HARRISBURG, PA.
THURSDAY EVENING, SEPT. 29, 1866.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Loss.—At the Market House, last evening, a Child's Plaid Woolen Shawl. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at THIS OFFICE. If Where is the Patriot and Union's bulletin board this afternoon? Don't the latest news from Rosecrans' army suit the concern?

A. H. Ludlow, Esq., a prominent citizen of Warren, Pa., died of cancer, a few days ago. He had for a long period been clerk to the County Commissioners.

The Election in the Sixth Ward.—The election held in the Sixth Ward, on Saturday, to select a place for holding the elections, resulted in the choice of the market house now in process of erection, in said Ward.

A SPECIAL ORDER of the War Department directs that the sick and wounded men of the First, Second, Fifth and Sixth U. S. Cavalry, and those belonging thereto who may hereafter require medical treatment, be forwarded to Carlisle Barracks for medical treatment.

ACCIDENT.—Patrick Coyle, of Chambersburg, had his left leg badly fractured by being knocked down and run over by a Market street Passenger Railway car, at Twenty-second and Market streets, Philadelphia, on Saturday. He was admitted into the Pennsylvania Hospital.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A son of Michael Sherwick, of York, Warren county, accidentally shot himself on Sunday morning. The Warren Mail says:

He was out gunning, when a boy of Mr. D. Gross came after a horse or something else to get ready to go to church. He saw him and slipped his gun into the brush through the fence breach first. After helping the Gross boy to what he wanted he pulled the gun out with the muzzle towards him, when it went off, lodging the lead in his side. He died almost instantly. He was about fifteen years old.

MEETING AT HUMMELSTOWN LAST NIGHT.—An immense demonstration. The loyal men of Hummelstown and vicinity met in council last night, for the first time during the campaign. The meeting was organized by appointing JESSE R. HUMMEL, President.

Vice Presidents,
JEREMIAH BALSBAUGH,
C. A. NISSELY,
DAVID J. HUMMEL.

Secretary,
JOHN Z. GRYEVE.

The meeting was ably addressed by Hon. David Fleming, W. T. Bishop, Esq., Col. H. C. Alteman, and Col. W. W. Jennings. Between the speeches the Hummelstown Band discharged some of its best music, which was indeed equal to any we have heard on like occasions.

A splendid organization is being made in Hummelstown, and we anticipate a brilliant result in that region at the election in October.

TRIPLETS ACCIDENT.—Explosion of a Boiler—Five Persons Killed and Several Wounded.—A serious accident occurred at New Cumberland, this morning, about 8 o'clock, at the steam saw mill of Messrs. Lee & Eberly, caused by the explosion of one of the boilers, whereby the following persons were killed and wounded:

Killed—J. D. Kitterman, Samuel Leubinger, John Cromlich, (engineer), Mr. Buckwalter, (stranger), on business at the mill, Mrs. Fackler, (widow) living about 800 feet from the mill.

Wounded—Sister to Mrs. Fackler, Owner Frowell, (boy), Gustwick, (boy), also, J. F. Leo, one of the operators.

Part of one of the boilers was blown 800 feet, striking the residence of Mrs. Fackler, killing her almost instantly and seriously wounding her sister, and destroying a portion of the house. The saw mill is a perfect wreck.

The cause of the accident has not been assigned as yet. Several rumors are afloat. Some say a defective boiler, others attribute it to carelessness on the part of the engineer.

