

PLEGGED TO A SUPPORT OF THE GOVERNMENT - THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION - THE EXECUTION OF THE LAWS - THE SUPPRESSION OF THE REBELLION - THE TRIUMPH OF THE STARS AND STRIPES - AND A STRICT MAINTENANCE OF THE UNION.

FOR GOVERNOR, ANDREW G. CURTIN, OF OUNTER COUNTY.

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT, DANIEL AGNEW, OF BRAYES COUNTY.

HARRISBURG, PA.

Tuesday Evening, Sept. 1, 1868.

The Road Approaching - How to Hasten its Arrival.

The signs of the times indicate the approaching end of the armed portion of those engaged in rebellion, but of course the overthrow and defeat of those in arms is not all that is to be accomplished before the conspiracy has been crushed.

At the battle of Gettysburg, the conspirators in arms were not only vanquished - they were humiliated - they were taught the first great lesson of Northern force, valor and superiority.

Meade struck the rebellion through the brain. The Virginia army, shamed all that there was of genius and chivalry in rebellion, and from the hour that Lee received the Potomac in his flight before the victorious hosts of Meade, the rebel cause began to wane, its prestige to wither, because its brains had failed.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted. It was such encouragement which fired the Southern heart to perpetrate murders such as lately filled a village in Kansas with horror and mourning.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

powers as an Executive officer. It is an opinion elicited by the confessions of those who lead our armies, who plan their battles and win their victories, and when Major General Meade solemnly declared that the re-election of Andrew G. Curtin was one of the essentials to the success of the armies in the field, he meant that such a preference would constitute an expression of public opinion such as would teach the people of the rebellious that the citizens of the loyal States, were in earnest in their struggles to enforce the laws and sustain the National authority.

Here, then, we have the termination of this bloody war, partly in our own hands. A vote has as much influence in its glorious termination as a bullet, if that vote is cast for the proper candidate. Fathers can bring back their sons from the field of war, if they yield to patriotism and vote for Curtin. Here is the point - here is the great issue of the contest on which the people of Pennsylvania are now entering. The re-election of Andrew G. Curtin will hasten the termination of the war - HASTEN IT BY THE INDICATION OF THE NATIONAL AUTHORITY - HASTEN IT BY CONTRIBUTING TO THE COMPLETE OVERTHROW OF THE REBELLION.

Judge Woodward Endorsing Rebellion. In December, 1860, when the first evidence of the designs of the conspirators began to crop out in the proceedings of Congress, and when the country was filled with apprehensions as to the purposes of the slaveholders of the South - in that gloomy hour Justice Woodward uttered the following jesuitical and treasonable language:

"IT SEEMS TO ME THAT THERE MUST BE A TIME WHEN SLAVE-HOLDERS MAY FALL BACK ON THEIR NATURAL RIGHTS, AND EMPLOY, IN DEFENSE OF THEIR SLAVE PROPERTY, WHATEVER MEANS OF PROTECTION THEY POSSESS OR CAN COMMAND."

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted. It was such encouragement which fired the Southern heart to perpetrate murders such as lately filled a village in Kansas with horror and mourning.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

It seems to me that there must be a time when slaveholders may fall back on their natural rights, and employ, in defense of their slave property, whatever means of protection they possess or can command.

Justice Woodward was aware when he uttered the above language that he was affording encouragement to the conspirators then preparing for the bloody deeds which they have since enacted.

those in the North who would have the South believe that she has rights which deserve to be maintained by rebellion, and that slavery is an institution which should be spread to every State in the Union. But such is the difference between true Southern loyalty and pseudo Northern Democracy.

ELROT ANDREW G. CURTIN and you place in the Chief Magistracy of the State a man who is true to his interests and the Union - a man who has done his whole duty - whose heart is with his country, and against her enemies - whose action has ever been wise and patriotic, and whose principles are those of Washington.

Such a man as times of danger demand, and one in whom the people may trust as a leader, to whom the soldier may look as a friend. Keep him in the gubernatorial chair he fills so nobly, and you defeat the rebellion at the polls of Pennsylvania. We ask you, Democratic voters, what can you say against this Governor save that he is not your party candidate? Could you have a better man? Are you offered as good? Think of what Governor Curtin has done; of how well he has been tried, and answer if party politics shall lead you to oppose him.

