Rebel Advice and Copperhead Response.

"The success of the Democratic party would be no longer doubtful, should Gen. Lee once advance on Meade. Let him drive Meade into Washington and he will again raise the spirits of the Democrats, confirm their timid and give confidence to their wavering." - RICHMOND ENQUIRER.

"We must arouse ourselves, and reassert the RIGHTS OF THE SLAVEHOLDER, and ADD such GUARANTEES to our Constitution as will protect his property from the spoliation of religious bigotry or persecution, or else we will give up our Constitution and Union." - GEO. W. WOODWARD.

The Campaign at the Upper End.

We have had the most gratifying accounts of the enthusiasm and zeal with which the campaign is being conducted in the upper end of the county. For a week or more ex-Sheriff Hoffman has been traveling through that region, accompanied by A. S. Herr, Esq., doing yeomen's service in the good cause. A correspondent, writing to us from Fishersville, gives the most glowing description of meetings held at that village, and at the Red Tavern, across Berry's Mountain. The writer says that at both these meetings Col. Herr made splendid speeches, the effect of which was to induce several veteran Democrats to announce their intention to vote not only for Curtin, but to support the entire Union county ticket. Col. Herr's speeches are also described as having been able vindications of the National and State administrations. He defended the policies of these administrations as being essential not only to the crushing out of rebellion, but as important to the permanent establishment of peace. Speaking boldly against the causes of rebellion - fearlessly exposing the crimes of those who sympathize with that great wrong - Col. Herr drew from his auditors responses that at once left no doubt as to the loyalty of the masses who heard him. We congratulate the Colonel on the effectiveness of his services during this campaign, and bespeak success for the cause that has such men to labor in its defence and advocacy.

We also understood that Messrs. Wiestling, Smith and Young, of this city, participated in the campaign at the upper end, doing the services which we have a right to expect from men of their ability and devotion. Perhaps in no other campaign has our cause been more ably represented in Dauphin county, than it is in the great contest in which we are now engaged for the Union and the Constitution.

A Strange Coincidence.

There is a strange coincidence in the fact mentioned by a cotemporary, that the so-called "Democratic" party of the present day, have placed themselves in the position of being considered the peculiar friends of the South, and are so considered and acknowledged by the very men who are in arms against their country! And yet, the success of the rebel cause, would be the death blow to Democratic principles, not only in this, but in every other country - for, let the secession of these States be once admitted and recognized fact, then those great principles for which Washington and his devoted followers fought and bled through a seven years' war, will have been in vain obtained, and a shout will go from the aristocracy of the old world, at the death of human liberty, and the triumph of that dogma which tyrants in all ages of the world have put forth, that man is incapable of self government. That the great and leading object of the oligarchy in bringing about this rebellion, was to destroy the Democratic principle in our form of government, no intelligent man can for a moment doubt. Their organs and orators pretended not for a moment to deny the fact; indeed, so far from doing so, they boldly and openly avow and proclaim to the world, that such is their aim and object - and in a very short period after they were settled down in their new government, if that day could ever have arrived, they would disfranchise every soul who was not a land and slaveholder, of every political right now enjoyed under our present form of government. Even the petty upstart would be aristocracy of our State, do not pretend to give any other reason for their being in favor of the South, except that they expect to be the ruling powers under the new regime, and that their nobility will not be forced to come in contact with the "mudsills" at the polls to enable them to enjoy power and place, without the necessity of labor. And strange as it may appear, there are laboring men found in our midst who are ready to aid these brainless fops in the accomplishment of their object.

AN INFAMOUS ELECTIONEERING DOCUMENT.

The Desperation of the Copperheads.

We are willing that our political foes should have all the rope necessary to hang themselves, as the Government is so tardy in taking cognizance of and punishing their treason. We are content that they should slander our candidates and misrepresent our principles, because wherever this is attempted among intelligent men, the result will be in our favor, as truth and integrity never permanently suffer from error or fraud. But we do object to our foes deliberately going to work, so to misrepresent the Government, in order to carry a State election, when such misrepresentation is calculated to affect us abroad, when it is designed to give aid and comfort to the conspirators at home, and when its whole tendency is to break up and destroy a Republican form of Government of the American Union. Such is the character of a document which has lately been put in circulation in this county, and which was printed in the State printing office, by Messrs. Singler & Myers. Of course that firm has a right to do such work as is offered to them, but when the description of the work to be performed is of the tendency of the document referred to, and when its objects of evil are as well known as the object of this document must have been known to Messrs. Singler & Myers, then we hold that they become accessories in the work of treason, and that for whatever mischief which may accrue to the Government from the circulation of such a document, they are, in part, personally responsible, and to that extent they should be held answerable by the courts of law.

