Immediately Cured, and full vigor restored.

This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penatty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may every. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that densands the subject will pretend to dehy that the power of procention is lost sooner by those falling into imprope: habits than by the prudeint. Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental functions weekened, loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, a westing of the frame, cough, consumption, decay and death.

Written for the Zelegraph.] Who would vote for Woodward, Who would vote for Woodward, Whose sympathies are with Jeff?
Oh! who would vote for Woodward,
Who seeks his Country's death?
Who would yote for Woodward,
The Copperhead candidate?
Oh! who would vote for Woodward,
Although his mind is great?

Who would vote for Woodward, What freeman in the land, Who loves his wife and little ones Could ere take such a stand? Who would vote for Woodward,

We ask the working man? Oh! who would vote for Woodward, Resounds from bill and glen. Who would vote for Woodward, i Who proved himself to be The enemy of God and man, A foe to Liberty? Who would vote for Woodward, Who doth the Irish hate? Declared they were a nulsance. A plague upon the State.

Can Irishmen vote for Woodward, And lose a reeman's right?
Oh! would you vote for Woodward
And for Joh! Davis fight.
How can you vote for Woodward?
We now ask one and all, God bless you, it were better You would not vote at all.

He favors slaves and slavery, Their masters he upholds; And when a Union victory's gained He foams and frets and scolds.
To speak 'gainet slav'ry, he declares
To be a venal crime;
A' word of warning now we give
On I pray be warned in time.

He says it is divine,
That poor men should be slaves,
And toil for others all their lives, Till laid into their graves. God bless you, can you think That such a man as he,

The Governor of the Keystons Can ever prove to be? What has our Curtin done That we should give him o'er, For Woodward and Disurion, For strife, for war and gore.
Oh think before you vote
What you are voting for
What are the issues of the day

The object of the war. Will you stand up for party, And see your country dear, Dissolved, dissevered, split in twain, And seesh reigning here? The glorious stars and stripes,

What the Privates of the Gallant Lenna Reserves think of Curtin.

CAMP NEAR CULPEPPER, Sept. 22, 1863. Camp NEAR CULFEPPER, Sept. 22, 1863.

EDITOR TELEGRAPH, Ser.—In the Patriot and Union, of the 16th inst., I noticed a lotter with the above caption, signed "High Private, P. B. C.," and to him should be awarded the prize of being able to invent greater false-hoods than Tom Pepper. I have never, since I enlisted, had the extreme pleasure of perusing a document that contained more deliberate lies than the one in question."

than the one in question.

He says be is and always will be a Democrat that is, he will vote the Democratic ticket without any reference to the principles of the men who compose it.

I am a Democrat and have always been one, but in the present case, if I had the right of suffrage, I should cast my vote for Curtin, for he is emphatically the soldiers' friend and benefactor. efactor. He has done all in his power to aid the Beserves, and I confess, with shame, that I did not suppose we had one man in the Division, who was so far debased as to come out in a communication denouncing the very man who enlisted. But this man may have been severally dealt with, as I notice he casts a slur on his fight is in prospect. From the above you can draw your own inference.

Curtin is the choice of the "fighting" sons of Pennsylvania, and to prove my assertion I will give you below the vote of the 10th Regt. B.C., taken at "retreat roll call." Sept. 14th and also of the 5th Rest, P. R. C., taken Sept 20th. That alone will show that "High Pri vate" is a falsifier, and that Curtin's supporten are in the ranks as well as wearing shoulde

That allusion to "Shoulder Strap Braves" wa badly put, when it is known that nine tenths of the officers of this division have been pro moted from the ranks.

In the company of which I am a member, we have only 27 votes, and every one are for Curtin. There has been no influence brought to. bear on the men, but they all know who has been the friend of the Reserves. It is also for the good of other soldiers who may belin the field during the next term of Governorship, that we would cast our votes for Curtin. If Woodward should be elected, we would not have a very long season for him to do us good or evil, as our time, expires in the spring but we know what Curtin is, and wish those who may yet become soldiers to have a mane who will see that their rights are respected, and their desires fulfilled. Such a man we have in Gov.

But if you wish the war prolonged, the Administration embarrassed, and the soldiors discouraged, why you the copperhead ticket.

H. Hill's corps and that of Polk. The Union artillery was the heaviest that has taken place in the war. Also, that on Saturday Hood's division of Longstreet's corps, attacked

Rosecrans and were repuls d.

A dispatch reports that on Sunday night the Union forces fell back eight miles, and says that the rebel loss was 5,000 killed and wounded in the two days' fight, the proportion of officers being very heavy, and claims that the rebels took 2,000 prisoners and 7 pieces of artillery on Saturday, and that a heavy smake that night indicated that Rosecrans was burning at the control of the control o ing stores.

Another dispatch on Sunday night says a combined attack by Hill and Longstreet was to be made on Monday.

A dispatch from Atlanta dated Monday night says a dispatch from Ringgold, dated that morning, reports 4,000 Union prisoners at 30 pieces of artillery taken, and the rebeis in purfailt. It also claims a complete victory with the control of the co suit. It also claims a complete victory, with large captures of artillery and colors, though admitting a heavy less in rebel officers and

An Atlanta dispatch, dated the 22d, says that all of Rosectans' army was engaged; that H lm, of Kentucky, was killed in leading a charge. Hood mortally wounded, and Major Richmond, of Polk's staff, killed.

It further states that on Saturday night Hill and Longstreet attacked and fook 6,000 prisoners. It adds a prophecy that they would drive Rosecrans from the Mississippi river.

Governor John Harris, of Tennessee, sent dispatches to the Appeal on Sunday night, stating that the two days hard fighting had not had a definite or final result, and that Generals John C. Brown, Hood, Grieg, Dan'i Admas and John Helm were wounded, and Displer killed. That the rebels had captured 25 000 prisoners and from 25 to 50 pieces of artillery.

A Flace and a Conress.—In a regiment in Waterloo, the energy, a mere boy, who bore one of the colors, was shot. The enemy were advancing in overwhelming force, the regiment was being gradually push d back, and the colors work in excess of $1,000; they must have considered a second destined to become the prize of the fee, in whise distinct the full value of the articles. At this instant a gallant sergeant ru had to the front, determined to aver the thereof of his calamity. The attempt appeared cert, in death, but he had only one thought—the honor of his regiment. Reaching the spot where the color lay dabbled in mud and the blood of the bester, he seized it with a nervous grasp and strove to tear it from the dead man's hands. He found it impossible to do so. In the moment of death the ensign's fingers, had tightened round it like a vice. The flag could not be moved. His own comrades were retiring; the French advancing—nay, were almost upon him. Without a moment's hesitation, the sergesset, by a vigorous effort, cast the corps and the standard across his shoulders, and thus freighted, rejoined his own ranks, friends and foes both uniting to great the exploit with hearty cheers.
