AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.
We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOF-LAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the Lewspapers, on the arrival of the tick, it will be noticed that a very large propertion are suffering from debil ty. Every-case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used mong our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

Of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADRIPHIA, August 23d, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans:—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in Noor by leaving a copy at the last place of residence, requiring him to appear at a designated place of rendezvous to report for duty."

Section 13 of the Envelopment of the control of the place of rendezvous to report for duty."

Section 13, of the Enrolment act, contains the following: "Aud any person failing to report after due service of notice, as herein prewhich I landed on the 28th of June. Since

> I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not tast under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your bitters, and kind-ly procured a bottle. From the time I com-menced taking them the gloomy shadow of death recoded, and I am now, thank God for it, sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginiao, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your, invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to