The "Record of the Times" is made up of the vilest misrepresentations which ever disgraced the political campaigning of the meanest copperhead in the land. The sheet is even worse than the Tory Organ, notwithstanding many of the articles reproduced in the Record of the Times appeared originally in the Organ. From vile attacks on the Government, it descends to the most furious assaults on those in authority. From its own inventions of falsehoods and those of others, it proceeds to the perversion of the sentiments of living and dead American statesmen, for the purpose of proving how pure an institution slavery is, how sinful it is to think, and how criminal to speak, against slavery. In all its broad columns, the Record of the Times does not contain a single word of denunciation of traitors. It does not enunciate a single word against those in arms for the overthrow of the Government! Such is the character of a document designed to defeat the re-election of Andrew G. Curtin. It may have some influences among the copperhead Democracy, already tainted with treason, but it cannot control a single loyal man, who abhors traitors and their objects.

REMEMBER, Tax payers, that in one year the ordinary expenses of the State Government were reduced NINETY-FIVE THOUSAND THREE HUNDRED NINETY AND SEVENTEEN DOLLARS, ($95,817.00), by ANDREW G. CURTIN!

Smoked Out. Justice Woodward begins to feel the pressure of public indignation, and when too late, he comes forward to address the public in speeches filled with the most pitiful non-sense. At Lewisburg, on Thursday last, he was "smoked out," and as a result, we have a paragraph in the Tory Organ this morning, which is called a speech. Said speech consists of a lachrymose complaint over what Woodward calls the abuse of "a hiring press," and an attempt to justify his present silence on the score that his record presents all the exposition which he can make of his attachment for principle or devotion to any particular policy of government. This is what the independent organs of loyal men have been insisting upon from the day of Woodward's nomination. We judge him by his record.

By his record, we convict Justice Woodward of having been the first to advocate, in a deliberative body, the policy of disfranchising all foreigners.

By his record, we convict Justice Woodward of having been the principal in securing the disfranchisement of the Pennsylvania soldiers absent from home in the service of the country fighting the battles of the Government.

By his record, we convict Justice Woodward of being the active sympathizer with those who are now in armed rebellion to overthrow the Government.

By his record, we convict Justice Woodward of having defended the interests of the rebellion, justifying the causes which the slaveholders assign for their treason, and encouraging traitors in the work of blood by asserting that it is a sin to think and, a crime to talk against slavery.

Thus, out of his own mouth, Justice Woodward has been condemned, and yet he has the audacity to talk of "a hiring press." When men cultivate the greed of office which now afflicts George W. Woodward, they should also cultivate a fair reputation, and keep their record free from spots or blemish. When they do this, they will not be troubled with the "nightmare" of a "hiring press."

A Loyal Democrat on the Stump in Dauphin County. We are requested, by the Chairman of the County Committee, to announce that Col. Charles H. Shreiner, a War Democrat, has responded to a call to address the people of this county, by signifying his willingness to do so at such times and places as may be fixed. Accordingly, Mr. Henry Thomas, Chairman of the County Committee, has arranged for Col. Shreiner to address meetings at Millersburg, on Tuesday, October 6, and at Middletown, Saturday, October 10. The presence of Col. Shreiner at those localities will be the inducement to secure large meetings, as he is undoubtedly among the ablest and most fearless of the Democratic leaders in this Commonwealth who have abandoned their old party organization to espouse the cause of the country. Those who may have the good fortune to hear Col. Shreiner at the meetings announced, will never regret the time spent in traveling to listen to his speeches.

The Cry is, Still They Come.

We begin to tire of announcing the conversion of prominent Democrats, who are boldly declaring their intention to vote for Andrew G. Curtin. But as these conversions may have the influence of saving our good Democrats from disgrace, by warning them, before it is too late, to leave the corrupt associations of copperheadism, we are constrained, for this reason, to report the names of several hardened sinners, who have just been relieved from the foul disgrace of treason. Among those most prominent, to whom we have not alluded, is Hon. John Cessna, ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives. John is very fond of Cessna, and has no idea of being on the unpopular side, hence his avowal of an intention to vote for Curtin. We will give John credit for his vote when we have the undoubted proof that it was cast for Curtin, but as Cessna has ever been such an unconscionable truckler in politics, we must be excused from giving him credit until we are convinced of its due by the clearest proof.

