POLICE AFFAIRS .- "Order Reigns in Warsaw." For the first time within a month, the transactions at the different police stations were devoid of interest or excitement. Not a single arrest for drunkenness or disorderly conduct was made up to the hour of our going to press, to-day. We cannot account for the unusually quiet condition of the city, to day, in any other way than by the fact, that the "roughs," "shoulder hitters," "plugs," and this ilk, are all absent participating in the orgies of the copperhead convocation in Lancaster city. The early train, this morning, took a lame delegation of these to our sister city, where they are no doubt hugely enjoying themselves, listening to slanders against the Government, or examining plans for the disfranchisement of the heroic defenders of the Union and the Constitution.

THE DRAFT IN PENNSYLVANIA .- Capt. W. B. Lane, of the Third U. S. Cavalry, and Disbursing Officer, at No. 1102 Girard street, Philadelphia, has received from the War Department a 1 demijohn of whisky; Soldiers' Relief Society portion of the acounts pertaining to the Draft of the O S Presbyterian church of Harrisburg, for 1862, for the following named counties, viz.

At Camp Curtin there is now only a one day soup, another vegetables, another fruit and another home-made bread and butter—so that all might fare alike; besides which wines cordials and other things were provided for such men as were too ill to be fed indiscriminately. Two young ladies were appointed to receive these articles at our room, while from four to six ladies were required to accompany and dispense them through the hospitals at Camp Curtin. There were at this time several hundred sick and wounded men here; so it will Sentinel, who was recently fined $20 for exposing the various characters in the copperhead mena gerie of that county, says "he intends to quit firing solid shot, and take to shooting Greek fire," as he believes the rascals deserve it. If all the letters which have been received here by different members of the association, from grateful soldiers and their friends in every State of the Union, could be published, a long record of gratitude would appear. But that is not necessary. Our own hearts and consciences assure us that we have striven and are now striving to do our duty, and that is enough. I must not neglect, how ever, here to say, that long before the "Union Belief Association" was formed, Soldiers' Aid Societies existed in several if not all our churche whence much efficient aid emanated.
