The Maily Celegraph.

HARRISBURG, PA

Wednesday Evening July 29 1863.

EXTENSION OF TIME FOR HOLDING THE UNION STATE CONVENTION.

To the Editors of the Telegraph:

PHILADELPHIA, June 24, 1868. At a meeting of the Union State Central Com mittee, held in this city to day, it was resolved to extend the time for holding the Union State Convention at Pitteburg, from July 1st to

The following is the resolution adopted, pro viding for this extension:

Resolved, That in the present emergency while many delegates to the Union State Con vention are engag d in the military service, and cannot be present at the meeting appointed to be held at Pittsburg on the 1st of July next, it is deemed expedient to postpone the Convention until Wednesday, the 5th day of August next. at 11 o'clock, A. M., and it is hereby postponed until that time.

Editors of the different Union newspaper throughout the Commonwealth, will please give this notice an insertion in their columns. P. FRASER SMITH, Chairman pro tem.

GEO. W. HAMMERSLEY. Secretary. A National Cemetery.

By a card which we print in another column, it will be seen that a proposition is made to liberty and law on the bloody field of Gettysburg, and deposite them in the Cemetery grounds of that locality, and then erect a monument over their remains, as a fitting testimothe people of the States to which the heroes who are buried at Gettysburg, belong, contribute to defray the expense of the enterprise, and that Pennsylvania take the lead to secure its success. The advertisement in another column fully sets forth the whole matter, and we in that fight. While this object is invested with conductors of the press of Pennsylvania will give gathered within one enclosure, over which shall rice a monument as proud as their deeds to comto the blessed abode of the heroes in Heaven.

An Empty Boast.

The Torg Organ this morning boasts that Judge Woodward has two sons in the army and on this fact claims that the Judge is entitled to great credit. In the same connection the Tory Organ omitted to state that the valliant father, have long since been removed from his counts for their being in the army, fighting

-We venture the assertion that, had these Woodwards lived in the same atmosphere breathed by their father, they would be as intensely sympathetic for the interests of the slave owner as is the father, and that, had they followed his teachings, they would now be figiing where treason and not truth and reason ward, on account of his sons being in the National army of the Union,

THE DUTY OF THE PRESENT HOUR.—This is the leigh has been announced to deliver before the University at Lewisburg, this evening. The gation, we are indebted to Democratic speculaoccasion is to be celebrated in honor of the return of the students of that institute from the service as volunteers in the army. From the high character of Mr. Burleigh as an orator and a scholar, we have no doubt of the deep impression he will make on the minds of the students at that ancient abode of learning. He is certainly among the ablest men in the land-learned, pure, patriotic and earnest in all he does and says.

-Since the above was written, we learn that efforts are being made to secure the presence of letter written at Yazoo City, to the Daily Mis--Mr. Burle gh in this city to morrow evening for souri Demograt, sets forth the true meaning of the purpose of repeating his lecture on "The Duty of the Present Hour." Should these efforts succeed, we promise our citizens one of the greatest intellectual treats that has been afforded them for many years. The place of deliv ering the lecture, should the arrangements

THE LOYAL MEN of Pennsylvania who are shortly to assemble at Pittsburg, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for Governor, must remember that the first great object to be achieved is the harmonizing of all differences which may exist among those who are to work out the victory. We must make every sacrifice which this situation may demand. We must give up the mere preference for a man to secure the majestic success of measures. We must provide first and surely for the safety of the Government, for its support in the hour of its trial, and thus we will be laying the foundations of a political victory incalculable in glory and future benefit to the State and nation. If we do not do this if we do not harmonize our you are? differences and concentrate all our forces, the joyed the soldier's discomfiture with a piquant relish. "Fam his slave!" electing Woodward Governor, a result to be The soldier gave one long, last, lingering death of Hon. John J. Crittenden.

deed, it would be far better to allow Lee to fool anybody. penetrate Pennsylvania and establish himselt in Harrisburg, than to allow Woodward to sur-Governor of the State.

They Must Take the Responsibility.

