FROM WASHINGTON.
The Arrest of Deserters.
United States Court Matters.
FROM MADE'S ARMY.
REVIEW OF THE FIFTH CORPS.
McClellan Testimonial Collection Abandoned.
CONSCRIPTS FOR THE ARMY.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.
The United States Court of Claims will commence its October term next Monday. Its jurisdiction was enlarged by an act of the late Congress. A very large number of new claimants have been added, including the Floyd acceptances of Russell, Myers & Co., to the extent of three hundred thousand dollars.

Judge Black, Curtis, Cushing and Brodhead, of St. Louis, are counsel on the case, which will be argued as a question of law.

In addition, many claims come from Louisiana, Virginia, and other States, for losses and deprivations by the military.

A letter from the Army of the Potomac says that Gen. Meade, accompanied by the Mexican General Cortes, yesterday reviewed the Fifth Corps. The weather was splendid. The review passed off in a most satisfactory manner.

For some days an address has been widely circulated through the army, eliciting a ten-cent subscription for a memorial of esteem to be presented to Major General McClellan. Parties who subscribed had their money returned to them yesterday, and were informed that the design had been abandoned.

All quiet at the front.

Capt. yesterday took to the army eight hundred conscripts.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

THE DRAFT IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.
The proportion of soldiers obtained in this District, under the draft, will be larger than in any other district where the draft has yet been made.

PUBLISHING THE NAMES OF DESERTERS FROM THE ARMY.
The publication as deserters of those who have failed to report within the allotted time, has been postponed until after the first of next month, in order to give them an opportunity to save themselves from such disgrace.

THE PROPOSED ABANDONMENT OF THE DRAFT IN THE WEST.
Leading Republicans in the West are writing to Washington letters of remonstrance against proposed abandonment of the draft in the Western States, and the substitution thereof of a new system of volunteering. They allege that under the latter system, only friends of the Administration will be induced to enter the army, and its opponents will stay at home to vote, and they insist upon the prosecution of the draft as the only means of compelling the Copperheads to bear their share of the burthens of the war for the Union.

RESIGNATIONS IN THE ARMY.
Maj. Gen. Blomum is said to have tendered his resignation, and it is rumored that Maj. Gen. Howard will do likewise.

It is stated that the resignation of General Burnside has been accepted.

CAPTAINS SAWYER AND ELYN.
The Government has received intelligence that Captains Sawyer and Elyn, who were captured by the rebel authorities, are now on a level with other prisoners, treated as well, and will soon be exchanged. Captain Winder and General Lee have been restored to a similar status.

CONTRACTORS AND CONSCRIPTS.
Culpeper and his vicinity are literally swarming with contractors. They come in from all quarters, and at all times. A cargo of them arrived at Alexandria today on the 11 o'clock train. Conscripts are reaching Culpeper in large numbers, almost every train from Alexandria being laden with them.

MATERIAL OF WAR.
The Government at the present time has on hand in different arsenals throughout the country, seven hundred thousand stand of arms, five hundred thousand of which are effective. The number is rapidly increasing, the Springfield manufacture of arms turning out 25,000 stand every month. Under the contract of sale by Secretary Cameron, nearly 200,000 stand of arms, with 25,000 barrels of powder, have been delivered to the Government—the market manufactured by contract being one-third more than those made at Springfield. There are also on hand about 2,400 24 and 32 pound smooth bore cannon, which are rapidly being converted into effective guns by the rifling process. By this means the weight of the projectile is increased one-third, and a greater range gained with less waste of powder.

FROM HARPER'S FERRY.
KIRKBRIDE NEAR UPPERVILLE, VA., WITH MOSBY'S CAVALRY—KILLING AND CAPTURING SEVEN AND DESTROYING TWENTY-FIVE HORSES AND MULES. [Correspondence of the Baltimore American.]

HARPER'S FERRY, Va., Sept. 28.
There is quite a prevalent rumor here for the present that it is the intention of the Government to re-establish its manufactures for firearms, which once made Harper's Ferry such an interesting place to visit, in consequence of which the few remaining citizens are exceedingly jubilant, for they anticipated the return of those refugees formerly employed in the said factories, who were compelled to flee from their homes by the accused war against the Government.

Harper's Ferry of to-day, with its lonely and deserted streets (except the military), its dilapidated buildings—and many of them have been burnt, others torn to atoms for fire wood—present a sad aspect and cause the most indignant to scan the dim future. It will still compensate a journey to visit it, for there still remains that magnificent scenery which man and war cannot destroy.

Cole's cavalry, who are nominally stationed at this post but virtually always in the saddle, are to be sent to the front of Jackson, Clark and Frederick, Loudon and Fincastle—cases in contact with Mosby and about one hundred, and fifty of his command near Upperville, Fauquier county, last Friday, drawn up in line of battle awaiting his arrival.

After some slight skirmishing Major Cole charged the gang of desperadoes, who were scattered and fled in wild dismay, not, however, before one of their number bit the dust. The Major also recaptured some seventy-five horses and mules and one man of the 19th New York cavalry, which Mosby had picked up on his recent raid. Mosby's command had been greatly underrated; it appears by the statements of the contractors living near Upperville, and of the prisoners themselves, that Mosby's command consists of three hundred men, Mosby ranks as a Major on Stuart's staff, being detached for the particular vocation in which he is engaged. Both White and Cole have been calling upon Leeboden for reinforcements so that they may crush Cole at a single effort, as he is the only real impediment to their lucrative business.
