The soldiers appeal to us to stand firm a home, while they crush the rebel armies in the field; and as there is scarcely a Union family but is represented in the army, this appea comes with unusual force.

Let Union men be up and doing; organizeorganize thoroughly; meet the Copperheads fairly when they act with fairness, and prevent their attempts at fraud, by exposing their designs, and securing a fair election.

The issue is made up; there can be n evasion; no hypocritical pretences; there are only patriots and traitors in the campaign. The War Democrats and the Unionists have arrayed themselves unequivocally on the side of the Government; the Copperhends on the side of the traitors. They must receive such a rebuke as will teach them that their treason cannot be practiced with impunity.

Lost-A Candidate.

The public must have noticed that the name of the copperhead nominee for Senator has suddenly disappeared from the various organs of that delectable clique throughout this district. This is a strange affair, when it is conthict. In one sense, it was a piece of folly to nominate a candidate to run against David Fleming, as he, armed with the glorious principles which make up our platform, and clothed in the character of a pure and high-minded man, is invincible, and will be elected by an overwhelming majority! But since the copcerheads did nominate, it was a scurvy trick in the nomicee to leave them alone in their misery by declining the honor.

WAGES FOR LABOR.

Admonitions for the Workingman

Parties may change, and even the professions of statesmen may be changed, but the influence of principle remains the same, whether it be for good or evil. Whatever may be the policy of a political party, those to be affected, are still the same. ARREST FOR DESERTION AN INTERESTING CASE

Bosron, Sept. 22. Samuel L. Crocker, Jr., a member of the Suf olk bar, has been arrested for desertion, he having been drafted and paroled to report in due form to the Board of Enrollment of the Third district.

When Mr. Crocker was notified to appear a the headquarters of the Provost Marshal, he went there with a substitute, but because he efused to comply with what he considered the improper exactions of the Provost Marshal, the substitute he presented was not accepted.

This provoked Mr. Crocker, and he appealed to the authorities at Washington to protect him in his rights, and defied the Board of Eurolinent, as they would not accept his substitute.

The War Dapertment sustained the action of the Board of Enrollment, and Mr. Crocker, some time after the day given him to report had passed, was notified of this, and requested to call at the office of the Provost Marshal, but neglected to do so and was arrested. On an examination by the Board of Enrollment, Mr. Crocker was declared to be ablebodied, and ordered into the service, but was allowed a furlough until Wednesday, when he will have to go into camp, as by the decision of the War Department, the privilege to furnish a substitute or to pay commutation money is
