own language, "ha- been saved by the Bitters?"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862. Messrs. Jones & Evaus :- Well, gentlemen, vonr Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my lite. There is no mistake in this. It is youched for by numbers of my comrades, some o whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. 1 am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated (att. ry, and under the immediate command of Captain B. B. Ayers. Through the exposure artendaut upon my aiduous duties. I was attacked in Noember last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospita! This was followed by great debili y, heighten d by an attack of dysentery. I was then remov-ed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since teat time I have been about as low as any one could be and still letain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swal low anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not tast under these circurnstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised m . as a forlorn hope, to try your bitters, and kind-ly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears-to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of azain cla-ping to my osom those who are dearest to me in life

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE. We ully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing cur comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
