wounded rebel prisoners were transferred from Chambersburg to the Chestnut Street Hospital, in this city, yesterday. There are two colonels three captains, one adjutant and three lieutenants included in this number. On transferring the patients from the cars to the kospital, one of the colonels, Rober H. Archer a Marylander, and a member of the rebe. Brigadier General Archer's staff, was highly indig. couldn't have a carriage to himself it which to ride to the Hospital, but two squares ductant. It appears, however, that he was intoxicated a 111 A R Minch the time, and cursed the Surgeon who attended 1to his wound-a very slight one. The other colonel, Colatt Leventhorpe, of the 11th North Carolina volunteers, was more gentlemanly in his manners and did not insist on having a room at a hotel in this city, with waffles and spring chickens, as did several of his commissioned subordinates. The prisoners, however, will receive the best medical attendance at the hands of Surgeon Maclean and his assistants, who will not be compelled to diet their patients on sole leather soup, such as is received by cur officers in Richmond.

CAUGHT THE WRONG (RIGHT) MAN .- Yes terday Lieut. Joseph M. Ordycke, City Provost Mar shal, received information that two deserters from the army were on their way to this city "fully armed and equipped," and mounted on horses which they had stolen in the Cumberland Valley. He immediately dispatched Sergeant John Wilson, his orderly, to the opposite side of the river, with instructions to remain at the entrance of the Harrisburg bridge and i atercept the young laddies as they came up. I'he sergeant had no sooner posted himself than a charger rounded the curve near the milroad and came dashing down toward the Bridge. When he found that he couldn't pass the mard, he pursued the course of a juvenile shode contractor-tried to pay his way through b, v offering a V. The five was accepted; but the young deserter was not satisfied with this. He officed to sell his horse for the small sum of $25, remarking that it did not cost him anything. The sergeant, who thought matters had gone about far enough, here "put in his oar," arrested the contractor, and brought him before the Marshal, who discover ed that the prisoner in question was not on the programme, but was an extra prize. The sergeant was ordered to confine him in prison, confiscate his horse, and to take his former "stand on the opposite side of the river, said "bring in the other two," who had not yet 36 Robert Townsend been captured. The deserter caught gives his name as Daniel Keller, and belongs to a cavally 89 Dennis Percel regiment now on duty with the army of the 40 Elisha Shorkly

HARRISBURG CEMETERY .- At a recent meeting of the Board of Managers of the Harrisburg Cemetery, the following matters of interest to lot Loiders and others were disposed of: A map or plot of the Cemetery Grounds was ordered to be made, containing the walks, lots and names of the lot holders marked thereon, which, when finished, will be open for examination at all times, at the keeper's house. A resolution was adopted, requiring undertakers to furnish to the keeper the rough boxes twelve hours prior to the time fixed for the funeral except in cases of contagious diseases, and other special cases. A resolution was also adopted, recommending to lots holders not to appoint funerals to take place on the Sabbath, before one o'clock in the afternoon, except in cases of contagious diseases, the object being to allow the keeper opportunity to attend public worship once on Sunday. The following resolution was

Resolved, That hereafter the Cemetery will be closed to all visuors on the Sabbath, until one o'clock in the afternoon, to afford the keeper the opportunity of attending public worship in the morning.

Messrs. Colder, Kelker, Gross and Smull oting for the resolution, Mr. Kleckner and Mr. Alricks, President, voting against it. Resolu tions were also adopted, providing for the erection of a number of benches for the accommodation of visitors, the opening of the old road and path along the stream, and the clearing away of the underbrush. Also to arrange a suitable place at which to fasten horses which may be driven upon the grounds.

REBEIS FROM CHAMBERSBURG .-. Yesterday evening twenty-two rebel prisoners arrived at the depot from Chambersburg, strongly guarded. They were escorted to the Provost Marshal's office, and afterwards to Camp Curtin, where they still remain. They will be sent to Philadelphia as soon as transportation is furnished

TO HORSE OWNERS. DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT FOR HORSES is unrivated by any, and in all cases of Lameness arising from Spiains, Bruises of Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily. Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horses to travel with omnarative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at band, for its timely use at the first appear ance of Lameness will effectually prevent formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many

PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans:—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouch ed for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain B. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital This was followed by great debili y, heighten d by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swal low anything, and if I did force a morsel down, t was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginiao, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears-to your Bitters will I owe the vague rears—to your pitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my nosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