Better than any avowal which Cessna could make of devotion to principle, is the letter of H. L. Brown, Colonel 145th Reg. P. V., declining the nomination for the Legislature by the copperheads of Erie county. The copperheads of Erie county imagined they could use the veteran soldier to advance the success of their treasonable plans, but this is the way in which a brave man frustrates the machinations of a set of cowards and traitors. Read what Col. Brown says: "This is no day for DEALING IN POLITICS, only so far as to place men in all civil positions that will bring to the GOVERNMENT THE ENTIRE STRENGTH OF THE COUNTRY, BOTH IN BLOOD AND TREASURE. UNTIL THIS REBELLION IS SUPPRESSED. For these and other reasons, which I need not at this time mention, I COULD NOT ACCEPT A PARTY NOMINATION. My Democracy teaches me that my place is in the field, UPHOLDING IN MY HUMBLE WAY THE FLAG OF OUR COUNTRY. NO PATRIOT AT THIS TIME WILL RECOGNIZE ANY PARTY SAVE THE ONE THAT UNCONDITIONALLY SUSTAINS THE GOVERNMENT IN ITS STRUGGLES AGAINST TRAITORS."

Who will dare deny, hereafter, that the soldiers, Democrats and Republicans, are for Curtin and all other loyal nominees? And in this connection, we have just heard from a private source, that Col. W. H. Blair, a life-long Democratic leader in Centre county, has taken the stump for Curtin. Col. Blair is a fearless and effective speaker, whose advocacy of Curtin will do much to break up the crazy opposition waged against him in Centre county.

What of Dauphin County and her Ticket? We hear the question occasionally asked, how will the loyal men of Dauphin county acquit themselves at the coming election? Such a question is easily answered in a locality where principle has so much to do in inducing men to discharge their duty. Dauphin county will maintain her ancient reputation. She will give Curtin as large a majority as she gave him three years ago, while every man on the county ticket will be elected by handsome majorities. We are aware that several very nice arrangements have been made between the candidates on the copperhead ticket, and certain very sharp copperhead wire-pullers and trimmers, to secure an election, but the game only works in the hands of those who have entered into the arrangement, so that, when the day of the election arrives, those who have been so industriously engaged in button-holing "War Democrats," and in whispering slanders into the ears of honest voters, concerning the character and capacity of their opponents, will find that they have been calculating without their hosts. It would be a lasting, burning shame to the loyal men of Dauphin county, if they suffer a single man on our ticket to be defeated. Every man on our ticket represents the immortal principles of our faith. To defeat any of these would be to disgrace those principles. The election of the most insignificant copperhead is calculated to give aid and comfort to the common enemy. Not only would such election afford this encouragement to traitors in our midst, but it would also give that influence to rebellion, which would require the further sacrifice of loyal blood, life and limb to counteract. Let us not disgrace these facts. Every man in Dauphin county must feel that his vote is directed immediately against treason. Every man should feel that he is exercising the franchise, as our soldiers wield their weapons, to put down rebellion. Those who do this cannot help voting right.

Among the things to be remembered by our friends in Dauphin county on the day of the election, is the importance of getting out every vote. Let every loyal man poll his vote before noon of the day of election, and devote the balance of the day to watching our foes. Such a course will secure a great increase in our majority. It will put to rest, completely and forever, the enemies of the Government.

Inconsistent.

There are one or two foul-mouthed looters of the war who copperhead spoils, who are still agitating the subject of employing negroes at the Commissary's Warehouse in this city, when these very men have always given a preference to negro labor, whenever they could get it cheaper than what a white man requires for a day's work. It would be well enough for such as these to cover their mouths with the palms of their hands, and cease their contemptible attacks upon the Government, or we may be constrained to unroll some of the dirty business in which they were but recently engaged - dirtier than bringing black men into competition with white labor, because the conduct alluded to involved the meanness of speculating in the necessities of those who were drafted. Such men should never open their mouths to denounce the shortcomings of other individuals or governments.

