BUSH MESTING -A religious meeting, usually called a "bush meeting," has been in progress ling their palates with morsels of delicate larduring the last week or more, in the neighbor- uries, lading the atmosphere around them with hood of Fox's School House. It was under the rich perfume, shedding upon them smiles, and direction of the Evangelical denomination - breathing into their ears words of lofty admi-The attendance was large, and the exercises solemn and impressive.

HOUSE BURNED .--- The house of Mr. Wallmer, in East Hanover township, was entirely destroved by fire, one night last week. It seems that the family had retired to rest as usual, in Whe evening, but were suddenly aroused by the fire during the night, to find the building enfortunately, escaped, but the house was entirely known how the fire originated, but is supposed that it was from a stove used for cooking in an adjoining building.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY ITEMS .- Mahlon Barlow a merchant of Limerick township, was found, dead, on the premises of a neighbor, on Monday. He had been missing several days. The body was in an advanced stage of decomposition.

On Tuesday, two young men of Norristown were tossing cinders at each other, in sport,when one of them, Alfred Seely, was struck behind the ear, and died almost instantly.
