This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the pen-alty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by falling into improper habits than by the pru-dent. Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destruc-tive symptoms to both body and mind arise The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental functions weakened, loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, a wasting of the frame, cough, consumption, decay and death.

LATEST FROM THE ABMY.

We learn from a gentleman who left the front last night, that General Meade, immediately on ascertaining the escape of Lee, put the whole army in motion for a new base of operations calculated to check the rebel retreat or its way to Richmond.

Having the inner line of movement he will be able to secure all the mountain passes on the Virginia side of the Potomac before the enemy can reach it. His army is in fine coudition and ready to follow rapidly. Pontoons were across the river last evening, and we have The Town Occupied by the Union Troops on no doubt that his advance is already on Virginia soil.

It would not be proper to state the point of crossing, but it will be a satisfaction to know that our army is in pursuit.

We also learn that the delay in attacking the rebels was owing to the differences of opinion among the corps commanders, to whose views Gen. Menderyielded in opposition to his own judgment, sustained by Gens. Pleasanton and Warren. They were all for an immedite at tack on coming up, before the enemy had time

REPULSE OF THE REBELS. General Ellet.

WASHINGTON, July 15. The Navy Department has received this morning a communication from Rear Admiral Porter, dated the 2d instant, in which he says:

On the 29th of June he received a communi cation from General Dennis, commanding the post at Young's Point, informing him that our black troops had been attacked at Goodrich's Landing, and that the rebels were getting the upper hand of them. A gunboat had already been dispatched to that point, but another was sent without delay.

Gen. Ellet was directed to proceed with the Marine Brigade to the scene of action, and remain there until everything was quiet. The gunboat Romeo also came up the river about this time, hearing the firing and hurried to the scene of action. The commander soon discovered the rebels setting fire to the plantations, and commenced shelling them. This he kept up for a distance of fifteen miles, chasing them along, the rebels setting fire to everything as they went along. The result was an almost total destruction of houses and property along the river front in that vicinity.

The rebels carried off about 1,20 negroes, who were employed in working on the Govern-General Ellett landed his forces, and in company with a black briggede, and examine at NICHOLS & BOWMAN, proceeded to chase the rebels, who were making je2 Cor. After using Laird's Bloom of Youth, or Liquid

Pearl, for a short time, it will leave the skin a soft, satin-like texture; it imparts freshness amouthness and transparency to the skin, that Operations of the Marine Brigade of can only be preduced by the use of this valuable article. It presents no vulgar white paint, as all other attempted compounds do, but, on the contrary, it will give the comp'exion a pearl-like tint, such as can only be found in youth; its use is impossible to be detected by the closest observers. It is also invaluable for removing all kinds of Humors, Tans, Freckels, Sunburns and other cutaneous diseases from the skin.

Mr. Laird has every contidence in recommending his Bloom of Youth, or Liquid Pearl, to the ladies of America, as being the only per-fect and reliable article now in use for beautifying and preserving the complexion and skin.
