A SPEECH FROM A LOYAL DEMOCRAT. Maj General Butler in the State Capital, To Talk in Favor of the United States, And Against our Copperhead Enemy.

It is now positively fixed that Major General Benjamin F. Butler, one of the leaders of the old Democratic party, and one of the most earnest and intrepid prosecutors of the war against rebellion, will address the people of Dauphin and the adjoining counties,

This Evening, in the City of Harrisburg, Although this announcement is hastily made, and the time afforded for the assembly of our fellow-citizens is short, we anticipate for
