THE DRAFT IN THE 16TH DISTRICT .- It is officially announced that the draft in the 16th District, composed of Adams, Franklin, Fulton. Badford and Somerset counties, will commence at Charabersburg, next Monday, the 24th inst.

DISMISSED THE SERVICE.—Assistant Surgeon J. H. Sullivan, U. S. V., recently in charge of the service, by Surgeon Governl Wm. A. Hammond-cause, drunkenness. He is a Southerner. and entered the service from Georgia or Florida.

THE REBEL HOSPITAL AT CHAMBER, BURG -There are still some fifty rebel wounded in the School House Hospital, at Chambersburg, in charge of Assistant Surgeon Gamble, of the rebel service, under the regulations established ered that a plan was on foot to effect the escape of a number of prisoners who were able to travel: but it was summarily arrested and new restrictions imposed in the hospital regulations.

Surgeon General William A. Hammond is preparing on Hygiene, with special application to the military service, is nearly completed. Dr. Brinton, U.S. A., is preparing statistics and material for the "Surgical History of the Rebellion." Dr. Woodward, also of the Surgeon General's office, is preparing statistics and material for the Medical History of the Rebellion. Dr. Woodward is also preparing a practical these works will be of great value to the medical profession.

THE INVALID CORPS.—There are now about five hundred veterans in the In valid camp two miles east of Harrisburg, comm anded by Col. Prevost. The camp is beautifully situated, and pay of persons who may enlist as substitutes of its sanitary condition unequalled. The leading civil and military officers of our country are warm in approving of the organi zation of this Invalid Corps, which afford a me and of providing for such maimed and wounded officers and amount stated in proportion to the brevity of business at home. This organization brings them under the protecting care of the Government, and enables them to perform light military duty which has heretofore been performed by able bodied troops, who can be sent into the field into active service.

RAILROAD POLITICS.—The popularity of our Governor is becoming greater as the time approaches for the ballot-box to test the loyalty of the citizens of the old Keystone State .-Wednesday afternoon a vote was taken on the train of cars coming from Philadelphia, by a well known gent'ieman of this community. None but qualified voters were permitted to cast a vote, and the following is the result: 46 votes for Curtin, and 14 for Woodward. Two soldiers on the train remarked that they were distrapphical and the following is the result: 46 lightly respond to the train remarked that they were distrapphical and the following is the result: 46 lightly respond to the substitute will receive for his year's work $773, or $64 41 per month and $247 per day! PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862.
Messrs. Jones & Evans:—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my PAYABLE IN GOLD, UK III SHOT.

REMOT.

REMOT. Fares from Liverpool or Queenestown: 1st B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant Cabin, $75, $85, $105. Steerage from Liverpool, $40. From Queenestown, $30. Those vember last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days -in the hospital.
This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality.

For a week or more I was scarcely able to swal low anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread archer, frankly told me they could do no nore for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your bitters, and kind-ly procured a bottle. From the time I com-menced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my rosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.
We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
