SCRANTON, LUZERNE COUNTY, PA., October 7th, 1863. Editor Telegraph.—A line from these coal regions to your valiant defender of the right cause and the true faith, may not at this time be uninteresting. The effect of the immense mass meeting held here on the latinst, when Governor Christin, Hon. G. A. Grow and other codes are the control of and others addressed full twenty thousand people, has not been lost. Curtin stock is above par and still rising here.
