We announced, in our mornining edition, the melaucholy tact of the death of Brig Gen Thomas Welsh. He is reported to have died in Cincionati, but what the causes were which induced his death, we are not informed.

Death of Brig. Gen. 1 homas welsh.

Gen. Weish was a sold er of corsiderable rep u ation, having served in the Mexican war with distluction, and having also rendered the most invaluable servic s in the war in which the nation is now energy descent the slave holders of the S uth and their sympathicers in the N 1th. He was among the first to vo nuteer his services in the organization of the first quotof Penns lyania troops. In the three months service, he was at the head of a splendid company, and at the termination of that cul stment he immediately organized another company. He was in command of Camp Curtin for several months, and while in that position his abilities as a soldier won for him the confidence of the officers of the 45th Reg. P. V., who una. imously elected him their Colonel, and he was accord ingly commissioned as such by Gov. Curtin The 45th was attached to Maj r General Burnside's corps, and under that gallant leader, Col. Welsh and his regiment saw much hard service, distinguishing themselves as well for their bravery as for their discipline. When Gen. Burnside was ordered to Kentucky, Col. Weish was promoted to a Brigadier Generalship, and detailed for service with Burnside, ever since which time, he has been in that command, discharging a soldier's duty with a manly and an of purity. Yet thousands of loyal Democrats North Carolina, honest zeal. We can truly write, that the of Penusylvania intend to support both at the South Carolina, country has lost one of its bravest and most valuable soldiers in the death of Thomas Welsh.

CONSIDERABLE surprise has been expressed that so many drafted men are exempted because of physical debil ty. The opposition journals worthy of consideration. The surgical exami nation is very close: that is to say, it is very merciful to the consc ipt and very just to the Government. No man is taken whose physical organization is detective in any way that would peril his life or health were he exposed to the fat'gue of a soldier's life, or that would disable him from efficiently serving the Government Then it is to be borne in mind that an immense the memory of an old organization. Our nominee for Governor, to become successful, must have every R publican and every loyal Democratic vots in the Commonwealth Nor is it for us to dictate a mode of action to Lose loyal Democrats who have esponsed the principle for which we contend. We mus trust to the honor of the loval Democrace-to the honor of men who have sacrificed old party 48-ociations, who have severed social ties, who have renounced political obligations, that they might be untrammeled in a contestin which the Union and the Constitution are the all beorbing issues involved. It we do not do this he treachery will be on our part, and the od um f defeat must be extirely endured by ourselves. because the lo al Democracy of Pennsylvan a without any mere avowals of attachment to party organization, are willing to support An drew G Curtin, while Andrew G. Keystone State brilliant beyond description. The Prospect.

The New York Independent, after awaeping energetic prosecution of the war to this the field on which our armies are engaged, with ment is the only means by which the Union weather glass, says that the general prospect made practically useful in test ring her its very encouraging. After a month crowded ull of victories, for which we have rendered for reinforcements for this purpose; accusing thanksgivings to God, our arms, while they have the Confederate Government of perfity and won no new tropbies, have suffered no new cruelty towards Neutu Carolina, and declaring her defeats. The effect of the late victories, thus unclouded with any shadow, is as visible upon the Union cause as sunshine upon green fields It is impossible to describe the hearty gladness which everywhere beats in the pulses of loyal men. A common idea prevails that the back- rejoicing in the recent Union v ctory at the share this general conviction, nor deem it natriotism of the administration to the ability and bone of the rebellion is broken. Although we oundation, after all, prove unstable and bigh opes fall to the ground. The fortune of war is fi. kle. Like a man walking away from the at Newbern. sun, the march of victory often casts defeat before it like a shadow. The victories in the West proved decisive; they destroyed the reb'lion in that region; but the victory at Gettysburg, though one of the most brilliant of the war, decided only that Lee cannot speed the number in the North, yet may spend it in Virginia. Until the army of Lee is broken, the rebellion remains unbroken. If Meade shall sir ke and destroy it, the end of the confederacy sat hand. But if he shall strike and be destroyed, even our eplended gatus in the West would be outlalanced by such a loss in the East. The Army of the Potomac, therefore, now bears the chief banner of the Union. May
