Rebel Advice and Copperhead Response.

"The success of the Democratic party would be no longer doubtful, should Gen. Lee once advance on Meade. Let him drive Meade into Washington and he will again raise the spirits of the Democrats, confirm their timid and give confidence to their wavering."

"We must arouse ourselves, and reassert the rights of the slaveholder, and add such guarantees to our Constitution as will protect his property from the spoliation of religious bigotry or persecution, or else we must give up our Constitution and Union."

Geo. W. Woodward.

Woodward.

Justice Woodward is not on the stump, but he is sneaking either through the rural districts, or among the workshops of Philadelphia, resorting to means to procure votes, from which the lowest pot house politician in the land would recoil with shame.

Within the last few weeks, Woodward has visited many of the machine shops and foundries in Philadelphia, in all of which he indulged in deliberate lying, in order to deceive honest but unformed men as to his popularity and chances of success at the October election.

We write deliberate lying, because George W. Woodward declared to certain workmen in Philadelphia, that he (Woodward) would carry Pennsylvania at the October election by one hundred thousand majority!

What is this, but deliberate lying! And what a contrast this conduct is, in comparison to the open, manly, brave and bold stand taken by Andrew G. Curtin. While Curtin is on the stump, discussing principles, advocating the cause of his country and defiantly denouncing all its enemies, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania is sneaking from one lodge of the Knights of the Golden Circle to another, counselling resistance to the Government, suggesting means of thwarting the efforts to crush the rebellion, or he (Woodward) is visiting the workshops of the great commercial emporium of the Middle States, Philadelphia, deliberately lying to the workmen—deliberately misrepresenting facts—deliberately striving to deceive honest men—deliberately plotting to foist himself on the affections of the people, that he may gain power to assist in the complete destruction of the American Union!

We cast these charges into the teeth of Woodward and his friends, and defy them to deny their truthfulness!

REMEMBER, Tax payers, that in one year the ordinary expenses of the State Government were reduced NINETY-FIVE THOUSAND THREE HUNDRED AND SEVENTEEN DOLLARS, ($95,317 00), by ANDREW G. CURTIN!

The Ears of the Cat Let Out of the Bag.

We have heard much said in relation to "the dignity of the position which Judge Woodward occupies in this canvass," and perhaps it is owing to an optical defect that we cannot discern this "dignity." At all events, we can't see it. But perhaps the reader will be able to discover something like this "dignity" in the following splendid effort which the thrice defamed Woodward delivered to a crowd of night revellers who recently serenaded him in Philadelphia:

I have been honored by the call of my fellow citizens, but the call being an unexpected one, and having just returned from the Horticultural Fair, feel tired and worn out, and for this reason you must excuse me for not addressing you. If I should be elected Governor, I would then feel it my duty to address you on political questions, and then I will express my opinions in a language to be understood. UNTIL THAT TIME COMES I MUST BE EXCUSED. I THANK YOU FOR THE COMPLIMENT. I BID YOU GOOD NIGHT.

What a speech for the "dignified candidate" of a once powerful political party! Not a word about traitors. Not a word against the conspirators who are struggling to destroy the Government. Not a word for the brave men who are perilling life and limb to defend that Government. Not a word for principle! And yet George W. Woodward asks the people of Pennsylvania to support him for Governor—to invest him with power that he may be enabled to assist their mortal enemies! After he is elected Governor he will speak in a language not to be mistaken! Of this there can be no doubt, but the freemen of the State will take care that he is not elected Governor of Pennsylvania.

A SCOURY TRICK.

A United States Commissary Leads Himself to the Copperheads to Bring Reproach on the Government.

We had an intimation, yesterday, that the very horrible crime had been committed of discharging certain white men employed in the U. S. Commissary warehouse at this post, and employing in their places a number of colored men. The story was on the lips of every copperhead in the city, long before it reached our sanctum, and when the information came to us, it was coupled with the statement that the Tory Organ intended to "lash the Government like hell," for this infringement of the rights of the white men to monopolize the labor at the disposal of the federal authorities.