Had the Democratic leaders treated treason who lead the miserable dupes and monopolize the patronage of that party, been only half true to the cause of the country, the rebellion would not have lasted a year. It was not required of there men that they should enter the field and bravely contend with traitors. No body ever asked or even expected that they would shed Union. It was never dreamed that the Biglers, the Whitties, the Clymers, the Woodwards, or any of the desperate politicians who stand shoul der to shoulder with these demagogues would requite their country in the hour of its danger, with a service such as could be accounted loyal or patriotic. The instincts of these men all tend to treason. They hate the truth, because t is their greatest scourge. They oppose reform, slavery conspired to overthrow a free government, their allies, these very Democratic leaders, were compelled either to act openly in support route, and left behind his jaded animals. gather the bodies of those who fell fighting for of that rebellion, or to take a meaner course, and serve rebellion by acts such as which brave mennial to their valor. In order to secure the would not now be so repulsively filthy. Had movements of Rosecrans, entitles it to be classsuccess of this noble work, it is suggested that these men left the government unembarrassed ed side by side with the cavalry expeditions of long since in every revolted slave State. By therefore refer the reader to it for information. such a course, rebellion would have been with--We heartily commend this enterprise to out a sympathizer; and thus left without the consideration of the patriotic people of the friends beyond the slave marts of the South, Union. The men who fell at Gettysburg will treason would have had a short campaign, and need no monument to commemorate their ended its career in such disaster and disgrace valor. Like the Spartans who fought at There as to have rendered it impossible forever mopylæ, those who struggled at Gettysburg in hereafter to win to its support any considthe cause of liberty, will be remembered while erable number of the the American people. liberty has a friend on earth. But we owe it to Any man who has closely observed and future generations that we in some way prove studied events cannot fail to understand that the our gratitude to the dead, and show that those secret of the prolongation of the war, is not who survived to reap the reward of the victory contained in the strength of the rebellion itself. at Gettysburg, were not unmindful of what was The actual resources of the rebels were wasted due to their brethren and fellow-citizens who fell before they were engaged in the war six when we have at least fifty thousand rebel 500 men, with six pieces. The are supposed to months. Then it was that they were supplied its present interest, we trust, at least, that the by their friends in the North-then it was that Democratic leaders began to give them aid and it their hearty support, and that the people will comfort-and then, too, following the example not rest satisfied until all who fell at Gettys of the traitors in what were supposed to be the he may again plunder the loyal men of Kenburg, and whose bones are still scattered over loyal States, the haters of free government in tucky, and with the aid of the copperheads of and bleaching on that vast battle field, are Europe began to cast the weight of their influ- Ohio and Indiana carry terror into the free ence against the American Government, in the hope that man's ability for self government memorate their valor and to point as a signal would be proven a failure, and that the right as well as the power of an exclusive aristocracy on both hemispheres. With these facts now constituting the most important portion of the history of the rebellion, the Democratic leaders must of course take the entire responsibility of the effects growing out of that struggle. These men, to prove their sons of this loyally cold and impassively patriotic utter baseness and hypocrisy, not only defend, but still continue to nourish the cause of the influence and association, which, of course, ac- war. We are told one day by the leaders of the rebellion that they only fight for the supremacy against the slave driving traitors of the south of the interests of the institution of slavery. Both the Woodwards, sons of the copperhead The next day we are graciously informed by the candidate for Governor of Pennsy vania, who Democratic leaders that these interests are all are now in the army, live in different and constitutional, and therefore the southern peowidely separated western States, where loyalty ple, whenever they deem the institution of and patriotic devotion to the Government are slavery in danger, whether that danger is proesteemed Christian virtues and manly accom. duced by the natural and hearty progress of civilized society, or whether it springs from the corruption of slavery itself, it matters not as the South still have the right to rebel, to work treason, to wage bloody and rebellious war, to secure the safety and elevate the power of the

to rule, be established permanently and forever slave oligarchy. -Why should the Democratic leaders not take the responsibility of the rebellion? There is lead. So much for what is due to Judge Wood- no reason which can save them from the infamy of that responsibility. They have earned it fairly, and should therefore wear it bravely. They have contributed to its success with all the means in their power, and are therefore entitled tors, sympathisers and spies. For its horrors, we are under mournful obligations to the same men. Let them, then, receive the applause which is made up of the groans of the suff ring -let them take to their hearts the anguish of the orphan and the widow-and while they live, let a nation's wrongs form the wreath to THE SURRENDER OF MORGAN. blister the brow of every Democratic leader in the land.

Slavery.

