HARRISBURG, PA.
Friday Evening, July 24, 1863.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RESERVES.

From private letters we learn that the Pennsylvania Reserves crossed the Potomac below Harper's Ferry, and are now again on Virginia soil, at a small village called Lovettsville.

COLORED SUBSTITUTES.

Twenty-nine colored substitutes, from Beaver county, who were accepted before the reception of the late order refusing colored substitutes, passed through this city yesterday for the negro camp near Philadelphia.

PERFUMERY.

A new article of perfumery, manufactured by S. A. Kunkel, Apothecary, is now before the public, and promises to have a ready sale. It can be had in any quantity, from a small bottle to a quart. For the handkerchief it has no superior. It is advertised in our columns to-day.

TEAMSTERS WANTED.

The Oil City Register says there is a great scarcity of teams there at present, and seventy-five cents per barrel is now being charged from the Tarr Farm to that place, a distance of five miles. A good team can make ten dollars per day, and two thousand more teams can find constant employment.

UNFORTUNATE.

The draft in this State, so far, has been very heavy on preachers, as well as editors. Among the preachers drafted in Washington county, we notice the Rev. Mr. Waugh, Professor of Washington College, O. S. Presbyterian; Rev. Mr. Johnston, United Presbyterian; and Rev. N. W. Scott, O. S. Presbyterian.

DRAFTED NEGROES.

All the negroes drafted into service in Lancaster, Allegheny and other counties in this State, into the service of the United States, on reporting themselves, are sent to Camp Penn, Philadelphia, now under charge of Lieut. Colonel Louis Wagner, 88th Penna. Vol.

SEVENTY-SIX VICTIMS.

One of the New York papers contains a list of seventy-six persons killed during the brutal riot raised in that city under the pretext of resistance to the draft. The loss of life above stated is greater than that suffered by five regiments of the Excelsior Brigade, who were in the hottest of the great battle at Gettysburg.

THEY ARE COMING.

Hamlin's Combination Troupe of Minstrels will arrive here on Monday next, and occupy Brant's Hall during the week. They will perform each evening, and give a grand matinee on Saturday afternoon for the accommodation of ladies and children. A list of the members of the troupe will be found in our advertising columns.

AT NEW CREEK, PA.

The Third Pennsylvania Militia, which left Pittsburgh some time since for Virginia, is now stationed at New Creek, and is the only regiment at that point. It is officered as follows: Colonel, S. B. Dick; Lt. Col., J. A. Vora; Major, De Los Walker; Adjutant, J. B. Hanna; Quartermaster, J. Beves. The regiment is from Beaver and Crawford counties.

KEEP THE STREETS AND GUTTERS FREE FROM FILTH.

The sanitary condition of our city is one that should interest all residents. In the midst of a multiplicity of the different business pursuits, we do not think that sufficient attention has been directed to those measures that are calculated to improve the health and well being of all those who reside in the city. We notice throughout the city that several streets are in a filthy condition, which is the fault of those who reside in that vicinity. There are also a number of pools of stagnant water in the Sixth ward, which ought not to be, as the excellent sewerage system of our city affords every facility for their effectual drainage. We hope that some measures will be taken to drain the cesspools, as they are certainly injurious to the health of the community.

RETURNED TO CAMPBELL.

The detachments of regulars, under the command of Captain Hastings, recently stationed near the Pennsylvania railroad depot, in this city, have returned to Carlisle, and are now encamped at their old post—Campbell Barracks. At the approach of the rebels, Captain Hastings—not having sufficient force to make a proper defense—received orders to remove everything, evacuate the post, and report for duty at Harrisburg. During their absence the entire rebel force under E. Well occupied the garrison and quarters until they took up their march for Gettysburg. The post was then destroyed by the chivalrous son of General Lee, on the night following the evacuation by Ewell's command. We understand that the Government intends rebuilding the post in the coming autumn.

THE INVALID CORPS.

