NORTH WARD SCHOOL.—This school will open on Monday next, in the Sons of Temperance Hall, on Second street, under charge of Mr. Geo. Kuhn.

ANOTHER FALSE ALARM.—There was another false alarm of fire last evening. We cannot see what is to be gained by any one in getting up the cry of "Fire" when there is no fire. An example should be made of some person.

It is reported that ten substitutes left the arsenal in Meadville rather abruptly, on Friday night. They had been put there for safe keeping, and being mostly from Canada, didn't, we suppose, like the "air" of the building.

DEATH OF A PAINTER.—The Hanover Spectator says that Father Dougherty died at Conewago Chapel, at the advanced age of seventy-two years. His remains were interred in a cave under the chapel.

ARE OUR FIREMEN going to the grand tournament at Detroit? It will take place on the 8th and 9th of October. Prizes to the amount of nearly $1,000 will be distributed. Firemen will be carried at half fare over the railroads. The tournament is gotten up by firemen for firemen.

MEETING OF THE GERMAN PRESS.—There will be a meeting of the "Association of the German Press, of Pennsylvania," at Allentown, on Thursday, September 10th, to which the German editors, printers and publishers, together with German teachers, are invited.

CRAWFORD COUNTY.—A brakeman named Hicks was killed at Franklin on Saturday morning. He fell between the cars, and several of them passed over him.

A son of Thos. S. Minnis, of Conneautville, was shot through the shoulder by a German named Martin. The ball had not been extracted at last accounts.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY.—George Tarman, son of Mr. George Tarman, of Shippingsburg, was killed at the ore banks at Graysonville, on Wednesday last. The lad was engaged in carting ore to a large trough in which it was washed when he accidentally fell in and was killed almost instantly by being crushed beneath the revolving cylinder. He was about 14 years old.

Five persons were sentenced to the Eastern Penitentiary, at the last term of Court.

PICKETS AT LARGE.—Wm. Morris, Charles Moran and Charles Morrison, who were arrested at the Lebanon Valley depot, by Sheriff Boas and W. W. Boyer, on the charge of picking the pocket of Mr. Boyer, and against whom a true bill was found at the last court, were released from prison a few days since by entering bail in the sum of three thousand dollars to be and appear at the next court of quarter sessions, to take their trial. Patrick Ryan, a tavern keeper somewhere near the canal, went curly for the same. We fear this is the last the public will hear of their trial in this court. We hear it intimated that several notorious characters were here for the purpose of procuring bail for these men, and that it is the practice among them of procuring some one to bail their associates in crime whilst they deposit the money with the man who furnishes the bail. In case the bail should be sued out the man is perfectly safe, but if nothing is said about it, as is often the case, the fund is divided between the crowd. We hope our County Commissioners will keep an eye on the forfeited recognizance and have the same promptly collected. It is time that these men who are in the habit of bailing criminals should pay up.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Before Alderman Kline.—William Karriche, was brought up on a charge of assault and battery, on oath of Barney Campbell. Defendant was bound over for appearance at Court.

George Brown, arrested for obtaining a silver watch under false pretences, from Daniel Erb, of Cumberland county, in the year 1862, was before the Alderman. Brown paid $20, the value of the watch, and was released.

John Mitchell, arrested by Officer Loyd, and John Gebinger, arrested by Officer Costello, were both under the influence of spirits. They were discharged this morning, after occupying the lock-up a few hours.

Police items are scarce to-day, but we expect to have a large number of "drunks" to announce on Monday. To-morrow will doubtless witness the arrest of numerous animated vessels brim-full of corn juice.

Whisky is sold in this city on Sunday.

THE CLEANLINESS OF THE HARRISBURG BUTCHERS.—Mayor Rounfort's Failure to Prove their Filthiness.—The hearing had before Alderman Kline, of the butchers of Harrisburg, in regard to the cleanliness of the stalls and blocks, has proven, as we predicted it would prove, a perfect failure. Yesterday, the great majority of the butchers appeared, and after a hearing of many of the cases, the character of the evidence was such as to force His Honor, Mayor Rounfort, to apologise to the butchers for the proceedings as far as they had gone, and to attempt to shirk his part of the dirty consequences, by asserting that he was the friend of the butchers. Complimentary, truly! as his is a friendship which partakes of the stalling-in-the-back quality which few men know how to appreciate. After finding that the testimony was too weak to justify the imposition of a fine, it was whispered that if the butchers would pay the costs of the prosecution, the fine would not be imposed. This the butchers indignantly refused to do, urging that if they were guilty of a wrong they wanted no compromise, but were ready to submit to all the penalties which the law inflicts for such offenses.