The following incident, which we find in the system of southern slavery. We commend it to the men in our own midst who love to talk jeeringly of those who do not shrink from being is that when Pegram started he was not aware of the capture of Morgan and contemplated

I will relate an incident, which occurred this morning, at the expense of a gallant young soldier. He was prospecting around town, when be made, will be announced in our morning his attention was attracted to a stable of very fine horses. While admiring their fine points, he was surprised by the appearance of a very fascinating young lady, as she emerged from another apartment of the horse-house, and bowed politely, and smiled killingly upon him. He stammered out something like an apology for his seeming intrusion, mixing up the words "pro-clamation" and "confiscation," &c, and ended by asking who was the owner of the place?

"Or. Neely," replied the lady.

"And you—you are his wife?" said the soldier, doubtfully.

"No," said the lady.

"Then his daughter?"—this was said very smilingly.

"His niece, perhaps?—endearingly.
"No; no relation, that I know of."
"Then a lady friend, on a visit?—puzzlingly.
"No, not that, either.

"Well, then, may I be permitted to ask who estimated as more disastrous to the cause of the look, and with a low whistle, skedaddled. But ountry than the defeat of Meade by Lie. In- he consoles himself by saying that she would

-Thus the remorseless developments of slavery have been progressing, until, from hold ceed at the ballot-box and then be inaugurated ing in bondage a race of semi-barbarous Afri caus, it finds itself the possesson of white men and women, and the chief actor in a bloody tragedy for the overthrow and extinction of free dom. This is the divine institution which modern and rebellion as facts and crimes—had those Democrats love to defend, and doughfaces advocate as a constitutional right

THE capture of John Morgan's banditti in the State of Obio, coming after the brilliant and unprecedented victories of Meade, Grant, Banks, Blunt and Rosecrans, must not be classed as an ineffectual fire which should a drop of their craven blood in defence of the pale before these glowing suns. The defeat and seizure of Morgan and his robbers relieves the whole Department of Kentucky from the vilest gang of scoundrels that ever infested a border State. He was the terror her boilers being sadly out of repair. She has of the loyalists because of his cruelty and rate a cargo of 675 bales of cotton and 125 barrels pacity, and was enabled to inflict immense injury upon the long line of communications extending from Tennessee to Louisville. No such line could be easily defended at all points because it antagonizes the wrong with which Its very length tempted Morgan with his free they flourish, and hence when the friends of riders to cut the rails, to capture trairs, and to run away with couriers. When Morgan got into Ohio he took all the fresh horses on his Shackleford had no such advantage in the pursuit; hence his triumph, regarded as well in even while engaged in wrong, would scorn to reference to the conduct of his officers and men, perpetrate. Had the Democratic leaders even as in reference to the relief it has afforded to taken a neutral part in the war, their record the people of Kentucky and Ohio, and to the in the north-had the full power of the na- Grierson and Kilpatrick. Gen. Shackleford is tional authority been left untrammelled to a Kentuckian, an eminent lawyer, and an unconoperate against traitors in arms, the result ditional, unquestioning, enthusiastic Union man. has never been staggered by oppositions of confiscation, emancipation, negro enrollment, and negro soldiers. It was a happy sequel that a plainly seen bursting over Fort Wagner. Kentucky gambler and thief like Morgan should be pursued and taken by a Kentucky heartwhole patriot and accomplished soldier like Shackleford.

It is to be hoped that the Government will be in no hurry to exchange John Morgan .-In some countries a man who has hunted his whole command. Without knowing the terms of the "cartel," it is to be hoped that

The rebel force is estimated to have been 2,prisoners in our hands, and a very large number of general officers, that there will be no "wedding haste" to return John Morgan back to the bloody theater of his companions, that States of this Union.

HOTEL PRICES IN DIXIE.—The cost of living in Dixie may be estimated by the following list of prices charged at the Mansion House, Yazoo city. We occasionally growl at the high prices of living in the north, but the rates quoted Single meals, $2. Board per day, $6. Breakfast served after nine o'clock, $2 50. Supper served after six o'clock, $2 50. Coffee was selling for five dollars a pound flour one dollar a pound, and corn meal three dollars a bushel.

Latest Telegraph.

Navigation of the Mississippi.

Arrival of the Imperial at St. Louis from New Orleans.

DEPARTURE OF STEAMERS FOR NEW ORLEANS,

Sr. Louis, July 27. The steamer Imperial, the first boat from of considerable influence and standing. I send New Orleans, arrived this morning. A large crowd of merchants and citizens greeted her arrival, and a national salute was fired in honor of the opening of the Mississippi river. The steamer Albert Pierce sailed this evening for New Orleans, with a large load of private freight, and a long passenger list.