RICH MINING REASONS. - Los Angeles, California, papers continue to publish flattering accounts from newly discovered mining regions, situated 150 miles east of Fort Mahons, and 100 miles north of the Gila river, in the region of counties watered by the San Joaquin, Salt, Puesto and St. Gaudin rivers. The mines extend over a region 160 miles long by 30 wide. Large numbers of miners are flocking thitherward from the southern counties of California. More than 500 wre at work three weeks ago. The steamer Silver Nevada arrived from the northern coast, bringing $177,000.

THE STATE OF ILLINOIS recently proffered a claim for about four hundred and seventy thousand dollars against the Government for ten per centum of the proceeds of the sales of all public lands in that State for road purposes.

Acting Secretary Otto has decided against the claim. This decision is also applicable to Ohio and Indiana, in similar cases.

The Secretary of the Navy will visit Philadelphia on his return from an inspection of the New York, Boston and Portsmouth navy yards.

GUERRILLAS IN KENTUCKY. - Louisville, Aug. 31. Bands of guerrillas from 100 to 200 strong have recently appeared in Clinton, Boone and Cumberland counties. On Saturday one band captured four of Woolford's cavalry at Albany. Small parties of guerrillas are reported in Trimble county.

The rebel General Preston is at Tazewell, Va., with seven regiments.

A party of guerrillas passed through Found Gap on Saturday.

ARRIVAL OF A STEAMER. - HALIFAX, Sept. 1. The Royal mail steamer Africa, from Liverpool, on the 22d ult., has been signalled and will arrive at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

ELAIN OF MARROW. - THE pure expressed oil of Beef Bone Marrow is for beautifying and strengthening the hair. Perfumed with Rose. Prepared and sold by S. A. KUNKEL, Apothecary, Harrisburg.

WATCHES, JEWELRY, AND SILVER-WARE. - THE undersigned would respectfully invite your attention to his well assorted stock of Fine Gold and Silver WATCHES, Fine Gold JEWELRY, of every kind and variety of styles - comprising all of the newest and most beautiful designs.

Also, SOLID SILVER WARE, equal to each and the best make of Silver Plated Ware. Each article is warranted to be as represented.

Watches and Jewelry carefully repaired and satisfaction guaranteed.

JACOB HARLEY, (Successor to Staylor & Harley), au31-d3m No. 622 Market street, Phila.

PICNIC. - THE CITIZEN FIRE COMPANY, WILL GIVE A GRAND PICNIC, ON SATURDAY, THE 12th OF SEPT. FOR THE Benefit of the Company.

TICKETS. - 25 cts. To be had of any of the Committee of Arrangements. G. W. DAVIS, Chairman. au30-dtd

CONGRESS HALL, CAPE MAY. - THE Public are respectfully informed that this First Class Hotel will continue open until the 20th of September. The Railroad is now completed from Philadelphia to this unequalled vacation place, and three trains run daily to and from Philadelphia. Accommodating terms for families at this House can be made on and after the 1st of September. au27-d2w MILLES & WEST, Proprietors.

Important to Letter Writers. - Post Office, Harrisburg, Aug. 28th, 1868. I have been instructed that all mail matter posted at this office, and addressed to any Executive Department, or to any officer therein, on which the postage is unpaid and which is not properly franked, shall be forwarded, with each weekly return of "Unmailable Letters," to the Dead Letter Office, in the mode prescribed on the latter part of page 8 of instructions published with act approved March 8, 1868. au28-d2w GEO. BEGNER, Postmaster.

DART-HOLLOW'S MANTEL, Price $1.25. - A Manual of Instruction for enlisting and discharging soldiers, with special reference to the detection of disqualifying and feigned diseases. Adopted by the Surgeon General. For sale by GEO. BEGNER. au28

City Ordinances.

AN ORDINANCE making an appropriation for the Construction of a Sewer in Verbeke street, and Authorizing a Loan to Meet said Appropriation.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of Harrisburg, That the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated for the construction of a sewer in Verbeke street, said sewer to be three feet six inches in diameter, to extend from the river Susquehanna to Elder street, and to be of the depth marked on the profile prepared by Hoher Hage, and approved by Council August 22d, 1868.

Sec. 2. That authority is hereby granted to said Council to borrow, on the credit of the city of Harrisburg, the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars, and issue certificates of loan, payable ten years after date, bearing interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, for the amount so borrowed, for the purpose of meeting the appropriation made by the first section of this ordinance: Provided, That said certificates shall not be disposed of for a less sum than their par value.

W. O. HICKOK, President Common Council. Passed Aug. 21, 1868. Attest - DAVID HARRIS, Clerk. Approved Aug. 21, 1868. A. L. ROUMFORD, Mayor.

