DROWNED AND KILLED .- On last Saturday or Sunday, Corporal Sheely, a member of Captain Theo. F. Singizer's company, from this place, Smith, non resident; John H. Thome, under whose father resides about a mile and a half age; Moses Nitter, nen-resident; Leopold East of town, was drowned while attempting to Freedman, alien. cross the Potomac. We have not learned any of the particulars of his death. His body was brought to Harrisburg yesterday, and from thence home last evening for interment.

Yesterday intelligence was received here, stating that George L. Shutt, a member of the same company, and residing in this place, was killed. No particulars as for as we can learn, accompanied the message.—Mechanicsburg Journal.

THE SECOND PRESENTERIAN CHURCH .- The re-The Scoond Preserrentan Church.—The religious services of the Second Presbyterian church will be held, to-morrow, in the Hall in Tanner's Alley. Preaching in the morning at Smith, (carpenter,) alien. half past ten o'clock, and in the evening a seven. Services were discontinued in the Hall for wo Sabbaths, partly on account of their being interrupted by those who have but little regard for the light of divine truth, but arrangements have been made to prevent such interruptions hereafter. We hope that the services will be largely attended, and civilization and christianity will increase throughout the streets and alleys of the city.

THE WAY IT WILL Go .- On Wednesday last on the passenger train between Harrisburg and Williamsport, a vote was taken on the question of Governor, which resulted, forty-five for Cur tin and five for Woodward. Judge Woodward was a passenger in the car, unknown to the gentleman who canvassed. When applied to, he answered that he had "not yet made up his mind as to how he should vote-the people would know that after the election." The car was almost exclusively filled with Lutheran clergymen and laymen, on their return from the meeting of the Lutheran Synod at Milton. On the same seat with Judge Woodward sat a clergyman, formerly a resident, and political editor, of Lancaster, and well known to Judge W., who, when being asked his preference, re plied: "I vote by ballot," not desiring, under the circumstances, to avow his choice, which is well known to be for Curtin and the Union.

Union Meeting in Debey Township .- In response to the call of the Union County Committee, the patriotic voters of Derry township assembled in large numbers at Hocker's tavern last evening. The meeting gave full assurance that the spirit of old Derry is aroused. The watch fires of freedom burn brightly in that MAN, of New York, CHARLES H. SHREI- nob. e stronghold of Union sentiment. The Democratic meeting held here last evening was a most brilliant affair. After waiting for speakers until about 8 o'clock, the Democrats held a caucus, and as no speaker could be got to address the meeting, pointing out the way to stop this extravagance of money, blood shed, &c., Henry:Hollingworth, a black Repub-lican, was loudly-called for by the crowd. Mr. Hollingworth then addressed the "large assemblege of Democrats" and challenged them to show how this unholy war should be stopped on my other terms than the prosecution of the war Richard Smith, deserter from rebel army; the Democratic tloket, and would use his influence ence to have Mr. Woodward elected, but as no one would answer, Mr. Hollingworth spoke in a laconic style, after which, on motion of Mr. John Roeback, a vote was taken, which resulted as follows:

For Curtin, 63; for Woodward, 7. Nine cheers were then given for Andrew G. Curtin, in which the Democrats participated, and the meeting adjourned.
