MARRIAGE

MARRIAGE, Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage: the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with he melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and improdent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed: the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an illtimed sense of shame or the dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him. He falls into the hands of ignooerient. In the period of the period of curing, filch his pecuniary substance, keep him triflin; month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in deepair the smallest fee can be obtained, and in deepair the smallest fee can be obtained, and in deepair the sign over his the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with ruined health to sigh over his galling disappointment, or, by the use of the deadly poison, Meroury, hasten the constitutional symptoms of this terrible disease, such as affections of the Head, Throat, Nose, Skin, etc. progressing with frightful rapidity till death puts a period to his dreading sufferings by sending him to that undiscovered country from ing him to that undiscovered country from whence no traveller returns.
