THE BATTLE GROUND AT GETTYSBURG. -- Purchase of Interesting Portions Thereof .- A Noble Un- Hurber, Miss Ellen deriaking. — D. McConaughy, Esq., President of the Evergreen Cemetery Association at Get-Henry, Miss Mary JaneVenphas, Miss Matilda tysburg, has purchased some of the most promi- Hoke, Miss Sarah nent portions of the battle ground which witnessed the defeat of the rebel invaders, and proposes, by the assistance of the public, to preserve them in precisely the condition they Hall, Mrs Mary were in at the close of the battle. The fo lowing card of Mr. McC. explains the movement, and each reader can consider it as addressed to Johnston, Mrs Rebec himself:

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Sept. 1, 1863. Immediately after the battle of Gattysburg Kelly, Miss Margaret Williams, Miss Amelia the thought occurred to me that there could be Keister, Miss Louisa Williams, Miss Harrier no more fitting and expressive memorial of the heroic valor and signal triumphs of our army on the 1st, 2d and 3d days of July, 1863, than the battle field itself, with its natural and artificial defences preserved and perpetuated in the exact form and condition they presented during Alberston, Capt

Acting at once upon this idea, I commenced negotiations and have secured the purchase of Aughdot, Jacob H some of the most striking and interesting por- Alberson, G tions of the battle ground, embracing among tions of the battle ground, embrang among Armstrong, wm w these the heights of Cemetery Hill on the centre, which resisted the fiercest assaults of the enemy; the granite speer of Round Top on the left, with its massive rocks and wonderful stone de-backer, Capt Jacob with its massive rocks and wongerium sound to fences constructed by the Pennsylvania Reserves, and the timber breast-works on the serves, and the timber breast-works on the Berco, E. Bell, Wm. right, extending for a mile upon the wooded helphis of Wolr Hill, whose trees exhibit the Bence, Geo W fearful effect of our musketry fire. Other por-tions of the field can also be secured.

In pursuance of the original purpose, I now propose to the patriotic citizens of Pennsylvania to unite with me in the tenure of the sacred grounds of this battle field at their actual cost. In order that all may participate who desire. the amount of a single share will be limited to Bowman. Peter ten dollars.

Committees may be named in the cities and large towns throughout the State, to whom reference and application can be made. It is in contemplation to procure an act of in-corporation from the Legislature granting powers similar to those of a monument association. I respectfully submit the subject to your consideration, and should it meet the approval of vour judgment. invite your active co-operation od influence, with your subscription to the batcle field fund. It is not designed to limit the number of shares which any citizen may subscribe, as the more generous the fund the more liberal the bounds of this sacred patrimony which it is proposed to perpetuate.

With sentiments of esteem, Yours truly D. McCONAUGHY.
