COLD BLOODED MURDER OF A CHRISTIAN MINISTER.—The Rev. P. Glenn, a pious and devoted minister of the Lutheran Church, a Pennsylvania, of Indiana, was cruelly murdered, and his body burned to the ground on the 9th of July, by the followers of John Morgan, during their recent raid into the States of Indiana and Ohio.

The rebels first attacked and wounded Mr. Glenn's son very severely, and fearing they had killed him, they turned their attention to his father, who was lying under a tree, "I am also wounded," and expired in about fifteen minutes.

While the house was burning they would not permit Mrs. Glenn to take out anything but a small portion of clothing, and when robbing her smoke house they would not allow her to take a single ham or bar of soap, saying she was not worthy of them.

ATTENTION! SOLDIERS! WE call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOPER'S" German Bitters will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposure and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hooper's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters": PHILADELPHIA, August 22d, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans:—Well, gentlemen, your Hooper's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It isouch- ed for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated 11th Reg't, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not be maintained under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Stein- brown, of Sixth below Arch street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE. We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health. John Cuddeback, First New York Battery; George A. Aockley, Co. C, 11th Maine; Lewis Chevalier, 92d New York; J. E. Spencer, 1st Cavalry, Battery F; J. B. Fesswell, Co. B, 8d Vermont; Henry B. Jerome, Co. C, 6th Maine; John F. Ward, Co. E, 6th Maine; Hercules Koch, Co. H, 73d New York; Nathaniel B. Thomas, Co. F, 35th Penna.; Andrew J. Kimball, Co. A, 8d Vermont; John Jenkins, Co. B, 106th Penna.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS! See that the signature of "C. M. JACKSON" is on the wrapper of each bottle. Price per bottle, 75 cents, or half dozen for $4. Principal Office and Manufactory, No. 664 ARCH STREET. (Successor to O. M. Jackson & Co.) Proprietors.