This corps is rapidly reaching its prescribed dimensions. Twenty companies of the first battalion have already been organized, also seven companies of the second battalion. Recruits are gathered at St. Louis, Washington, Michigan, Connecticut, South Carolina, and Fortress Monroe, and will soon be brought into the organization. At least 2,500 men have already enlisted; some of them are performing guard duty at the War Department in Washington city. Those stationed near this city have been assigned mostly to other duties. The non-commissioned officers now on duty at the various headquarters in Washington have been armed with regulation swords instead of muskets. We did not learn whether the invalid corps officers, stationed in this city and vicinity, are to have these swords or not. The invalid soldiers, so far, have given entire satisfaction wherever they have been employed.

REPAIRED.

The break in the Pennsylvania canal, near Pittsburg, noticed in the TELEGRAPH a week or two ago, has been repaired, and the water, it is thought, will be let in to-day. Boats can now leave here and run west the whole length of the canal without interruption.

GREAT BARGAIN IN CLOTHING.

The entire stock of clothing in the establishment corner of Market and Third streets, known as Leamy's Clothing Emporium, is now offered for sale. The stock is the best and most fashionable in the city, and the bargains offered are of the most advantageous character.

TO BE MUSTERED OUT OF SERVICE.

Several of the regiments of nine months' men now encamped in Camp Simmons and vicinity have their rolls and other papers ready, to be mustered out of service forthwith. We understand that the men of the 158th Pennsylvania volunteers are to be mustered out this afternoon or tomorrow morning.

RETURNED THEIR ARMS AND ACCOUTREMENTS.

The members of the 30th regiment Pennsylvania volunteer militia handed in their arms and accoutrements at the State arsenal this morning, and marched over the bridge into Cumberland county, where they will most likely remain until discharged from service. The men expect to be mustered out to-morrow morning.

ARRIVAL OF WOUNDED.

Yesterday evening a train containing two hundred and twenty-seven wounded soldiers reached this city from Gettysburg, on its way to New York. Shortly after, another train containing one hundred and seventy-eight wounded arrived, en route for the same city. Thirty-two of the wounded were taken off the train here, and distributed around to the different hospitals.

"WHO IS PRICKET GUARD?"

I Like his Song and would Like to Know Him—Such was the interrogation and confession contained in a note evidently written by a lady, which reached us this morning. In reply we dare only answer that "Picket Guard" is the casual name of a gentleman of education, who loves to indulge a poetical mood, and who is chuck full of the most versatile ability.

TWO DAYS LONGER.

By reference to the advertisement in another column, the lovers of amusement will learn that Nixon's Cremorne Circus will remain in Harrisburg two days longer, and the company will give four more of their grand entertainments, in their pavilion, near the railroad depot. This circus is the best that has visited Harrisburg this season, and the performances are witnessed by thousands of spectators.

ANOTHER ORDER.

An order from the Provost Marshal General's office has just been issued, in which it is stated that "when drafted men fail to report, the District is not responsible for their desertion, any more than for the desertion of members of its quota in the field. The district must therefore be credited for them." The paying $300 for "procurement of substitutes" under the law, throws upon the Government the responsibility of providing such substitutes, and relieves the district therefrom. It is paid for "procurement of substitutes." "The District must present men liable to military service, suitable and acceptable—not exempt. It cannot present for military service to the Government men who are exempt therefrom by law. It must make up for them." The last clause seems somewhat foggy, but we shall doubtless have an explanation of it one of these days.

A CARD FROM THE HENRY GUARDS.

The members of the Philadelphia City Police, composing the organization known as the "Henry Guards," have published the following card, expressing their thanks for the many acts of kindness and generosity bestowed upon them during their stay in our city:

HEADQUARTERS HENRY GUARDS OF PHILADELPHIA, FIFTH STREET, BELOW CHESTNUT, July 23d, 1863.

At a meeting of the Guards, held this day, it was ordered that a committee of six be appointed to draft resolutions expressive of our feelings towards residents and citizens of Harrisburg, for the kindness and generosity shown upon the company during our term of service in that city.