It is a singular coincidence that the Indian name of the river near which Gen. Rosecrans fought his last terrible and bloody battle, that of Chickamauga, means "The Stream of Death."

WHAT THE PEOPLE OF NEW ORLEANS THINK. The 27th says: "The armies of the Union must be driven from the land."

The Army in Good Fighting Order.

The Commercial has advices from Chattanooga to Saturday last. The estimate at headquarters of the great battle, Gen. Thomas routed Gen. Longstreet's rebel corps, and was in a condition to pursue the enemy had it not been for the disorganization of our right wing. No surprise was felt by our army officers at the rebels not resuming the attack. The loss of the enemy is believed to be twenty thousand. Our army is in superb fighting trim, compact in organization, well supplied with provisions, has plenty of ammunition, and is full of confidence.

The success of Gen. Thomas on the left was much greater than has been represented in any published account of the great battle. Gen. Thomas routed Gen. Longstreet's rebel corps, and was in a condition to pursue the enemy had it not been for the disorganization of our right wing. No surprise was felt by our army officers at the rebels not resuming the attack. The loss of the enemy is believed to be twenty thousand. Nothing further has been yet received from Rosecrans or Burnside.

The St. Louis Republican denies that either Sherman's corps or Smith's division had gone to Chattanooga.

The Department of Kansas will be commanded by General McNeel. General Curtis declined the honor of succeeding Blunt, who, report says, is under arrest.

Sterling Price has been commissioned lieutenant general, and has supreme command in the trans-Mississippi field, in which the rebels claim to have 50,000 troops.

Gen. Grant issued orders, on the 22d ultimo, regulating the cotton trade, the effect of which will be to drive all speculators out of his department south of Helena.

THE GREAT BATTLE NEAR CHATTANOOGA.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 2. - A Chattanooga dispatch, dated the 28th ult., delayed until this afternoon, gives the following intelligence: Gen. Whittaker received a severe flesh wound in the right arm on the 20th of September, but is still able to command his brigade. His loss was heavy, being about ninety-five killed, wounded, and missing. All his staff officers, except one, were killed or wounded. Whilst the brigade consisted of the ninety-sixth and one hundred and fifteenth Illinois Regiments, the second Michigan and the 88th Ohio were temporarily added, aggregating about two hundred and eighty men, who fought with terrific energy and effect, from one o'clock in the afternoon until night, when, aided by a second brigade of General Sherman's division, Colonel Mitchell commanding, the rebels were beaten back with great slaughter. Lieutenant Colonel S. Clark, of the 96th Illinois, and Lieutenant Colonel Kinsman, of the 115th Illinois, were killed.

Colonel Leflore, of General Stedman's division, Granger's corps, who made the attack on the enemy's right wing on the 29th, is supposed to be killed. Colonel Canbera is wounded.

The news by the Saxonia is highly interesting.

The steamships Jura and City of Baltimore, from New York, had arrived out.

The London Times says that the fate of Charleston is only a question of time; that its fate is virtually decided.

The Times also says that Mr. Mason sent to Earl Russell on Monday a notification that he (Mason) had been instructed to withdraw from England.

Mr. Mason proceeds to Paris.

Le France says that a Federal steamer corvette had arrived at Brest, from Madiera, having been sent with another Federal corvette in pursuit of the Confederate steamer Florida.

The Florida was to leave Brest on the 23d of September. She had been completely repaired, and would proceed immediately to meet the second Federal corvette, which is at Lisbon, and attack her before she can be joined by the one at Brest, which is repairing.

Le France says that the Federal Corvette Keosaukee will be treated at Brest like the Florida. Both belligerents will enjoy the same rights and advantages.

The Confederate loan is quoted at 29@30 per cent. discount.

The French Rentes were at 67 francs 80 centimes.

On the 8th of October the Emperor Napoleon will receive the Mexican deputation on its return from Tlaxcala.

The Memorial Diplomatique says that England has entered into an engagement to acknowledge the present Mexican Government, as soon as the Archduke Maximilian announces to the deputation his real acceptance of the throne of Mexico. England and France will then immediately accredit official representatives.

England has promised to favor every means for the realization of the loan necessary to place Mexico into a position to fill her engagements.

Le France says that if the three Powers make a common communication to Russia it will be of a different character to an "ordinary note," and, in diplomatic language, "receive another name."
