This distressing anection,—watch renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreafful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improver habits then by the prothe power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prodent. Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental functions weakened, loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsis, palyitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, a wasting of the frame, cough, consumption, decay and death.
