreck which has hurried many a one before her into eternity. The Alderman committed her to prison for ten days, not knowing of a more suitable place to put her until the charge of vagrancy was withdrawn.

POLICE REPORT.—Before Alderman Kline.—Three negroes named Wm. P. Delancy, Benjamin Moore and Joseph Richeson were confined in the lock up last night for different offenses. Two of them were committed to prison and one discharged. Six others were arrested for minor offenses, though all of them were discharged when their cases were heard by the Alderman.

James Jackson was arrested this morning for assault and battery on oath of "Colonel" Richard Allen. Both the plaintiff and defendant were Africans. The accused was to find bail last evening, but it had not made its appearance up to 8 o'clock this afternoon.

PROCLAMATION. MARSH'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, July 13, 1863.

The grave considerations which led to the restraint imposed upon tavern keepers and others engaged in the liquor business, having ceased to exist, these persons can no longer be the legitimate pursuit of their respective occupations. The Mayor congratulates his fellow-citizens upon the remarkably good order which has reigned in this city, under circumstances of the most exciting character. This is due not only to the excellent spirit which animates this community, but also, in a measure, to the effect of the draft, which has been conducted, says our fellow-citizens cheerfully sacrificed their personal interests to the public good. To them especially the Mayor returns his sincere thanks for this evidence of their patriotism, and he has no doubt that, should the occasion require it, they will again show themselves worthy of the public respect to which they have so fully entitled themselves.