The following were submitted and approved, with orders for the publication of the same, in the Harrisburg Telegraph, Patriot and Union, of Harrisburg, and The Press, Philadelphia:

The Henry Guard of Philadelphia, composed exclusively of members of the Police Department of this city, take the earliest opportunity to return their sincere and heartfelt thanks to the citizens and residents of Harrisburg who, during our stay amongst them, extended so many acts of kindness and courtesy to us. Where we daily received so many flattering attentions, it is, indeed, difficult to specially refer to single instances, or name particular persons, but we cannot pass the present opportunity without ten-dering our special thanks to Messrs. Henry Bunn, Joseph Moore, Jeremiah Nichols, and James Kelsh, of Philadelphia, who materially assisted us on our arrival in Harrisburg. To his honor Mayor Boumfort, and his efficient and gentlemanly chief of police Barney Campbell, and all the attaches of the Department. To Miss Fannie M. Swartz, for her kind attendance at the hospital to one of our number who was dangerously ill; to Mrs. Miller, Bryan, Mrs. Webster, Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Hendrick, Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Major Brady, Captain Muench, Mr. David Moyer, Mr. Perkins, Mrs. Black, (W. S. Wood), surgeon in charge Cotton Factory Hospital, Daniel Hooker, Mr. Postock, Joseph McClaman, Sheriff Boss, and Col. Gabriel De Korponay.

The members of the Hope Engine company, the Proprietors of Independence Island and hosts of other kind-hearted friends, not personally mentioned, still in our thoughts; to the Police force of Philadelphia, who presented us a splendid flag, the presentation committee who brought it to us at Harrisburg, and our fine reception and escort on our return to Philadelphia.

Resolved, That the Henry Guards of Philadelphia are always ready to sustain the power and glory of our National Ensign as the emblem of civil and religious liberty, as the bright hope of the patriots of America, and that we feel gratified to know that we received their well wishes of every loyal man and woman during our short stay in the interior of the State of Pennsylvania.

In behalf of the company,
JOHN SPEAR,
JOSEPH PATON,
JOHN G. LOYERLY,
FRANCIS C. HAMPTON,
SAMUEL HAMILTON,
GEORGE HAMILTON,
GEORGE HAMILTON.

THE SOLDIERS OF THE "Old Home Guard"

will meet at the Court House, on Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock, fully equipped, to give up their arms and accoutrements to the State authorities. Punctual attendance is requested.

CHARLES CARSON, Capt. Genl.

REMOVED TO PHILADELPHIA.

Fifteen wounded rebel prisoners, were taken from the West Ward street hospital this morning, and forwarded on to Philadelphia in the afternoon train. They will be treated there until able to endure marching again, when, if unwilling to take the oath of allegiance, they will be shipped to Fort Detmold to be exchanged.

TO-MORROW.

The Hope picnic will be held in Hoffman's woods to-morrow. A grand time may be expected, as every arrangement has been made which will conduce to the pleasures of all present. The best of order will be preserved on the ground, and no fear need be entertained but that every one present will enjoy the occasion to the fullest extent.

CARD OF THANKS.

Captain William B. Mann, Provost Marshal of the Army of the Susquehanna, who has shown his ability and energy in the able manner in which he discharged the arduous duties of his position, while in the Cumberland Valley, is not forgotten by many of its citizens, who have published the following card expressive of the grateful feelings of the whole county towards him:

The citizens of Cumberland county, take this method of expressing to Captain William B. Mann, Provost Marshal, their thanks and gratitude for his energetic discharge of the arduous duties of his position. They feel particularly grateful, for the constant vigilance that he has exercised, during the stirring events of the last few days. Justice under his administration has been meted out to all; property protected, and promptly restored; marauders arrested and sent to prison. And to the Captain's command, we also extend our thanks; a finer body of men, we have never seen; we congratulate him in having under his control such a corps, and wish him and them a speedy and happy return to their homes.

THE MILITARY DURING THE EXPLORED INVASION OF HARRISBURG.