The steamer Continental left yesterday for the same port, heavily laden with Government

FROM CINCINNATI

Advance of Pegram's Rebel Ferces

CINCINNATI, July 29.

The following information was received at head quarters last night. Col. Pegram with between fifteen hundred and two thousand men, crossed the Cumber-land river a day or two since and moved north towards Richmond. He was in the vicinity of that place at last accounts. The prevailing opinion here in military circles assisting him to escape.

The disposal of our forces in Kentucky is such as will be impossible for him to either advance much further or escape.

Columbus specials say the question, whether Capt. Burbridge had authority to accept the urrender of Morgan, will be speedily deter-

He was not regularly elected militia Captain, nor had he any command at the time of Morgan's surrender. Burbeck, with a few companions, was acting as guards for Morgan, when, the latter discovering our forces closing in upon him, offered to surrender to him in order that he might secure terms to suit himself. Burbeck at once g anted terms which Morgan proposed A few moments afterwards thackelford came up and took charge of the gang, refusing to recognize the terms of surrender.

Morgan will doubtless be sent back to Columous and lodged in the penitentiary.

The draft takes place in this State in a few days.

The Successor of Crittenden.

CINCINNATI, July 28. Brutus J. Clay, of Bourbon county, has been nominated for Congress, in the Ashland, Ky., district, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Hon. W. H. Seward Arrived There.

The Prize Steamer Planter Bound to New York with a Cargo of Cotton, &c.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 27. The staff boat Ella, Capt Eldridge, acting master, arrived at Old Point last evening, with the Hon. William H. Seward and soite. They proceeded immediately to Newport News and went on board the Minnesota at 7 o'clock when the frigate fired a silute.

They left the Minnesota at eight o'clock and visited the iron clad Roanoke, and after remaining an hour left for Fortress Monroe. Today at noon, a salute was fire: from the water batteries of the Fortiess, in honor of Mr.

this evening.

The prize steamer Planter, which put into Hampion Roads last Friday, was bound to New York. She was out of coal and is unfit for sea,

Another Powder Mill Explosion at Wilmington.

WO WORKMEN KILLED.

WILMINGTON, DEL., July 29. One of Dupont's Powder Mills in the Hagley James D. Poples and William Leury, workmen were killed. The cause of the explosion is un-

CHARLESTON.

THE BOMBARDMENT OF FORT WAGNER

NEW YORK, July 28. The steamer Star of the South arrived here to night, from Charleston bar on the evening of would undoubtedly been such as to have He entered the war with a full conscience in the 25th. She towed the iron clad Passaic to reestablished the power of that Government the fight, and a bright sword in his hand. He the bar. The latter went in 10 report to Admiral Dahlgren. When the Star of the South left heavy can nonading had been heard, and shells were

Invasion of Kentucky.

LEXINGTON THREATENED.

CINCINNATI, July 28,

A special dispatch to the Commercial, from Lexington, Ky., says the rebels this morning attacked our forces at Richmond, consisting o and suppliated his own people as Morgan a small detachment under Colonel Sanders. has done would have swung in the sight of After an hour's severe fight our troops were be the advance of Brazz's armv. At the latest advices our troops had fallen back within five miles of Lexington, the enemy losely following. Martial law has been proclaimed at Lexing-ton, and all able bodied citizens between eighteen and forty-five years, ordered to report for duty. It is thought the city can be held gainst the rebels. The citizens of the place who are sympathizers with secession cause, report the rebel force is over 15,000, and they are moving in a northerly direction, via Crab Orchard.

A special dispatch from Lexington to the Gazette says the excitement there has subsided The rebels came to the Kentucky river at Clay' Ferry. Col. Sanders' command had nearly al arrived. The troops from Hickman's Bridge below exceed any we have yet seen published:
Single meals, $2.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK, July 29. Plour declined 5c.; sales of 7,500 bbls. at $4 risburg.

@4 45 for State, $5 50@5 60 for Ohio, and $5 90@6 45 for Southern. Wheat declined Ic sales of 30 000 bush at $1@1 16 for Chicago ing $1 11@11.29 dull; sales of 35,000 bush. at 69c. Beef dull Pork heavy. Lard quiet. Whisky dull at 45@45\c.

An Elegant Epistle from a Southern Ladv.