AN ORDINANCE Authorizing a Loan to the Paxton Hose and Engine Company.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of Harrisburg, That said Council are hereby authorized to loan to the Paxton Hose and Engine Company, the sum of one thousand eight hundred dollars, to enable said company to erect a suitable house for their apparatus; said loan to be without interest, and to be secured by mortgage on the property of said company, so that in the event of the company being disbanded, or the property held by them being sold, the city may recover the amount loaned.

Sec. 2. That Council are hereby authorized to borrow, on the credit of the city, the sum of one thousand eight hundred dollars and issue certificates of loan payable ten years after date, bearing interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum, for the amount so borrowed, to provide for the loan authorized by the first section of this ordinance: Provided, That said certificates shall not be disposed of for a less sum than their par value.

W. O. HICKOK, President Common Council. Passed August 29, 1868. Attest - DAVID HARRIS, Clerk. Approved August 31, 1868. A. L. ROUMFORD, Mayor.

AN ORDINANCE Making an Appropriation for the Erection of a Truck House for the Mount Vernon Hook and Ladder Company and Authorizing a Loan to Meet said Appropriation.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of Harrisburg, That the sum of one thousand eight hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated for the erection of a truck house for the Mount Vernon Hook and Ladder Company, on the lot owned by the city on Elm street.

Sec. 2. That said Council are hereby authorized to borrow, on the credit of the city, the sum of one thousand eight hundred dollars and issue certificates of loan for the amount so borrowed, payable in ten years after date, bearing interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, for the purpose of meeting the appropriation made by the first section of this ordinance: Provided, That said certificates shall not be disposed of for a less sum than their par value.

W. O. HICKOK, President Common Council. Passed August 29, 1868. Attest - DAVID HARRIS, Clerk. Approved August 31, 1868. A. L. ROUMFORD, Mayor.

AN ORDINANCE Making an Appropriation for the Construction of a Sewer to North street, and Authorizing a Loan to Meet said Appropriation.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of Harrisburg, That the sum of four thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated for the construction of a sewer in North street; said sewer to be four feet in diameter, to extend from the west end of North street to Cowden street, and to be of the depth marked on the profile prepared by Hoher Hage, and approved by Council on the 15th of August, 1868.

Sec. 2. That authority is hereby granted to said Council to borrow, on the credit of the city of Harrisburg, the sum of four thousand dollars, and issue certificates of loan, payable ten years after date, bearing interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum, for the amount so borrowed, for the purpose of meeting the appropriation made by the first section of this ordinance: Provided, That said certificates shall not be disposed of for a less sum than their par value.

W. O. HICKOK, President Common Council. Passed Aug. 29, 1868. Attest - DAVID HARRIS, Clerk. Approved Aug. 31, 1868. A. L. ROUMFORD, Mayor.

AN ORDINANCE Making an Appropriation for the Construction of a Sewer to North street, and Authorizing a Loan to Meet said Appropriation.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of Harrisburg, That the sum of four thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated for the construction of a sewer in North street; said sewer to be four feet in diameter, to extend from the west end of North street to Cowden street, and to be of the depth marked on the profile prepared by Hoher Hage, and approved by Council on the 15th of August, 1868.

Sec. 2. That authority is hereby granted to said Council to borrow, on the credit of the city of Harrisburg, the sum of four thousand dollars, and issue certificates of loan, payable ten years after date, bearing interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum, for the amount so borrowed, for the purpose of meeting the appropriation made by the first section of this ordinance: Provided, That said certificates shall not be disposed of for a less sum than their par value.

W. O. HICKOK, President Common Council. Passed Aug. 29, 1868. Attest - DAVID HARRIS, Clerk. Approved Aug. 31, 1868. A. L. ROUMFORD, Mayor.

AN ORDINANCE Making an Appropriation for the Construction of a Sewer to North street, and Authorizing a Loan to Meet said Appropriation.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of Harrisburg, That the sum of four thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated for the construction of a sewer in North street; said sewer to be four feet in diameter, to extend from the west end of North street to Cowden street, and to be of the depth marked on the profile prepared by Hoher Hage, and approved by Council on the 15th of August, 1868.

Sec. 2. That authority is hereby granted to said Council to borrow, on the credit of the city of Harrisburg, the sum of four thousand dollars, and issue certificates of loan, payable ten years after date, bearing interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum, for the amount so borrowed, for the purpose of meeting the appropriation made by the first section of this ordinance: Provided, That said certificates shall not be disposed of for a less sum than their par value.