DISCOVERY OF A BURGLAR.—He Escapes.—At one o'clock this morning, a German in the employ of Henry Thomas, Esq., on Market street, was aroused by the barking of a dog in the rear of Mr. T.'s residence. The German, with lantern and pistol in hand, immediately repaired to the stable, thinking that some evil disposed person might be attempting to steal a fine horse therefrom. After examining the stable and finding all right, therein, he accidentally discovered a black man lying in a corner of the lot, close by a wall with which the rear of the lot is enclosed. A carpet bag was by his side. This was seized by the hostler, who pointed the pistol at the head of the intruder, who was a black man—perhaps colored for the occasion—and threatened to shoot him. Black man feigned sickness, and begged leave to lie there until morning. Through pity, German did not shoot him, but took the carpet sack into the company with Mr. Thomas, but black man had escaped. His sickness had suddenly terminated. On examining the carpet bag, it was found to contain a variety of articles, among which were two chisels, a small saw, a number of brace bits, a file, screw driver, cork screw, small compass, two candles, a small portmanteau, filled with tape, etc., etc., which are sufficient to prove that the man found was a burglar, and that he intended to operate on the premises of Mr. Thomas. Our German friend should have crippled the burglar, at least. As yet he is at large, but we advise him to absent himself from that particular spot in our city, where he was discovered last night.

The Festival of St. Matthew.—Yesterday, the 21st of September, was the festival of St. Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist. He was the son of Alphaeus, a Jew of the tribe of Zebulun, and thence called also Levi. He was a "publican," or tax-gatherer of the Jews for the Roman Government, and as such, was held in special abhorrence by the taxed—the Jews. He was "sitting at the receipt of custom" at the time he was called to be an apostle. Jesus sat down to meat with him in his house "with publicans and sinners," to the great disgust of the Jews, to whom Our Lord administered the rebuke, that He came "to call sinners to repentance." To St. Matthew we owe the first Gospel, which was first written by him in Hebrew, St. James the Less, and others of the Apostles afterwards rendering it into the Greek. St. Matthew's ministry among the nations was in Ethiopia and Parthia. In the year 60 he was seized and suffered martyrdom, the instrument of death used upon him being a halberd, or pike with a hatchet fixed to it. He is usually represented pen in hand, and an angel apparently dictating to him. His festival was first instituted in the year 1090.

I. O. O. F.—The Right Worthy Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the United States, commenced its fortieth annual session in Baltimore, on Monday. All the loyal States and several Territories are represented. The officers are as follows: James Nicholson, of Penna., Right Worthy Grand Sire; Wm. H. Young, of Baltimore, Right Worthy Sire; James L. Ridgely, of Maryland, Right Worthy Corresponding and Recording Secretary; Joshua Yansant, of Baltimore, Right Worthy Grand Treasurer; Bev. S. D. Williams, of Ohio, Right Worthy Grand Chaplain; D. W. Dennis, of Michigan, Right Worthy Grand Marshal; Augustus Pfaff, of Pennsylvania, Right Worthy Guardian, and John E. Chamberlain, Right Worthy Grand Messenger. A considerable number of representatives have arrived there, and many of them are stopping at the City Hotel, their usual quarters. As there is not much business of importance to transact, it is likely that the body will not sit more than three or four days. The election of officers takes place biennially, and the present incumbents were installed last year. During the session the representatives will be entertained by the Grand Lodge of the State of Maryland. All the annual communications of the Grand Lodge of the United States have been held in Baltimore, with the exception of four, which assembled respectively in New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati and Nashville.

STATE FAIR.—The State Fair to be held upon the grounds of the East Penna. Agricultural Society at Norrisstown, Pa., Sept. 29th, 30th, and Oct. 1st and 2d, 1866, promises to be one of the largest and most interesting ever held.—The Committee of Arrangements are most industrious, and driving things at a rapid rate. During last week 384 feet of shedding by 26 feet in width were erected for the reception of Vegetables, Grains, Seeds, Stores, Agricultural Implements, Machinery, &c. A tent for the floral and fruit department 110 feet by 80 has been hired and the services of the celebrated florist—Mr. Southwood, of Phila., have been obtained to superintend the work and arrange the fruit and flowers. These improvements in addition to the large hall 100 feet by 50ft., together with the wings 40 feet square will afford room for a great number of articles. From present indications the room will all be required, for we are informed that the news from all parts of the State are most encouraging.—There is a promise of a steam fire engine to be upon the grounds, which will force water daily for the supply of the fair, and also test its full capacity at throwing water. Steam power will be procured to propel machinery. The track is pronounced by horsemen one of the best half mile in the State. Norrisstown is accessible by railroads to every portion of the State. All the important railroads leading to Philadelphia and Norrisstown will run Excursions and the Pennsylvania Railroad, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Ontario, the Cumberland Valley, and the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norrisstown have all agreed to carry freight free subject to certain conditions. The same is expected to be effected with other important roads. The premiums in the aggregate amount to about $7000, and are the most liberal in every department and offered for almost every conceivable article. For catalogue of Premiums and particulars address A. B. Longaker, Sec'y, Norrisstown, Pa.

