TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Important to Soldiers in the Hospitals at this Post.

Soldiers of Ohio regiments, sick and wounded, now in the different hospitals and camps, and now in the different hospitals and camps, and arrangements were perfect, and reflect great county offices, of the State of Ohio, are notified of the truly loyst men of Middletown. A delethat arrangements have been made to open a gation of more than two hundred from Lontory Hospital.

FIRE.—An ice house known as Stewart's, lo cated on Front street, was destroyed by fire, en Saturday night.

THERE was a very heavy frost this morning. Old Jack is determined to make us wear overcoats or sit by the fire.

PEACHES have disappeared from our market. Prices continued very high throughout the season. We did not hear of any sales being made at less than $3 per bushel.
