HARRISBURG, PA.

Thursday Evening, Sept. 10, 1868.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

MASS MEETING.

A MASS MEETING of the citizens of Harrisburg and the surrounding country, will be held in the Court House, in the city of Harrisburg, on MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 12, 1868.

Able speakers at home and from abroad will address the meeting. All the loyal citizens are invited to attend.

CIRCULATING among the faithful—the anti-war-Woodward candidates.

WHY is a minister like a locomotive?—We have to look out for him when the bell rings.

ARE YOU ASSESSED?—See to it in time. You ought to be assessed at least ten days before the day of election. Attend to this matter promptly.

CORNER STONE LAYING.—The corner stone of the Odd Fellows' hall at Coalmont, Huntingdon county, will be laid, with appropriate ceremonies, on Tuesday, the 15th inst.

A GOOD IDEA.—The young ladies of Huntingdon county are keeping a list of the single drafted men, and noting down the reports of the Examining Board. The Globe says they want to select sound husbands.

FURNISHED A SUBSTITUTE.—In the list of examinations in the Third ward, the case of Eonj. F. Bowman was published as having been postponed. Mr. B. desires us to state that he furnished a substitute before the list was published.

CAPT. W. HARVEY BROWN, of the U. S. Army, was in this city yesterday, on semi-official business. Capt. Brown has been in command of the 18th regulars for some time, a regiment which has suffered severely in loss, and which has done as gallant and as effective service as any organization in the field. Capt. Brown is in excellent health.

ACCIDENT.—An accident occurred at Saxton on the 8th ult., on the Broad Top railroad. Mr. John Taylor, a miner, of Coalmont, in attempting to get on a train of cars had one of his legs smashed so badly that amputation had to be resorted to. The operation was performed by Doctors Kelly and Roberts. Mr. Taylor is now doing well.

A PRONOUN.—There is a young man in Lewisburg, Pa., who is the prince of radicals in all sorts of pleasure going, who has tended a bar for several years and presided over a drinking saloon for some time, yet who never smoked a cigar or pipe, and never drank a drop of intoxicating liquors, ale, or strong beer during his life.

CONCEPTS may be seen from "early morn till dewy eve," besieging the entrance to the Provost Marshal's office, anxious to learn their fate as regards exemption or an order to don a blue suit or procure a substitute. The work of examining candidates for admission into our glorious army goes on slowly, very particular is Uncle Sam as to who he takes; and many are turned away as unworthy of his rations and greenbacks.

WHEN THOSE ABOUT THE Try Organ office indicate communications concerning the indignation of "Ever a Union Lady" on the subject of the conduct of the she-socials in the hospitals, they should at least instruct the "devil" to be careful when he sweeps the composing room, not to cast loose MSS. into the street, to be picked up and detected as the handwriting of a male instead of a female Copperhead. Thus "Ever a Union Lady" is unraveled by one of those simple accidents with which the Ruler of Truth sometimes exposes hypocrisy.

YESTERDAY a couple of drunken soldiers passed this office under guard. They belong to our hospitals and are not sufficiently recovered from their wounds to return to their regiments. Who sold the liquor to these soldiers? is a question we would like to hear answered. Is there a tavern keeper or lager vender in Harrisburg who is so lost to all sense of honor or manliness as to be guilty of selling liquor to sick soldiers until they become intoxicated? Such men are a disgrace to the community, and should be severely punished. Whilst the good Samaritans of the city are attending to the wants of our soldiers in the hospitals, there are others who are the means of degrading them, by imparting the intoxicating draught.