Without waiting for the lashing "like hell" which the Tory Organ intended to give the Government, we proceeded at once to ferret out the facts of this horrible outrage, and after much inquiry and search, we were able to glean the intelligence that certain laboring men had been discharged from the U. S. Commissary's warehouse, and that certain other laboring men of "African descent," had been retained. But thereby hangs a tale. This sacrifice of white labor had in it an object which the men who indulged in this outrage never for a moment conceived would be unveiled. Those who furiously strike at a political opponent for the purpose of bringing disgrace on an administration, and in proportion as that is injured, impairing the power and the stability of the Government, act with blind fury and cannot see beyond the effect which their blows will have, in affording a contemptible self-gratification of low political instincts and hatred, to discover the real and overwhelming disgrace that must inevitably overtake those acting with such mendacious, brazen faced effrontery.

In the case of the discharge of the white men alluded to, from the U. S. Commissary's warehouse in question, that recoil has already occurred. It may be discovered in the following facts in relation to this business, which we gathered from sources at once reliable and respectable.

The main statement of the discharge of white men and the retention of negroes in the U. S. Commissary's warehouse, is true, but the circumstances connected with this discharge give a different coloring to the fact from that in which it is presented by the Tory Organ. It is true that there were too many men employed in these warehouses to perform the labor required, and that the services of some of these could have long since been dispensed with. But why was this discharge postponed until the eve of an important election? And after the discharge was made, why was it (at least so rumor has it) that certain bitter, malignant and industrious copperheads were retained? This is an important and a serious question, involving charges which at once demand the investigation of the War Department. And while the interrogatory is before us, we may as well state what is also a notorious fact, that in many of the military bureaus or offices of this city, there are those employed who are the avowed enemies of the Government; who make it their business to assail those in authority at all places, and who are also in league with a party that is laboring openly and persistently for the overthrow of the Government.

The mildest term that we have to apply to this is, that it is all wrong. Those who abuse the Government, have no right to the emoluments or pay of any of the positions within its gift. The politician who leagues with the avowed enemies of the Administration, has no claim to the favor or the patronage of the Government. Loyal men all over the land agree upon this subject, and the sooner those in authority appreciate and act upon the same principle, the better for their own reputations, the better for the country, the better for the loyalty which is to defend and uphold both.

Any time the War Department commissions an agent to ascertain the facts in connection with our statements in this article, the testimony will be forthcoming to sustain all that we here assert.

Centre County.

Wherever the title of this article is inscribed, or whenever the name of Centre County is mentioned, while we live we trust that we will have sight and hearing to see and hear it with admiration. Hence, when we noticed, this morning, that "Centre County" formed the caption of an article in the Tory Organ, we naturally perceived the production, as naturally turned with disgust and abhorrence from its vile pervasions of notorious facts and its malignant references to an invulnerable man. Andrew G. Curtin did not possess a "home influence" in his youth, which he cannot now, in his mature manhood, wield as effectually as ever. He has never had repose in him a confidence, by the friends of his youth or the associates of his manhood in Centre County, which he has forfeited!

Personally, in Centre County, Andrew G. Curtin is as highly esteemed as he is politically valued wherever the American government has a friend on this continent—and if the friends of the slave-holding traitors in Pennsylvania expect to make capital against our candidate for Governor in Centre County, there is a disappointment in store for them, there is all over the State, where loyal men have long since resolved to re-elect Gov. Curtin by a handsome majority. Hence, we are very willing that the copperheads should assemble at Bellefonte in their might and their main, provided they do not poison the crystal fountain which sends up its living waters to bless the people of that locality—a poisoning of which there is much fear if the copperheads who assemble at Bellefonte on Saturday next, should lead their dirty fingers in its limpid current.

