citizen of Westmoreland county, that the dis tinguished and able gentleman whose name heads this paragraph, the Senator from Pennsylvania, is actively engaged in urging the election of Curtin and Agnew. It is the intention of Senator Cowan to enter on the canvass in various parts of the Commonwealth, and with all the force of his powerful ability, contribute to the triumph of his loyal friends at the coming election. We accept this as a happy omen for the success of our cause, because few men in the State can wield a greater influence by the force of intellect than Senator Cowan. He is decidedly one of the most effective public speakers in the country-an orator, who is not excelled in the Unich.

-We trust that while Senator Cowan is traversing the State, arrangements will be made to secure his presence in Harrisburg, where he has many warm friends and admirers.

A STRIKING FACT -Notwithstanding the professed Democrats of the loyal States, who, for the sake of getting into office at home, oppose nearly every act of the administration, and particularly any measure touching the negroes, which would have been in former times obnox. ious to their masters of the S'uth, (for Calhoun said in so many words that the South ruled through these men,) the most eminent of the old Democratic party, and nearly every one of that rank and file, whether they were, Douglas or Breckinridge Democrats, who started from home in the army, and have struck the heaviest blows of the war, notwithstanding their former opinions about slavery, and their desire to close the war without distuibing the status of that institution, are now satisfied that slavery must be put out of the way in order effectually to cure the evil which it has