Some time since, a rebel by the name of Har din, was captured near Vicksburg, with a letter written by a lady of one of the "first families" in Mississippi, residing near Lake Providence, which letter he was conveying to Mrs. Amy Anderson, in a neighboring State. Mrs. Amy Anderson, in a neighboring State.

The writer of the letter speaks of her husband as "Mr. P.," and it appears that he was a man of considerable influence and standing. I send you the letter with extracts marked, in order soldier named John O'Brieo, at Gettysburg. &c. that your readers may see what spirit pervades the "high-bred dames" of this region. If any one imagines that the language used by Dearest aunt: Mr. P. could not attend to Rob's business for the same reason that he dissuaded him from going, as Rob neglected to bring his proper pa pers, and, wi hout them, Mr. P. felt certain he could have gone no further than Canton, as THE PIC-NIC OF THE SEASON. conscript law, and carried out to the very let ter, than in your State or any other. So Mr P. assisted Rob in getting the services of our old friend Mr. J. I fear to tell any names, as the unprincipled demon foe prides himself upon discovering important information through in tercepted letters, which have been forcibly extracted from the poor, affrighted negro, child or unprotected female, whom they may chance to meet or discover in their murdering, thiev-more fervently that every line and desire of my heart could fall upon them to place them is situations I would designate.

If there is a hereafter, a heaven or hell, pray to go to perdition ere my soul would oined or rest in heaven with the fiendish foe. But God has ever shown himself a just, true the grounds. Father, and will ere long mete out to them their proper punishment. Heaven would not be the place described to us were it filled with Sullivan S. Child, George Earnest, spirits so foul, so hellish, (excuse the expression.) Words are to weak, too trite, to feeble to convey even the slightest idea of feeling which our refined, elegant, high toned, princi-pled, chivalrous people feel or look upon such which our refined, elegant, high toned, principled, chivalrous people feel or look upon such an offcast, degenerate set. It would be some and who have not called at Capt. Wheeler's solace to us when we loose our husbands, fathers, sons and friends, to know they were fight. The pay-rolls will be made up and sent away ing an enemy civilized or refined in a great degree. But oh! the thought is killing, is too painful, to see our men, the choicest, most refined specimens of God's work, destroyed and even forced to take up arms against the offscourwrite ten thousand pages and then fail to pen quire at beast, whenever they cross his path. So exreme is my discust that, if I once thought my hildren would ever constance, not a Yan kee, b t a northerner, (for they are the same I could and would plunge a dagger into their hearts, and laugh to see their tife's blood They must notice them only to mur oczog. They must notice them only to murder and poison.

[EXTRACT NO. 1]

It appears that everything in Secessia does not suit the writer's ideas of propriety, and that the rights of private property, in words, of private niggers, are not inevitably respected in the dominions of Jeff. Davis, as bear witness the following: "The overseer and managers treat the property of private patriotic men at Vicksburg more like the Yanks than I thought a Southern man could do. They are not only cruel, but worse they neglect them in sickness, whereas an hour attent on would save bundreds; but we must stand it even if we lose all we have. Say no Mr. Seward leaves for Washington a word, the laws of State so order. I see not why Missippi cannot remunerate our lesses as early as any other State, but we run some things into the ground and entirely neglici other items equally as important. I pray the hated foe will all be sent to perdition, vessels and all,ere they gain one inch mor : foothold on ary property of any kind that can benefit them I would joyously see everything we own crum-ble to ashes ere it fall into the hauds of the Anna.

> BEUTALITY OF A REBEL PREACHER .- Most of our readers, says the New Albany (Indiana) (or as much more as the efficer in charge of the Ledger, and particularly those in Kentucky, will Subsistence Department may select,) of the idemember that some twelve months ago, a noto: ions preacher named Scobey, was arraigned efore the Louisville Conference of the M. E church, on a charge of disloyalty, and by a b re majority of one succeeded in getting his case continued for one year—or until another Conference. In the prosecution of the case, Rev. Mr. Cornelius, now of Corydon, Indiana, but then a member of the Louisville Conference, was very active, earnestly believing that no traitor was a fit man to dispense the word of

