TO ALL WHO MAY BE DRAFTED. of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters." PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862. Messes. Jones & Evans :-- Well, gentlemen,

No 43 THE following extracts from laws of the United States, now in force, are published for the information and guidance of all concerned: Section 12, of the Enrolment act, after at recting how the duff member of Shermau's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendaut upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in No-vember last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital This was followed by great debili y, heighten d by an attack of dysentery. I was then remov-ed from the White House and sent to this city on hoard the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since t at time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality.

low suything and if I did f ree a morsel down, it was monediately thrown up sgain. I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Lie could not take under these ch comstance; and, acro ding y, the physicians who had oven working far hfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the group of the dread archer, f aukly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to se a ciergyman and (o make such disp sition of my limited unds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospit I, Mr. Frederick Sembron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised m , as a tor-ora hope, 'o try your bitters, and kind-ly procured a bottle. From the time I com-menced taking them the gloomy shadow of getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, 1 have gained ten pounes, and 1 feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginiau, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears-to your Bitters will I owe the vague fears—to your Bitters will 1 owe the glorious privilege of again cla-ping to my nosom those who are dearest to me in life. Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE. We ully concar in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health. John Cuddleback, First New York Battery leorge A. Ackley, Co.