Last year Slenker carried Centre County, by a default, with a majority of 381 votes. It was the same with the people of Centre County, then, as it was with the loyal men of all other election districts in the Commonwealth. The friends of the Union and the Government were then actively engaged in recruiting the armies of the Republic, in providing comforts for the sick and wounded, and in securing the means of living for the absent soldier's family. At the same time, the enemies of the Government and the Union, the men who now support Woodward, were actively engaged in carrying the election in Pennsylvania, that capital in favor of the rebel confederacy could be manufactured for foreign consumption. Since then, however, the eyes of the people have been opened to the frauds and the chicanery of the copperhead politicians, and in Centre County, as well as in every county in the Commonwealth, loyal men are up and doing, vigilant of the duties they have to perform and watchful of the foes with whom they have to contend. Hence, we expect glorious news from Centre County. The home of Andrew G. Curtin will speak the full measure of his worth as a man, as a patriot and as a statesman, despite the machinations of all the treason sympathizers within its bounds. The threat has been made, that the loyal men of Centre County are to be intimidated by an assemblage of copperheads in Bellefonte. We send our friends, there, word of this in time. We send greeting to the Valentines, the Harris, the Thomas, the Duncans, the Stovers, the Hays, the Greggs, the Dunlaps, the Linds, the Macallisters, the Humes, and hundreds of the men whose souls have already given their lives in defence of the Government, who themselves now represent the intelligence and the enterprise of glorious old Centre, that the word has gone forth in all the lodges of the Knights of the Golden Circle, that a great disgrace is to be brought upon the American Union by the defeat of one of its ablest champions, Andrew G. Curtin, in his home, Centre County. Up, then, men of Centre, and meet the foe as he attempts to carry disgrace to your friends and homes!

Forfeiting the Jeff. Davis Candidate.

Almost every hour in the day we hear of prominent Democrats leaving the "Jeff. Davis" party and taking position in favor of the Government. It would be impossible to name all these gentlemen, but among the most prominent is Judge Cunningham, of Beaver county, who, until within the last few weeks, was considered a sound supporter of Woodward. The Judge, however, addressed a very large meeting a few days since, held in Washington, Pa., in which he stated that in conversation with Woodward, he heard him say THAT IN HIS (WOODWARD'S) JUDGMENT, OUR ONLY COURSE IS TO WITHDRAW ALL OUR ARMS FROM MASON AND DIXON'S LINE AND OFFER TERMS TO THE STATES! This is an important revelation, and goes to prove that Woodward is one of the Calhoun school, without ifs or buts, and the truth is coming out in good time.

William M. Hiestor, Secretary of the Commonwealth in the Packer administration, has also openly avowed himself in favor of the Union and opposed to the election of Woodward. We could name hundreds of honest Democrats who are pursuing the same course. There is no longer a shadow of doubt about the re-election of Gov. Curtin by an unprecedented majority.

FROM WASHINGTON.

LATER NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.

AFFAIRS AT RICHMOND.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.

The crews of the gunboats Reliance and Satellite, lately captured on the Rappahannock, the crew of the Washburn, taken in Charleston harbor, and the crew of the Nippon, captured at New Inlet, North Carolina, have arrived here, under flag of truce, as paroled prisoners. They number in all about sixty men.

Accompanying these is a deserter from the Richmond City Battalion, named Chas. Hutchins, belonging to Brooklyn, N. Y. He says there are from ten to eleven thousand rebel troops in the neighborhood of Richmond; that the Merrimac is lying near Jones' Bluff; that the Lady Davis is now full of iron plated; that a third iron clad is on the stocks and that five small gunboats are lying near the bluff. Nearly all the sailors there, about five hundred, have been sent to Charleston under command of Capt. Tegenau.

REBEL NEWS.

New York, October 1.

The Richmond Examiner of the 29th ult., received here, contains a statement that General Lee has officially communicated to the War Department that the 11th and 12th army corps of the Army of the Potomac have gone to General Rosecrans.

The same paper has a Mobile dispatch of the 26th, stating that General Weitzel had been defeated and killed by General Dick Taylor, at Napoleon, Louisiana.

The rebel loss at the battle of Chickamauga is stated at 12,600.

General Rosecrans is said to have retreated towards Knoxville. "The rebels have occupied Johnsonsboro."

Union Meeting at Williamsport.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. Sept. 30.

The Hon. Judge Kelley addressed an immense meeting here this evening. His arguments were received with great enthusiasm. He stated that a short time before the breaking out of the rebellion, in the Supreme Court at Philadelphia, whilst the members of the bar of Chester and Delaware counties were awaiting the opening of the court, Judge Woodward, in a conversation with the gentlemen then present, made a statement, that should there be a separation between the North and the South, he would prefer the line to be drawn north of Pennsylvania. For the truth of this statement Judge Kelley said he was authorized to refer to the Hon. John M. Broome and Hon. Edward Darlington, of Media, Delaware county, and to N. V. Pennypacker, Esq., J. Smith Firthey, and William Darlington, of West Chester, who participated in the conversation.