We are informed that when Morgan visited Corydon, this renegade Methodist preacher, in it the written guarantee of two responsible Scobey, who was acting as chaplain to one of persons, as follows: the horse thief regiments, was with him. Hearing that Rev. Mr. Cornelius resided in the town, he took a file of soldiers and sought out his be accepted, that it shall be duly fuillfied a: residence. Mr. Cornelius was not at home, and cording to its true purport and conditions. thus escaped being murdered. Scobey, how ever, was determined to have his revenge, and so he ordered the soldiers to take out of the house all of Cornelius' goods, which was done. The furniture was broken to pieces, beds ripped open and their contents scattered, bed clothing torn into tatters, and a general destruction

But the climax of this scoundrel Scobev's infamy was not yet reached. Several weeks ago the amiable and much loved lady of Mr. Cornelius died. Mr. C. had carefully packed away her clothing, to keep as sacred mementoes of one dearest to him than all the world that the flour offered the Government, under beside. Scobey was told of this fact, yet with a fiendishness such as we have never before heard party bidding or is purchased or received by of, he took the dresses, skirts, and all the other under clothing of the dead woman, his States Government. late sister in the church, and tore them with his own hands into the smallest fragment. He bad been the property of his dead wife. Is there on record a parallel to this infamy? How true is it that when treas in enters of the Government. or employed in the considered or under any circumstance regarded, when any of the parties interested is a member of Congress, officer or true is it that when treas in enters of the Government. thus revenged himself on a living man by the gros est sacrilege on all that remained of what heart it sets up therein a carnival of all the baser and most helish passions of his nature.

A NOVELTY IN REBELDOM.—A letter from one L. B. M'Farland, written from Shelbyville, Tennessee, to his mother, in acknowledgment of the receipt of a package of clothing, gives this highly important information: "When I opened the parcel some of the boys remarked 'that's the first shirt tail I've seen in twelve months.' Perhans it was true. None of the confederate shirts have tails; cloth is too scarce; so with money. A shirt with a tail is indeed a rarity "

Married.

On the 21st inst., by Henry P. ffer, Alderman of the 2d ward, city of Harrisburg, Mr. EDWABD BELIBSKIE to Miss LOUISA QUANTZ, bo.h of Har-

Died.

Departed this life, in tranquil triumph, on Sabbath morning, July 26 h, 1863, at the M. and the Proprietors are determined to epare E. Union Parsonage, Philadelphia, Caroling neither expense, time or labor to ensure the LAVINIA, daughter of B v. Franklin and Recomfort of the guests. The patronage of the becca B. Moore; sged 15 years, 3 months and traveling public is respectfully solicited

Among her expiring words were, "I come,

New Advertisements.

FOUND! The owner, by proper description, can obtain it at the UNITED STATES HOTEL.

jy29 3∟° the writer of this letter is unusual with high-born southern ladies, let him inquire of the first returned officer or soldier he meets, and drawn by me and payable to John Zimmerman, dated July 23d, 1863, and payable October 1st. 1863, as I have received no value for, and will not ray the same.

HENRY FRISCH.

THE ANNUAL PIC-NIC

HOFFMAN'S WOODS

TUESDAY, AUGUST 11, 1863.

It is hoped that the citizens of Harrisburg will turn out en masse for a days recreation in the woods. The object of the pic-nic is to procure enough money to make a payment on their STRAM ENGINE. No improper characters will be admitted on

COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS: J. W. Lescure.

NOTICE

Office-at Old Penna. Round House, foot o

WANTED—A first-class COOK. Apply at [jy25] THIS OFFICE. lose is a bles-ing, a god-send to humanity and society. But enough of such stuff. I might

W [jy25] THIS OFFICE.

FOR SALE VERY CHEAP—A first rate Rose wood Piano. For further particular in wood Piano. For further particulary in-ire at [jy25-1w2] THIS OFFICE.

one idea correctly.

If ever I had one lady-like feeling, or wish for a northern man, even before this bloody war, I was not aware of it, and I pray to live war, I was not aware of it, and I pray to live county Treasurer and solicits the support of all Union men. Subject to the nominating continuous Note Paper, Envelopes, Visiting and Wed-

New Advertisements.

 ${
m SIUSIC}$. DEBSONS wishing to join a Brass and Sp.

Bind, under a competent leader, will at Mr. Ward's Music Store. jy28-PIANO NOTICE.

THE FUBLIC, and e-pecially good judges really fine Pvono, are rest ect ully invited to call at WARD'S MUSIC STORE, 3D TREET, and examine a fine specimen of "Bradbury's celebrated Planos, just received and for sale cheap. Mr. W. is sole agent for "Bradoury's" for central Penn-ylvania.

