III. The last paragraph of General Order Nos 86, current series, is so amended as to read as follows: Companies, battalions and regiments from morning till night, was as terrific as in-cessant, as fierce as it is possible for one to conceve. The thunder of their guns, the boom-ing of the shells, which bussed in myriads in and arous d Battery Wagner, led us to suppose cepied as volunteers throughout the Confede racy, under the act of Aug. 21, 1861, (No. 219, that the slanghter must be immense; and those least prone to give way to despindent feelings persons belonging to such organizations, who are of conscription age, and neither exempted by law, nor already in the service, will be dis-charged and reported to the Brican of C tion, it s emed impossible for any work put up of mortal man to stan i such a terrible and con centrated fire, and pass unscatted through such an erdeal. But God be praised, it did so.

Four men killen and fourteen wounded, and the battery unit jured, was the result of the bombardment, as severe as they can possibly subject the battery to at any time But in the hour of victory--in the day of re-

But in the hour of victory—in the day of re-joicing with spirits light-n.d and hopes elated not without just cau e, we must beware of ex-tremes, and must take care that our feelings do not betray our reason. Charleston may yet by saved; but the danger is by no means over yet --the enemy filed, repulsed, seaten back, though he has been and is still clamoring at our gates—be still retains a footboild on Mouris Island, where protered as he is by his gun-bo ts, it is almost impossible to disiodgie i im. the has come have determined to take Charles-ton, if possible, he has come (as a Yank-e offi-cer, recently taken prisoner, observ.d.), 'expecting to meet with a desperate resistance, expecting to fight as they have never fought yet, expecting to have to suffer hardships, yet deter-to endule all and to capture Charleston if it is po sible to do so. Is it reasonable to suppose that he will be contented after a few repulses to abandon the game he has set Lis whole heart on winning, to retire from a position so threatening to us, as long as he retains it as a base for future opera-tions? It is foolish to suppose so for an instant. Charleston may be saved, mut be saved, will be saved; but much work is still before usmore blood must be split-more lives must be lost, more battles "fought and won," e'er the "clouds that lowers upon our house" shall be scattered and dispelled by the welcome rays of

DESTRUCTION OF COLTON.

We regret to learn, says the Constitutionalist, that two warehouses at Safford, Ga., on the Coattaboochee river, containing about 2 (00 bales of cotton, besides other property scored, were destroyed by fire on the 15th just The buildings were both struck by lightning at the same time, and were totally consumed. We understand that most of the cotton stored belonged to Mr. Metcalf, of Augusta. Loss about $500,100.

In response to the announcement that Gen Wm. H. F. Lee and Capt. Winder have been placed in confinement at Old Point, as hostages for the two Yankee officers, Flynn and Sewyer, ondemned to be shot by the confederate au horitzes, our commissioner has informed the THE NEW CONSCRIPTION ACT. Federal Govenrment that the confederate gov ernment will not be intimidated by any such hreats, and that the execution of said officers will take place as soon as the President may see fit. It is hoped that the Executive will see fit to give the order for execution immediately; and as we have now over five hundred officers in our hands, besides some five or six thousand privates, it is in the power of the government to carry retaliation to a very bitter extreme.— The people call for the death of these two Yankees, and it is useless to delay their death any longer.