CARD TO LADIES.
Do you wish to know what is fashionable? Do you wish to see all the new styles, for every description of wearing apparel? If so, buy FRANK LESLIE'S LADY MAGAZINE FOR OCTOBER, it contains 150 Plates, of the new Parisian Styles, just imported amongst them you will find over 20 styles of Bonnets, 50 styles of Dresses, besides numerous styles of Fall Cloaks, Children's Dresses, Lady's Caps, and Under clothing; also, a full size paper pattern, to cut the new Poitillion Jacket by, alone worth more than is charged for the Magazine. Every number of this Magazine contains more Fashion Plates than are published in all the other American Magazines combined.

FRANK LESLIE'S is the only American Magazine which publishes the Parisian Fashions immediately after their appearance in Paris. His facilities are so extensive that he frequently publishes French Fashions several months in advance of any other American publication. FRANK LESLIE'S LADY MAGAZINE also contains excellent stories, beautifully illustrated by the first American artists. The new tale, "The Sealed Door," by Mrs. Dennison, is commenced in the present number. Buy the October number and judge for yourself of its merits. It is the best and most entertaining Lady's Magazine published in the world.

WHAT THE PRESS SAYS OF IT.
"We have no hesitation in pronouncing it the best Magazine for ladies that is published in this country." It is far superior to all others, and has the preference with the ladies everywhere."
—Norristown Reporter.

"In point of merit this periodical certainly has no superior, it is as equal as an illustrated magazine of fashion. No labor or expenditure seems to be spared on it. Its pages are replete with interesting and valuable reading matter and the magazine is fairly crowded with illustrations of the fashions and numerous ladies' and children's dress and toilette patterns."—Burlington Sentinel.

"It is decidedly the magazine for the latest fashions."—Ferriand Transcript.

"The reading matter is always attractive and instructive; and, being a complete gazette of fashion, it is much sought after and studied by the fair sex generally on the Pacific coast."—Telegraphic Courier.

"We have no hesitation in saying that it is superior in every respect to any similar publication in this country. None equals it in the splendor and number of its fashion plates, none approaches it in the matter of paper patterns of fashions."—Pontiac Jacksonian.

"As a lady's book we consider it second to none, while it is superior to most, both in fashion plates, wood engravings, and general reading matter."—Oxford Reform.

"It is without doubt the best and most reliable fashion magazine published."—Burlington Dollar Newspaper.

"Worthy of a place at every fireside."—Haverhill Gazette.

"A splendid number, excelling everything in that line ever before produced."—Plattsburgh Sentinel.

"The full sized patterns are alone worth to ladies the price of the book."—Smyrna Times.

"Frank Leslie's magazine for September has a wealth of fashion illustrations, far surpassing that of any of its cotemporaries. The literary matter, too, is of a high character."—Roxbury Journal.

"It is quite evident that the spirited proprietor intends sparing no expense in making this publication worthy of its title."—Montreal Transcript.

"A greater variety and display than given by any other magazine in the country."—Whitefish Sentinel.

The October number is for sale at all book-stores and news depots in the United States and Canada, Price 25c.