MR. B. P. HAMILTON, the world-renowned horse tamer, has won a good name in our midst. He has done a noble deed, by which many of our sick and wounded soldiers will be benefited, and for which he will receive their hearty thanks. The entertainment given in Brant's Hall, last night, was a perfect success. The hall was crowded by an intelligent and respectable audience, who witnessed the performance with entire satisfaction. The Fielding troupe acquitted themselves handsomely, and Mr. Hamilton with his ponies—the smallest in the world—won the admiration of the audience. The ponies are thoroughly trained, and perform numerous wonderful feats. Financially speaking, the entertainment was also successful, even beyond the expectation of those directly interested in it. Mr. Hamilton, the manager, has shown us the receipt of the hospital physician, for ninety-one dollars, the net profits of the evening. This is sufficient evidence to convince all that Mr. Hamilton has acted honorably, and we feel assured that he will not be forgotten by the soldiers of Cotton Factory Hospital. He deserves their thanks for his untiring efforts to render the entertainment profitable to them and interesting to the public.

It is said that a piece of brown paper folded and placed between the upper lip and gum will stop bleeding of the nose. A very simple remedy.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Samuel Roudenbush, a respectable citizen of Haycock, Bucks county, was found dead in his bed, at his residence, on Tuesday morning. It is supposed he died of apoplexy.

THE WOUNDED AT GETTYSBURG.—About fourteen hundred wounded are still in the Gettysburg hospitals, mostly compound fractures. It is expected that all of the patients will be removed to other hospitals during the present month, and the hospitals at Gettysburg closed.

ONE of the editors of the Cataraugus Freeman, having been drafted, sings: Why should we mourn conscripted friends, Or shake at Draft's alarms? 'Tis but the voice that Abram sends To make us shoulder arms!

TO BE CLOSED FOR REPAIRS.—The State Capitol Hotel, corner of Third and Walnut streets, will be closed on Saturday next. The new proprietor, Mr. G. W. Thompson, designs thoroughly repairing and refitting the hotel, besides rebuilding a portion of it. It is expected that it will be re-opened in about two months.

PAYMENT OF THE EMERGENCY MEN.—It will be gratifying to those interested to learn that the form of approved roll for the payment of the Pennsylvania militia called into service by the proclamation of the Governor in September last, is in the State Printer's hands, and will be ready for transmission to the Commanding Officers early next week.

POSTPONEMENT OF EXAMINATIONS.—The drafted men of Middleburg will report to the Board of Enrollment on Thursday, September 17th, instead of Monday, 14th, as heretofore appointed; those of Londonderry will appear on the 14th, as notified; those of Lower Paxton will report on Friday, 18th, instead of the 15th; those of Lower Swatara on Saturday, 19th, instead of the 16th.

HIGH PRICES OF PROVISIONS.—A meeting of the citizens of Washington has been held for the purpose of devising some measures for reducing the prices of all commodities brought into the city market. Some measure of this kind is said to be needed to relieve the people of the exorbitant prices they have to pay for all articles of consumption. It would not be a bad idea to call a public meeting in this city, to devise a plan to secure the result at which the consumers in the Federal Capital aim, because if the people of any locality are imposed upon by the high prices of what they consume, it is the citizens of Harrisburg.

THE word "canteen" has had a curious history. It is perhaps the only word in our language, which, originally English, passed into a foreign tongue, and was afterwards taken back in a modified form. As originally spoken by the Saxon it was simply tin can, but the Gaul, as is his wont, placing the noun before the adjective and pronouncing the letter i as a, brought it out as cantin, pronouncing cantin. Adopting a thousand other French military terms, the dull Englishman took back his own original word in a new shape, without any inquiries on the subject, and hence we now say canteen instead of tin can.

