A HARRISBURGER IN THE MORRIS ISLAND AND Fort Wagner Fight. - Lientenat Edwin H. Hickok, signal officer on Gen. Strong's staff, was in both the storming parties at Fort Wagner, and was in the fort. In the latter engagement he received a wound in the arm, had five bullet holes in the breast of his coat, and had a term of Court. piece taken out of his coat collar by a grape shot, it just grazing the skin. He says, in a beiser were lodgers in the lock-up for drunken letter dated the 19th, that he will be well niss. PRAISEWORTHY EXAMPLE.—In visiting the hos pitals where hundreds of our brave soldiers are lying, sick and wounded, and where everything is being done by skillful surgeons and attentive nurses that will tend to relieve the suffering, we notice among the latter class many of our Harrisburg ladies. They seem to move about among the unfortunate soldiers with an ease and gentleness that none but mothers and sisters are able to imitate. Their tender attentions at this trying hour are appreciated by all those whose wants and wishes they are trying to alleviate. Ladies of Harrisburg, this living exemplification of charity will never go u prewarded, and the kind remembrances of the sol-

A VAST CEMETERY .- A correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, writing from Gettysburg, says: Hundreds of accessions has the Gettysburg Cemetery received within these memorable days. In one place we counted over one hundred graves of New York volunteers, the names of the brave men all inscribed on simple head boards. In close proximity lie fifty six rebels in one trench, and not far off forty-tomore, without a solitary name inscribed. The spot itself is designated by a board nailed against the tree, with the inscription that here lie so many rebels. Several soldiers are buried within arm's length of Dr. Krauth's rear door. The Seminary grounds and Dr. Schmucker's garden contain a number, and thus it is all 19. A. Boyd Hamilton, printer, Harrisburg. through the country, wi hin a circuit of eight 20. F. D. BATCHELOB'S NEW TOLLET CREAM FOR DEBSSING

Peter Funk Exposed.—This morning a returned volunteer entered one of the "sheep cloting" stores, recently opened in Market st and asked the price of a small pocket pistol, laying in the show window. The proprietor, said ne would sell it for $19. The soldier, never having purchased anything of the kind before, p id the money and took the pistol. A few m men's after he entered the hardware store of to the one he had just purchased. Mr. Gabert look d at the pistol and told the sold er he OHIO SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS TO RETURN could sell him one for $10, a little more than HOME.—The Surgeon General has directed that one hal the sum he had just paid. The soldier appeared surprised at the answer, and gave are able to travel and will not be fit for duty in Mr. Gilbert the whole history connected with the purchase of the sample he had just shown bim. A note was immediately sent to the Jew, to be transferred in acc rdauce with the above offering to sell him ten pistols similar to the one he had just sold for ten dollars each, at the tha Surgeon General directly to the Medical same time saying he would then make a good profit on them. But Mr. Jew didn't bite. He couldn't see it! Barney Campbell did, however, and the Peter Funk man was brought up before the Mayor to answer. As is usually the case, he was the most innocent man in the room, and sold his goods at wonderfully small profits. He was released after refunding the money for the pistol.

> To the Patriotic of the Land-A Cemetery for those who Fell at Gettysburg.

Shall the bon s of the men who turned the battle from the gate in that fearful struggle of three days at Guttysburg be left for men to plow up in their fields and to wagon over on the bads around that town? It must be known to the nation that not less than three thous ind men lie in and about Gettysburg, in corn fields, wheat fields, in meadows in gardens, by the way side, and in the public road, buried hastily where they fell, and others one time provost marshal of this city, is still in day he died written with lead pencil, ink, or command of the regiment.

In consultation with some friends at Gettysburg, to avoid the disgrace which would be upon ourg, to avoid the disgrace which would be upon us as a natiou to let such a thing remain, we looked around for a burial place. None seemed so appropriate as Cemetery Hill, the spot which controlled and secured to us the battle. The spot on which, when it was said our forces were every man of you," and which was held.

There are about eight acres of ground in con-

The gentlemen who own the ground have been of the country, or any patriotic citizen who will purchase it for the purpose of burying the dead, at the price of $200 per acre. It is just at the edge of the town, and is in every way the spot. If this is secured at once, the different States whose dead lie buried in the fields and on the highways, will certainly appropriate enough to secure their interment in this place. The Government will secure good walnut or durable yesterday evening, for as the same had no sooner on the subject, can address David Wills, Esq., Afterney at Law, Gettysburg, who has taken an interest in the master, and has gotten the above named gentlemen to agree to disorderly bawdy house, on oath of John H. Will the editors of our papers generally, and sepecially of Boston, New York, Philadelphia specially of Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Harrisburg, please insert this, and try to secure its accomplishment?

Having spent about three weeks in connection with the wounded in Gettysburg, and the differout hospitals within two miles around it, and been compelled to see the nec saity of something b ing done I most beartily unite in urging the ing of the Cemetery Hill for the purpose as in every way the desirable place.
