B. Ayers. Through the ex, osure att adaut upon my ardnous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debili y, heighten d by an attack of d, sentery. I was then removof from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer Sta e of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since t at time I have been about as low ss any one could be and still lerain a stark of vitality. For a wrek or mo e I was scarcely able to swa low acything and if I did force a morsel down. it was immediately thrown up sgain. I could not even kee . a glass of water on my stomach. Life ou d not ust under three cir-cumstauces; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working tai hfoliy, though acsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread archer, f ankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited lunds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised mas a foriorn hope, to try your bitters, and kind-ly procured a bottle. From the time I comenced taking them the gloomy shadow of each recoded, and I am now, thank God for it, death recoded, and I am now, that getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pouncs, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal.