PLACE OF HOLDING ELECTIONS IN THE SIXTH WARD.—Since the destruction of the West Harrisburg school house by fire, the elections of the Sixth ward have been put to considerable trouble in erecting at various times a temporary shed upon the site of the late school house, to meet the requirements of the law, "that the elections should be held at the school house." The difficulty was lately brought to the notice of the Court, and it was ordered that an election be held at the public house of Vincent Orsinger on Saturday, the 19th September, to determine where the elections in future are to be held. We understand that the new market house has been proposed as a suitable place, it being a building of a public character, enclosed, of easy access, large and commodious, and will possess every convenience to enable the citizens of the ward to conduct their elections in a proper manner. It will be finished sufficiently to hold the fall election.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Before Alderman Kline.—Anthony Hite and Thomas Hite, arrested by officers Esig and Kane, were before the Alderman this morning, for drunkenness. Discharged. William Davis and Benjamin Williams—the one a soldier of the patrol guard, and the other a minor—were arrested by Chief of Police Campbell, charged with stealing an English revolver from the store of Henry Gilbert. Davis first purchased a pistol at the store, and afterwards returned with Williams, who examined a number of "shooters," without purchasing. After they left the store, it was discovered that a revolver was missing. Barney arrested one of them last evening, and the other this morning. It is supposed they exchanged pistols, as Davis had the stolen piece in his possession when arrested, and Williams had the one purchased by Davis. Both men were committed to prison. Catharine Little, whose arrest was noticed on Tuesday, promised to go home when she was discharged. That promise appears to have been forgotten, for Barney Campbell arrested her today, we believe in the company of a "gentleman of color." Catharine is in possession of a very black eye, which she doubtless received while in a state of intoxication. She is a very degraded creature, apparently lost to all sense of shame. This afternoon she was before the Alderman, when she stated that she was unable to go home, for want of funds and clothes. From her statement it appears that she was born in Harrisburg, was raised at Kingston, Luzerne county, but lived latterly in Wilkesbarre, and that her husband, to whom she was married some fifteen years ago, is in the army. Barney testified that she used the most unbecoming language on the streets when being escorted to the lock-up, and whilst before the Alderman she gave evidence of possessing a deplorably evil temper. The Alderman committed her for ten days.

MIFFLIN COUNTY.—The following chapter of accidents, &c., we clip from the Lewistown Gazette of yesterday:

We were pained to hear that Wm. Miller, son of the water station tender at Lewistown, was so seriously injured at his left arm while coupling cars at Tyrone on Tuesday last week, that amputation above the elbow was rendered necessary. He is a sober, steady and industrious young man, with a wife and three young children, and as there is good ground for believing that he sustained this heavy loss through the carelessness of another employee of the company, the managers should place him in a position where pecuniary amends might in part make up for it.

On Thursday night last, Samuel Davis, after returning from town to his residence in Derry township, was about getting hay from the mow for his horse, he came against an unhooked door, used to put hay to the loft from the outside, and fell out backward, a distance of about fifteen feet, receiving injuries to such an extent that he died yesterday morning. He leaves a wife and six children. He was a steady and industrious young man, with a wife and three young children, and as there is good ground for believing that he sustained this heavy loss through the carelessness of another employee of the company, the managers should place him in a position where pecuniary amends might in part make up for it.

A son of David C. Miller, of Armagh township, we hear was severely hurt by a stone thrown at him by a copperhead scoundrel at Centre Hill, Centre Co. There was quite a disturbance there last week, about fifty of J. F. Davis's northern slaves having shown their courage by attacking an old man who rebuked their treason. John Sterrett, who for many years played an important part in milling, grain banking and other business, died at the residence of N. W. Sterrett, in Armagh township, on the 26th of August, aged about sixty five years.

Special Notices.

PONTO IN SPORTING GREEN.—The suspicious morning of Saturday last (Sept. 5th) was not heralded by the booming of cannon or the rural quiet of Hoguestown disturbed by the martial tread of armed soldiers. But all nature, as if to compensate for the light and loss of property attendant upon the recent rebel raid into Cumberland Valley, put on her brightest smiles to welcome a large number of Cumberland's fair daughters and sons, who assembled at Sporting Green on Saturday last, for the purpose of a picnic. The hours flew by on angel wings, and our desirably popular salesman, Peter Brindle, says that there was a good time generally, and long will the picnic at Sporting Green be remembered by the humble representative of O. L. BOWMAN'S cheap dry goods store, No. 1, south-east corner of Front and Market streets, Harrisburg, Penna. ad 22
