HARRISBURG, PA.

Wednesday Evening, August 26, 1863.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

MILITARY RELIEF FUND.—The regular monthly payment to soldiers' families, will be made on Friday afternoon, August 28th, at the Sheriff's Office, between the hours of four and six.

THAT PLEASANT.—A grand picnic is announced to come off at Hoffman's woods, on Saturday, August 29th, for the benefit of a well known and respectable citizen who was drafted by the "wheel of Slente" on the 11th inst.

THE PAMPHLET LAWS FOR 1863 have been delivered to the office of the Prothonotary, and are ready for distribution to those who are entitled to receive them.

EVERY MEMBER OF Advances Lodge No. 39, I. O. of G. T., is requested to attend the stated meeting this (Wednesday) evening.

DEATH OF A MINISTER.—Rev. Mr. Landis, pastor of the United Brethren congregation at Springfield, Lancaster county, died on Friday last, after an illness of three hours.

HAND INJURED.—Mr. Storey, conductor of a local freight train on the mountain division of the Pennsylvania railroad, had his hand badly crushed at Altoona, on Monday, while coupling two freight cars together.

A WELCOME CHANGE.—The extreme heat of the past few days has given way to a coolness that renders summer clothing uncomfortable. Last night and this morning were unusually cool.

POLICE REPORT.—Before Alderman Kline—William Bryson and Esther, his wife, Squire Howe, and John Bowen, all drunk, the first two in a beastly state, were arrested by officers Esig and Cline, and committed to prison, last evening.

MARKET.—At market, this morning, there was a fair supply of vegetables, which were generally offered at a moderate figure.

IMPROVED PRESERVE CAN.—Mr. George L. Black has just received a new lot of these celebrated self-sealing cans.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A young man, named John Keach, a fireman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was severely injured, internally, on Wednesday last, at Kittanning Point.

TWO EDITORS GONE.—The Mercersburg Journal announces the death of J. M. Bradley, Esq., one of its editors. His disease was typhoid fever, contracted while on a visit to Gettysburg, immediately after the great battle there.

WE are sorry to learn of the death of Samuel M'Elhose, Esq., editor of the Jefferson Star. He was among the first of those who went forth at the call of the Governor for State defence.

MARKET MASTER HAEHNLEN assures us (and his assurance is sustained by good citizens living in the neighborhood of the market houses) that the statement which appeared in the Torg Organ on Monday and this morning, in regard to the neglected condition of the butchers' stalls and blocks, as well as the general filthiness of the market houses, is without the shadow of truth to sustain it.

So far as our knowledge goes, we have always found Market Master Hachlen a careful, courteous and attentive officer. The property of which he has had charge, has been and still is made use of as a general rendezvous, daily and nightly, by straggling soldiers and idle civilians.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulents of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS! AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposure and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters." PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is touched off by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were very cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 25th of June. Since that time I have been working faithfully, and successfully, to resume me from the grasp of the dread archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a further hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To you, invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE. We rely on you in the truth of the above statement, as we had despairing of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
