Evangelical Lu., Gran Church. - Rev. Dr. Charles A. Hay will preach to-morrow morning.

THE COAL TRADE.—Sta tistics of the Pennsylvania coal trade for the press ent season show an aggregate production of near four million 23 Samuel Paul tuns, against less than three and three quarter 24 Albert Cadwalader millions to the same time last year. Notwithmillions to the same time last year. 26 George Mott standing the numerous strikes which ha. 26 27 J. hn Maladay 'cis curred among the miners in the coal distrithis season, these statistics show a favorable in crease in the coal trade of our Commonwealth.

A Base Swindler.—An "emergency" docter, who volunteered his tervices at Gettysburg, was detected charging enormous compensations for professional services on the battle field. One private actually paid the swindler fifty dollars for performing an amputation and insuring a cure. The man was arrested, and his name is now in the hands of the Secretary of 12 Michael Salter
War, who, after sentence is pronounced, will 13 Rush Johnston divulge it to the public.

FILLING UP THE RIGIMENTS.—The Washington Star says : "Perhaps a thousand conscripts a day are already joining the Army of the Potomac. In a week the number reaching it daily will be greaterr They go forward in excellent spirits, and bid fair to make admirable soldiers In a very brief time." But few conscripts, as yet, have passed through Harrisburg for Carlisle or the seat of war. In about two weeks 10 George Trotman they will commence passing through to the Carlisle rendezvous.

NEW YORK MEDICAL UNIVERSITY. The Medical Department of the University of New York, will begin their session for 1868-64 on Monday, the 19th Oct., which will be continued until the 1st of March ensuing. The prominent features of the University in the plan of Education, the unlimited resources of New York to the young practitioner, whether in surgery, medicine or obstetrics, are uncounlied in the world. From the period of its first organization to the present date, owing to its numerous faculty, the institution has met with constantly increasing 10 A R Riley and unvarying success, and we are pleased to 11 Albert Scott notice the opening of this excellent institution 12 Charles Buch the coming fall.

THE "BESE." - This unsurpassed Government 15 William Gulick institution is fast growing into public favor, 17 William Lesher from the convenience of its location, and the 18 R C Vaudyke benefits derived from it by our soldiers. During 19 John Boyer the month of July, over 51,000 soldiers were 20 Josiah Johnson 21 Henry Crouser the month of July, over 51,000 soldiers were 21 Henry Crouser 48 Cyrus Brouse fed at the "Rest," and since the first of August, 22 James McLaughlin 49 Anthony Golicher 19,000 more have received their meals at 28 Patrick Cleary that place. The buildings and fences have 24 Robert Simpson 25 Arthur L Little recently been neatly white washed, and a 26 John Ashton number of trees planted in the yard in front of 27 J P Tustin drill room. It would well repay the reader to visit the "Soldier's Rest," and see how well an institution of this kind can be conducted. Col. De Korponay still "runs the machine," assisted by his gentlemanly clerks, Messra. Conner and Herr.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO A SOLDIER. - John Op. tegrave, a private of company F, 173d Penna. volunteers, was found, about twelve o'clock last night, sitting upon the railroad track near the 10 John W Reed depot, in a complete state of nudity, and quite 11 Henry Red unable to give any account of himself, when 12 Jacob Moore discovered.