This cruel war is over, we mean so far as the invasion of Harrisburg is concerned, it is now my privilege and duty as a citizen, to speak of the reliable military on hand at that time. Prominent among which was Capt. Awie's company, stationed at the rifle pits in Harris Park, (our humble servant belonged to that company,) and from that fact he states, that should the foe have attempted to cross the Susquehanna, they would have disappeared every inch of ground; but as things turned out, we all returned to our homes as bloodless as other Don Quixotes, which fact enables me at this time, to invite your special attention to the great bargains in dry goods, selling at the Southeast corner of Front and Market streets, by O. L. Bowman.

WE WILL SELL THE balance of our stock of summer dress goods at very low prices.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla. It so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, IMPETIGO, BLITTOUS, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SORE THROAT, STYLLIS AND STYLLITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA, OR THE DOLOROUS, BRUIST, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, RHEUMATISM, RICKETS, OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, AND INDEED the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the four humors which foster in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are wiped off the body. Multiples can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcersous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruption, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities manifest through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and clogged in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with the palpation of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but contain no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointments have followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flooded the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irrefragable by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Price $1 per Bottle; six Bottles in one package, $5.

Sold by C. A. Bannard, D. W. Gross & Co., O. K. Keller, J. M. Lutz, Dr. Bely, F. Wyeth and dealers everywhere.

Madame Macarte has great satisfaction in announcing to the people of this country, that after an absence of several years she will again have the honor of appearing before them.

Among the Royal British Circus is the beautiful set of English thorough-breds, including the celebrated Mare, BLACK SWAN.

Being the same Troupe with which in England, Ireland and Scotland she had the honor of performing before the most refined and numerous audiences in every city in the British Realm.

Madame Macarte's great Act, the VENETIAN CARAVAN.

Will be remembered by those who witnessed her former efforts in this country.

First appearance in America of MR. JOHN COOKE.

The English humorist, known as the most brilliant wit in England, and familiarly styled the COMIC MUSE. The elegant follies of the well-bred and gentlemanly clown will be occasionally diversified by the exceedingly comic grotesques of the famous FRENCH FERRUL.

First appearance in America of the SYRO-ARABIC TROUPE.

Comprising Male and Female Juglers, Acrobates, Contortionists. Prominent among the features of this troupe is the distinguished Mlle. CARROLL.

Mr. Stone's feats on horseback are all performed on his naked Steed, without saddle, bridle, or covering of any kind. His recitations and brilliant leaps over four barred gates and other barriers, while in various other attitudes, are considered the perfection of equestrian skill, and have justly entitled him to the distinction of "Champion of the Arena."

THE PUBLIC are cautioned against the SPURIOUS articles of LYE for making SOAP, &c., now offered for sale. The only GENUINE and PATENTED Lye is that made by the PENNSYLVANIA SALT MANUFACTURING COMPANY, their trade-mark for it being "SAPONIFIER, OR CONCENTRATED LYE." The great SUCCESS of this article has led UNPRINCIPLED PARTIES to endeavor to IMITATE it, in violation of the Company's PATENTS.

ALL MANUFACTURERS, BUYERS or SELLERS of these SPURIOUS Lyes, are hereby NOTIFIED that the COMPANY have employed as their ATTORNEYS, GEORGE HARDING, Esq., of Philadelphia, and WILLIAM BAKK'WELL, Esq., of Pittsburg. And that all MANUFACTURERS, USERS, OR SELLERS of Lye, in violation of the rights of the Company, will be PROSECUTED at once. THE SAPONIFIER, OR CONCENTRATED LYE, is for sale by all Druggists, Grocers, and Country Stores.

TAKE NOTICE.

The UNITED STATES Circuit Court, Western District of Pennsylvania, No. 1 of May Term, in 1862, in suit of THE PENNSYLVANIA SALT MANUFACTURING COMPANY vs. THOS. G. CHASE, decreed to the Company, on November 15, 1862, the EXCLUSIVE right granted by a patent owned by them for the SAPONIFIER Patent dated October 2, 1856. Perpetual Injunction awarded.
