CITY POLICE -There was but one case before Alderman Kline since yesterday evening. Reese Flannigan was found in the streets drunk and disorderly, and confined in the lockup by officer Callendar until this morning, when he was released.

AREESTED. - Wm. F. Snyder and Thomas T C. Brady, both belonging to the 153d Pennsylvania Volunteers, were arrested vesterday afternoon by Officer Campbell, charged with committing the violent assault on James Lynch. bar tender at the May House, last Monday evening. Mr. Lynch was very badly bruised about the face by the kicks from his assailants while they had him down, in the meles at the May House on the evening of the 20th inst.

THE 169TH REGIMENT, P. M., was mustered out of service last Thursday or Friday. The companies from this county are expected home in a day or two. It is the intention to give them a hearty reception on their arrival. The citizens are requested to prepare refreshments for them.—Crawford Journal.

The regiment above referred to is still in Camp Curtin and will hardly be mustered out of service this week; consequently the companies from Crawford county will not be able to reach Meadville before the 27th inst., if then. If those refreshments were prepared for them they will scarcely keep until the men return home next week.

To HAVE A BECIPTION .- The 153d regiment Pennsylvania volunteers, now encamped near Camp Curtin, are to have a grand reception when they reach Easton, Northampton county. before dispersing to their homes. Bells will be rung, and cannon fired at intervals of five minutes during the exercises, which are to conpassed through this city on his way to Cham. sist of speeches, reception addresses, a process sion, etc. The procession will form immedi his staff, Lieut. The regiment THE HARVEST .- Many of our farmers are will probably be mustered out about the close of the present week.

Escaped. - For several days past a man has been sneaking about the farm of Mr. J. D. ter than has been raised in this section for Cameron, near this city, evidently bent on doing mischief. He was hailed a number of times, but never gave any answer, and once or twice, when they attempted to capture him, he jumped into the canal and swam to the opposite shore, thus making his escape. But yesterd y the entire stock of Philip Ensminger, our late evening he was surprised, captured and brought to the city, where he found quarters in the lock-up, until he made his escape this morning by breaking off one of the bars over the window of his cell. But unfortunately neither police officers or provost guard were present to arrest the men.

-We respectfully refer this practice of fast riding through our streets to Gen. Stahl. If he does not soon correct the evil the most seriou esults will follow its continuance.

MIDDLETOWN ITEMS .- We clip the following tems of interest from the Dauphin Journal of he 23d inst: Accident .- A few days ago, a small child o John Coles, while playing on a bed, fell off and broke its thigh, bone. The little sufferer is doing well.—Painful Accident—A few days since, while a number of boys were playing about some machinery at the Melly furnace, one of them, a son of Mr. Abraham Snyder, had his foot caught between two levers, which inflicted a severe would, and some important arterics and muscles were severed.—Run off.

Mr. Benj. Bentler and lady, of Hanover township, this county, met with an accident on Saturday last. While riding lin a buggy, the horse took fright, and by turning suddenly usest the volvide. upset the vehicle. Both were thrown out, and the lady was considerably injured, Mr. Bentler, owever, escaping without a scratch. The ouggy was made a complete wreck. dable Occurrence. On Tuesday night, about 10 o'clock, John Monaghan, Esq., accidentally shot himself in his right hand, the ball passing up the arm and lodeing below the elbow. It seems that he was examining his revolver to scortain if it had a load in, (some one wishing borrow it,) when it was discharged in some manner unknown to him. The wound is very painful and he is at present confined to his oom. Mr. M. is one of our most respected and offuential citizens, and all will be, pained to hear of this sad affair — Narrow Escaps.—On Saturday, as Mrs. Crum, who lives a few miles northeast of town, was going home from market, she attempted to ford the Swatara creek at Ulrich's fording, justead of crossing the bridge at that place, in order to let her horse drink. It appears that while the animal was uenching his thirst, he either partially choked or some fit came over him, and he began to go down with the current; Mrs. Q. being unable to turn him towards the shore. Deeper and deeper became the water, as they went down stream. At last she succeeded in stopping the borse but at ill could not turn him when she orse, but still could not turn him, when she, she made her way to a small island, distance below, from which she was taken by some men who had come to her aid. The water in which Mrs. C. stood, while unhitching the horse, reached to her chin, and at one time she fell and went under the water. In making for the island, the horse was sometimes compelled to swim: How many of our fair readers would venture to accomplish what this heroine did, or rather, how many would have the nerve and presence of mind, similarly situated, to overcome the danger to which she was xposed.
