Daily Telegraph UNION NOMINATIONS. FOR GOVERNOR, ANDREW G. CURTIN OF CENTRE COUNTY. FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT, DANIEL AGNEW, OF BEAVER COUNTY.

HARRISBURG, PA. Monday Evening August 10, 1863.

A Coincidence.

George W. Woodward, when a member of the Convention to revise and amend the Constitution of Pennsylvania, boldly proposed and warmly advocated a measure to disfranchise all foreign born adopted citizens. His doctrine was, that the enfranchisement of the foreigner, howover long he might reside in the land and whit ever his devotion to the Government, would breed discord, danger and destruction in and to the country. This monstrous proposition, notwitustanding Woodward ably, zealcusly advocated its adoption as a portion of the Constitution of the state of Pennsylvania, was repudiated and rejected with scorn, as an insult to the memory of the dead ; as a wrong to the descendants of the fathers of the Government, and a stay to the progress and development which emigration was hoped to impart to the nation. But the idea of disfranchising the masses was never abandoned by Woodward.---The young lawyer who sat in the Beform Connotion, cherished it as a dream of justice, cogitated it as a statesmanfike enterprise, determined some day to put his theory into successful operation. And who ever dreamed that he would be successful? Who ever north as well as south, Woodward, should he imagined that George W. Woodward would succeed in disfranchising any portion of the American people? No one, surely, but himself -an i yet he has su ceeded. And what is worse, those thus disfranchised are the very men who are even now engaged in fighting to maintain the Government. The soldiers who bare their bosoms to the bullets of the enemies of the Government. are the American cuizens whom George W. Woodward has declared should not vote. Morein is the coincidence in the course of the copperhead candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. He started in his career as a public man, by attempting to disfranchise the American citiz n, in which he failed. But he persisted in cherishing the notion of disfranchisement, until he succeeded in disfranchising the soldiers. Is such a man fit to administer the affairs of a Government composed of ficemen? This-is a qu s ion which the freemen of Pennsylvania must decide in a very few weeks.

Results of the New York Riots. One of the New York papers, a day or two since.contained a three-column list of the claims and the claim ints for damages suffered during the recent disgraceful riots in that city. The property destroyed foots up more than $750,county treasury. That is the more money loss, and nut all of it either, for the claims are not all in, and the expenses of suppressing the riot are not included. As to the other sacrifices,

The Game of the Entmies of the State. The Tory Organ, this morning, gives us a ecimen of the manner in which the campaigo and Services Handsomely Acknowledge r Governor is to be conducted, and betrays its oitter feelings in rega d to the attitude which Pennsylvania has been proudly made to take through the unwavering energy and indefati gable devotion of the present Chief Magistrate of the Commonwealth. We want the people of Pennsylvania to mark the assertion well, to note that the central organ of the Dimocracy of Pennsylvania opposes the re-election of Andrew G. Curtin simply because he has been and still is faithful to the National Goverment. We quote from the Tory O gan to day, the following general ground upon which the semi traitors of Pennsylvania are sworn to oppose the re election of Gov. Cartin:

He has proclaimed, already, base submission o the F deral Administration ; he has ignored to trust us, and places his reliance in physical force rather than in the wisdom, intelligence ind virtue of the people.

This paragraph, or rather portion of a paragraph, exhibits at once the mendacity of the riends of Woodward and the secret policy which underlies the efforts to elect him Gover nor of Pennsylvania. Its charge that Governor Curtin " has proclaimed already a base submission the National authority, if he is elected Gover nor of Pennsylvania; that, acting on the State lights doctrine of the Democratic party, become Governor of Pennsylvania, will refuse all recognition of the Fed ral Government, this attack also the 76th bure a complian? included,) in resisting the National Government, in paralyzing the National forces, and in making Pennsylvania, to all intents and will be done to the men of Pennsylvania purposes, the sister of South Carolina in treason and rebellion. There is no mistaking this fact, because the Tory Organ confesses the purpose to do so, in its issue of this morning, in proof of which the reader has only to ponder well the quotation we print with these comments. -It was scarcely to be expected that those men, thus early, would confess the diabolical plaus which they have in view in attempting to elect George W. Woodward. Had they merely started out with the declaration that Woodward intended, if elected Governor, to carry out his old policy of disfranchising the adopted citizen; or had they merely stated that Woodward only 000, all of which will have to be paid from the latended to persist in refusing to the soldier the right of suffrage, we might have been induced to treat their dogmas politely. But when decla rations are indulged in, the logic of which clearly and emphatically implies that the election of we saw, a few days since, a list of ninety persone George W. Woodwaod is to be the signal of op known to have been killed during the four position to the National authority-that he is LETTER FROM GOVERNOR SEYMOUR-BEPLY to lend his aid and influence to a system by which the debts of the nation are to be repuliated, a system which would carry bankruptes to every man who has invested his all in honor-day's saturnalia, and there is reason to believe that large numbers were clandestinely buried by their friends to avoid exposure. Then there is still another list of a hundred and fifty persous under arrest for participation in the robbery, arson and murder which gave such a character to the riots. Add to these catalogues the hundreds who have been obliged to fly to esc pe the law, and we have s me faint idea of the cust of law essness and anarchy.

If the people of Pennsylvania desire to se the some scenes enacted in every portion of this now loyal Commonwealth, let them elect George W. Wuodward Governor of the State. Had any other man but one of the treason propensities of Seymour, been Governor of New York, the riots which cost the city of New York so much blood as d treasure, would never have taken place. He encouraged the rioters and protected the assassing. Elect Woodward Governor of Pennsylvania, and he will follow the example of Seymour of New York. In fact, he is pledged to do this, and stands on a platform framed to oppose the National Government. At I ast the Torg Organ confesses this much, inadvertently, this morning.

GOVERNOR ANDREW, of Massachusetts, has devised a sentible scheme for the establishment of an actual military organization in Mas achusetts, and he has appointed a board of commissioners, at the head of which is Mr. Everett, to inquire into the expediency of establishing,a military academy in the Commonwealth .--These are wise forecastings, for even if our civil war does not make them necessary, our foreign wars will. We cannot hope to remain at prace with all the world; even if we subdue south, and towards one insight and scheming despot, the crowned broker who controls a gallant people in France, we ought at once to assume the attitude of defarce. We have never had war with France, but twice we have been on the brisk of it; the first time, Washington commanded our armies; the sec ond. Jackson was our commander in chief ; but we never had so good a cause against her as now. Our Government should overrun Texas report that five thousand Frenchmen are marching on Matamoras, is an alarming one, we cannot hasten our preparatious too much to resist these schem, s.
