The command r of the camp had not the least idea that whitewarh ng the guard house would have produced such a salutary eff ct.

THE DRAFT FOR DAUPHIN COUNTY .- Its Success and its Incidents. - The conscription for Dauphin county was commenced this morning, by Marshal Clement, assisted by his associates in the buard of enrollment. An immense staging had been erected immediately in front of the Court House, where "the wheel of fortune" was put into operation, and as name after name of those drafted were drawn from the "box," the crowd assembled gave vent to cheers, while such of the drafted as were present received the congratulation with a grace which showed at least the acquiesence the law receives at the hands of orderly and loyal men. Indeed the good humor and decerum which prevailed during the entire pro ending of the duaft to-day, is as much du to the decency, patriotism and intelligence of the people of Dauphin county, as it is to any vigor, efficiency or preparation on the part of those engaged in this delicate business.

Thus far, the TELEGRAPH fice has been severely conscripted. Our chief clerk, W. H. H. Sig, the forem n, respectively, in the job and newspaper composing rooms, Samu-1 Strock and Martin V. S. evens, Jos. L. Buffington, foreman of the press 100m-are among the lucky holders of the mag'e "envelope." Thomas B. Nolan, Thomas For ter (late of the 127th) and Frederick Scott, carrier of the Teleguaph, have also receiv d complimentary tickets.

PHILIP ENSMINGER, Esq, a blind man, was blindfolded and drew the names from the wheel Meests. Geo. J. Shoemaker and Wm. Bergstresser, Democrats, and John J. Shoemaker, and Aaron Bombaugh, Republicans, occupied seats on the platform, by invitation, to see that every thing was conducted fairly.

Below we give the names of the drafted up to the hour of our going to press:

THE DRAFT.—The all absorbing subject this Gonn, Miss Amelia moreing is the draft, and many logenious methods are being resorted to for the purpose of bettering the condition of those subject there unto, while the loyal civizio generally submits without a mormur, in view of sustaining our glorious country. It is also true that the draft Hinkel, Miss May will avadure much distress with some that are will produce much di-tress with some that are elected, who, in the absence of pecuniary help, will be compelled to leave their families at the mercy of doubtful protection. Would it not be the doubtful protection. Would it not be the doubtful protection would it not be the doubtful protection. well and humane to organize a plan by which the soldier could leave his home with the full confidence that his family would be cared for? Dies the reader not think that under more Jacks'or, Matida Weizel, Miss Agr Johnson, Mas Maria Weaver, Mis favorable auspices, the man would fight better and make a more faithful soldier? our mone ed citizens think of this, and in naking the provision, bear in mind that should ly goods come under the head of their wants. the cheap dry goods house of C. A FRIEND IN NEED. TRY IT. DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT Is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen eet, of Connecticut, the great bone setter and has been used in his practice for the last twenty years with the most astonishing success. As an external remedy, it is without a rival, Anderson, Etc. and will allevia e pain more speedily than Bause, John D. any other preparation. For all Rheumatic Balsley, David and Nervous Disorders it is truly infallible, and as a curative for Sores, Wounds, Sprains, Bruices, &c., its scothing, healing and powerful strengthening properties, excite the just wonder and astonishment of all who have ever given it a trial. ATIENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOUF-LAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the rewspapers, on the arrival of the cick, it will be nonced that a very large propertion are suffering from debity. Every case of that kind can be readily cuted by Ho. fland's German Bitters. Diseates resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are specially semoved. We have no hesitation in stating that if these B tiers were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's before, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PRILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862. Messrs Jones & Evans :—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my ile. There is no mistake in this. It is vonch ed for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizent of all the circumstances of my case. i am, and have been for the last tour years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain B. B. Avers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs. and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debili y, heighten d by an attack of disentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. toat time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swal low anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though en-successfully, to rescue me from the grosp of the dread archer, frankly fold me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited tunds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Stein-bron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised ma, as a fortorn hope, to try your bitters, and kind-iy procured a buttle. From the time I com-menced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard notaling for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginiau, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears-to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of azaia cla-ping to my osom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours. ISAAC MALONE.