In the course of the evidence it came out that the police neglect their duty, by suffering the market houses to be occupied by loafers, drunkards and even prostitutes at all hours of the night and day—and that one of the gas metres was in a condition by which much gas is wasted and a stench created which is alike obnoxious and injurious to the health and the business of the market people. This is a matter which belongs to the city authorities, and it would have been to the credit of those in authority, had a remedy been applied to this neglect before complaint was made of violations of the law which do not exist.

This subject has produced much ill-feeling among the butchers—and as they consider themselves aggrieved we consent to publish the following caustic communication written by one of our most intelligent vigilantes:

WHO'LL PAY TO KEEP THE BUTCHERS' BLOCKS CLEAN?
Editor of the Telegraph.—As Mayor Rounfort is so anxious to secure the cleanliness of the Market houses, butchers' blocks and stalls, may I ask whether there is any money left of the large sum collected to receive the 127th regiment, which could be applied to secure this purpose.

I would also ask if there is any truth in the assertion, as was intimated in "High official circles," that had it not been for the fact of a majority of the butchers being Democrats, this matter of the dirty stalls would not have been dropped so easily?

These are questions for the people, and do not concern me, as I am

A CLEAN BY POHNER.

A Western paper says that a cavalry Colonel incites his men to the following order: First order—Prepare for fight into yer creeters. Second order—Git!

New Music.—"Mother would comfort me," "Meet me to-night," "Just before the battle, mother," "I know my mother weeps for me"; all beautiful ballads; also, "How are you telegraph," "Babylon is fallen"—answer to "Kingdom Comin'"—two comic songs, just received, at W. Knoche's music store.

Many think the draft a "bat egg," but when we consider that lots of young men who never did anything in their lives but loaf around corner groceries and "keep bread from moulding," have through it become "the only support of aged and infirm parents," we are constrained to take another view of the subject.

It is suggested that prior to the election, the Provost Marshal prepare lists of all skeddaddlers from the draft, and all persons claiming exemption on the ground that they are aliens. Many of the latter class have voted for years, and consequently owe the State service in the penitentiary, even if they do not owe the federal government service in the field.

RELIGIOUS.—Free Baptist Church.—In consequence of the absence of the pastor, there will be no preaching in the Free Baptist chapel to-morrow morning and evening. Sabbath school in the afternoon, at the usual hour.

Presbyterian Church, (O. S.)—Services will be resumed in the O. S. Presbyterian Church, to-morrow morning and evening, at the usual hour.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—In addition to the names of contributors to Camp Curtin Hospital, in our paper of the 3d inst., the following have since been handed in by the ladies visiting there:

Mrs. Griffith, Mrs. Dr. Orth, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. G. Vaughn, Mrs. M. Young, home made bread Mrs. R. J. Fleming, Mrs. Jacob Miller, Mrs. Hess, puddings and corn starch; Mrs. Charles Bailey, Mrs. C. Dohart, Mrs. J. Updegrave, Mrs. Thomas, for butter, eggs, rolls and dried beef; Mrs. Riley, cheese; Mrs. Wolfinger, potatoes; Mrs. Youngling, tomatoes; Mr. John Miller, basket of apples; Mr. Harper, milk.

INSTALLATION SERVICES.—The Rev. W. C. Ferriday was formally installed last night as pastor of the Presbyterian church in Middletown. By appointment of Presbytery, the Rev. Mr. Cattell, of this city, presided and preached the sermon. The Rev. Mr. Mitchell, of Paxton, delivered the charge to the pastor. The services were very interesting, and drew together a large audience. The call for the Rev. Ferriday's services on the part of the congregation, was not only unanimous, but most cordial, and we congratulate them in having secured a pastor who, to the gentlemanly qualities which adorn his character, possesses also the piety, learning and eloquence which will make him eminently successful in his sacred calling.

RICH SORE ON A RAILROAD TRAIN.—An affair worthy of notice occurred yesterday on the train between Baltimore and this city. A number of soldiers were on board the train. Two of them wore blouses of a different color from those worn by the rest. An old copperhead from those worn by the rest, and supposed them to be "Southern brethren." He approached them and entered into a conversation something like the following:

Copperhead—"You gentlemen do not belong to this party of soldiers?"
Soldiers—"No, sir."
Copperhead—"Do you belong to the Southern Confederacy?"
Soldiers—"Yes, sir."
Copperhead—"Have you any money?"
Soldiers—"No, sir."
Copperhead—"Have you no Confederate money?"
Soldiers—"No, sir; we lost everything when captured by the Yankees."
Copperhead—(giving each of them a five-dollar bill), "It is a pity that gentlemen engaged in a good cause should be robbed of everything."
After this generous act on the part of the old man, he asked "What State in the Confederacy do you belong to?"
Soldiers—"From the State of Maine."
Copperhead "slammered down," and left the train before it had fairly stopped at Hanover Junction.

TO HORSE OWNERS.
DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT FOR HORSES is unrivaled by any, and in all cases of Lameness arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scatches, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily. Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horses to travel with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless. So advertisement. aug19-dawew