FLOWERS OF ITALY.

TOILET EAU DE COLOGNE A N exquisite impregnation of Pure Spic swith the odors of Flowers, Blossoms of Orange, Rosemara, Balm, Violet and Roses Very fragrant on the handkerchief. For sale the quart or bottle. Prepared by 1.15 S. A. KUNKEL, Acorbecuty j. 15

OFFICE (HILP COMMISSARY OF SUB-I-TELC) DEPARTMENT OF THE SEQUEMANNA.

Harriburg, Pa, July 25th, 1853.

EALED PROPOSALS, in duplicate, will be received by the undersigned until 11 octock.

A. M., Wednesday, July 29 h, 1868, for fundaming the U. S. Subsistence Department, delivered in this city, with 500 BBLS. FRESH GROUND EXTRA FLOUR lowing grades, viz:

150 No. 1, 250 No. 2, 100 No. 3.

Brands must be stated, both h a lat be many lined; flat hooped and machine made harrels will be ejected. To be delivered at the rate of 150 bbls. per day, commencing within these days from the date of a ceptance of the bid. Should a larger amount be required than 5.0 barrels, the daily proportion will be the same.

Samples must accomp my every proposal. Each bid to have consideration, must contain

"We, the undersigned, hereby guarantee should all or any part of the accompaning bi Proposals must not be enclosed with the sam ples. but be delivered separate, and endured "Proposals for Flour." In case of failure to deliver the flour, the United States reserves the right of purchase elsewhere to make up the deficiency, charging the advance paid over contract pice to the party failing to deliver. All flour will be carefully inspected and compared with the regained samples. Payments to be made after the de-livery of the flour, if funds are on hand; if none on hand, to be made as soon as received.

A certificate will be required se ting forth the above advertisement, either belong to the them of loyal citizens for delivery to the United Bids must be legible and the numbers must be written as well as expressed by figures.

No proposal will be considered or under any

The undersigned reserves to himself the right to reject any bids considered exorbitant, irregular or not complying with the forgoing.

G. RELL

Lieut. Col. and Chief C. S.

THE UNITED STATES HOTEL HARRISBURG, PA. COVERLY & HUTCHISON, Proprietors.

HIS well known Hotel is now in a condi-L tion to accommodate the traveling public, affording the most ample conveniences alike for the transient guest and the permanent boarder.

THE UNITED STATES HOTEL has been entirely refitted throughout, and now has ac-commodations equal in extent, comfort and luxury to any hotel between Philadelphia and Pittsburg. Its location is the best in the State Capital, being in easy access to all the railread depots, and in close proximity to all the public offices and business localities of the city. It has ow all the conven

A FIRST CLASS HOTEL,

A N ASSORTMENT OF

OVER 100 STYLES

POCKET BOOKS, PURSES PORTMONAIES

FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, KELLER'S

Drug and Fancy Goods Store, No. 91 Market Street. A FINE LOT OF BANKERS' CASES AND LARGE WALLETS.

Some Splendid New Patterns of LADIES' COMPANIONS. The best Morocco TRAVELING SATCHELS,

And a general variety of FANCY GOODS, suitable for Presents, now on hand at KELLER'S myll] Drug Store, No. 91 Market Street.

SECRET OF BEAUTY!

LAIRD'S Bloom of Youth or Liquid Pearl POR beautifying and preserving the com

I plexion and skin.

After using Laird's Bloom of Youth, or Liquid
Pearl, for a short time, it will leave the skin s soft, satin-like texture; it imparts freshness, smoothness and transparency to the skin, that can only be produced by the use of this valuable. article. It presents no vulgar white paint, at all other attempted compounds do, but, on the contrary, it will give the complexion a peatle like tint, such as can only be found in youth; its use is impossible to be detected by the closest observers. It is also invaluable for reproving all kinds of Humors, Tans, Freckels, Comburns and other cutaneous diseases from the skin. Mr. Laird has every confidence in recommending his Bloom of You h, or Liquid Pearl, to the ladies of America, as being the only perfect and reliable artic, e now in use for beautifying

Can only be nad at S. A. KUNKEL'S je22 Apothecary, Harrisburg.

B'ED BEEF AND BOLOGNA, a very choice lot, just received and for sale by WM DOCK, Jr., & CO. mr30 DRESERVING JARS of all kinds, glass and ding Cards? At SCHEFFER'S BOOKSTORE.