DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. NO MERCURY OR NOXIOUS DRUGS.

NO MERCURY OR NOXIOUS DRUGS.

Stemach or Bowels—those terrible disorder arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most bril-liant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Sci. might otherwise have entranced listening Son ates with the thunders of eloquence or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full MARRIAGE

He who places himself under the care of Dr J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as Physician.

ORGANIO WEAKNESS Immediately Cured, and full vigor restored.

This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the pen-alty paid by the victims of improper indulgence; Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful conse quences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that derstands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sconer by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent. Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental functions weakened, loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, a wasting of the frame, ceugh, consumption, decay and death.

DR. JOHNBON. Member of the Boyal College of Surgeons, London, graduate from one of the most eminent colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospi-tals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and else-where, has effected some of the most astonishing. cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when selesp, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind were cared immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, via: weakness of the back and limbs, pains in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, most necessary requisites to promote compulsal happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage: the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an illtimed sense of shaule or the dread of discussions of the dread of discussions of the dread of discussions of the descriptions of these whole in the sense of the description of t covery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, filch his pecuniary substance, keep him triffing month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained. the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with ruined health to sigh over his galling disappointment, or, by the use of the deadly poison, Mercury, hasten the constitution tional symptoms of this terrible disease, such as affections of the Head, Throat, Nose, Skin, etc. progressing with frightful rapidity till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by send-ing him to that undiscovered country from whence no traveller returns. INDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS. The many thousands cured at this institution year after year, and the numerous important surgical operations performed by Driviolands, witnessed by the reporters of the Sun; Clopes, and many other papers, notices of which have appeared again and again tefore the oublic, besides his standing as a gentleman of changing and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee the afficted.

His name and his fame will be immortal with the name and fame of the American Union—and while free-dom has a friend on God's footstool, Abraham

Curtin Governor of the State of Pennsylvania, an offi-cer who has been true to his trust, devoted in the discharge of his official duty, and faithful to the National Uniou, in the hour of its peril. In every act and purpose of his administration he has had but one object in view, the rescue of his Country from dauger, and the restora-tion of the distracted Union to peace and pros-perity. From the hour that the first of trea-son was fluing from the ramparts of Fort Sum-ter to the moment when its dark folds sank beneath the angry force of avenging war amid the billows of the ocean, Andrew G. Cartin has been unflinching in his allegiance, un-daunted in his devotion, and unwearled in his efforts to contribute to the suppression of the rebellion. We have sympat and accounts and efforts to contribute to the suppression of the rebellion. He has armed and equipped, and sent into the field more men than any other loyal Governor in the Union—he has been vigilant in maintaining the rights and securing the honor of the fighting men of Pennsylvania—he has sacredly attended to the burial of the dead and faithfully secured the succor of the wounded heroes of the State. In his hands the local interests of Pennsylvania have been enhanced in value and increased in importance. His re nomination was alike a tribute to his success as an Executive officer, and an acknowledgment of the success he will be certain to schieve as the Gubernatorial candidate of a proud, powerful and loyal people.

Dr. J. K. Reid, of this place, whose nephew, Lieutenant James A. Carman, of the 107th Pennsylvania Volunteers, was captured at Get-tysburg, and is now in Libby Prison, Rich-mond, addressed a letter to the rebel commissioner of exchange of prisoners, Robert Ould, asking permission to send clothing to his relative, and also to our citizen prisoners from this place. The letter was forwardeed through Gen. S. A. Meredith, the Union Commissioner, who has returned Dr. Reid's letter with this endorsement by Mr. Culd: "Respectfully returned to Brigadier General Meredith, Agent of Exchange. The clothing named in the written communication will be received and delivered to the parties named." This opens the way for our citizens to be supplied with such articles as are necessary for their comfort. Gen. Meredith has written Dr. Reid that he will recieve and promptly forward to Mr. Ould any articles sent for the prisoners, and Dr. R-id will receive and forward any articles furnished him by the friends of any of our sufferers in Richmond. Of course nothing but articles of ac ual necessity should be sent, for they would hardly be delivered.

GEN MEADE is a Philadelphian, says The North Imerican. His family resides here. His sons have been drafted here. He is a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and his family holds a pew, where it has long been in regular attendance, in St. Mark's Church. General Meade's relations in life, as regards politics, have ever been Whig. His family were all Whigs, and though opposed to the Auti Slavery agitation before the war broke out, the General has since become an earnest supporter of the whole war policy of the National Administra-tion, like Burnside, Grant, Rosecrans, and other conservatives.

"ONE WORD MORE."—A clerk in the dead letter office, of an inquiring mind, was curious to find out how many letters were written with out a postscript. One day last week he found that out of six thousand eight hundred and fifty letters written by females, only three hundred. dred and seventy-five were without postcripts. Some of the other letters contained three.

Yours ever, Lieut. Col. Lewis. They left Williamsburg on the 26th inst., and pushed through New Kent Court House directly to Bottom's Bridge. Court House directly to Bottom's Bridge.

At the latter place they found one regiment of infantry in rifle-pits, supported by a squadron of cavalry. A charge was immediately made, which carried the rifle-pits, and drove the enemy across the bridge, which they took up behind them... Our troops lost one killed and one wounded. They captured five prisoners from the enemy, who left dead on the ground one officer, one sergernt and two men, be sides what they carried off. The bridge being rendered impassable, and the object of the expedition being entirely accomplished, the troops returned with much valuable information of the enemy's force and movements in the vicinity of Rich-
