Ohio and Pennsylvania

The voices of these two great States go forth

the atter abhorrence with which they regard n the face of the protests of his own friends; He traitors and their sympathizers. Pennsylvania sustained him while his reputation was toppling re-elects Andrew G. Curtin by at least twenty and falling to the ground, and even when thousand majority, while Olilo elects Brough by the overwhelming vote of one hundred thousand majority. Before these brilliant results the slaveholders' rebellion will topple to generosity? How has the man whom his pieces, and bury in its rulns every traitor in friends claimed was among the greatest of livthe land. Pennsylvania, on Tuesday, sealed her devotion to the Union. From her hills and her vallies, from her cities and her hamlets, she Andrew G. Curtin was grappling with the enesends greeting to her sons in arms for the de- mies of the country-while he was meeting the fence of the Government, with the assurance people of Pennsylvania, frankly discussing the that her sons at home are true to the old cause, the old flag and the old Government. It is a blow at treason, which seals its doom forever. It is a knell to the sympathizers of treason, which consigns them to eternal and irretrievable oblquity. Nor is this all. The attitude which Pennsylvania assumed in the election on Tuesday, enables her people to wield an influence which will extend beyond the mere crushing his reticence throughout the campaign and until out of domestic treason—and which must be after the election. This, however, he did not felt in every court in Europe, where conclaves were convened to concoct plans for the over throw and destruction of free institutions. It is the voice of a free people, proclaiming in favor of freedom. It is the first unmistakable evidence of a great nation, environed by treason to maintain itself on the battle field and at the ballot box. It is the triumph of reason and election. Then it was sprupg upon the people the victory of right. Glory be to God for havtruth and loyalty!

Bill Miller, the Eloquent.

Our own distinguished Congressman, the ubiquitous and valiant General Miller, of the black bottle and the black cow notoriety, was exceedingly industrious for the copperhead sum up the result.

He haraugued in Susquehanna township and the result is 168 majority for Curtin.

He howled in Lower Swatara and got beastly drunk. It has answered 118 majority for Cartin.

He bellowed in Democratic Middletown with, R. A. Lamberton, and it has answered 40 majority for Curtin.

He screamed in Derry, with Dick Haldeman, and was hissed off the stand by the ladies, and it has answered 327 majority for Curtin. The same answer has been given where he. Little Johnny Bigler and other shysters at tempted to instruct loyal citizens in this county.

obliged to jump from the back-window to escape a ride on a rail, has also answered by giving 256 majority for Curtin. Such are the magnificent results of the efforts of our distinguished - " a, " lo#151.

Dereilict Election Officers—A Duty District Attorney Herr.

The election officers in the First and Fourth wards have earned for themselves an eternal load of obliquity. Hereafter they will be pointed at with scorn and contempt by honest of the election in the First and Fourth wards; we have no doubt but that they could be convicted of perjury and sent to the penitentiary for having conspired to defraud enfranchised men of their just right to vote. With the facts before the District Attorney, we call upor him in the name of justice and the rights of election officers in the wards referred to. Those officers, in the face of clear testimony, in defiacce of the oaths of unimpeachable citizens, and in ridicule of the decisions of our courts, refused to receive the votes of free men, because such votes were known to be opposed to the loyal man in the districts in question, and election officers brought to punishment.

R. A. Lamberton.

At the copperhead meeting at Buehler's Hotel, on Monday night last, R. A. Lamberton " pitched into" the TRIEGRAPH. We heard of but did not hear the speech of our irascible friend, and therefore have not deemed it worth while to reply to his abuse. But to all such political trimmers as Lamberton we point the result of the election of on Tuesday. That result any in which we are disposed now to indulge. We feel too happy to be vindictive. We would rather cry out, Hallelujah! Glory be to God man. And yet it is well enough that Lambersome day quali. In the hour of past glory he would fear death fighting under its folds?

George B. M'Clellan.

If ever any one man had a sincere friend and patron in another, Major General George B. continually of ing out, that the friends of the M'Clellan had such a friend and patron in An- Government were the friends of the negro, an drew G. Curtin. From the hour that M'Olellan was placed at the head of the Army of the Potomac, to the moment when his utter incapacity to handle such vast bodies of men with any practical effect became apparrent, Andrew G. Curtin stood by George B. M'Clellan as a together in thunder tones, proclaiming the and defends a child. Gov. Curtin left no opfealty of their people to the Government, and portunity pass, to bolster, uphold and maintain Andrew G. Curtin followed him there, to cheer and sustain him in his fall. -How has George B. M'Clellan repaid this > ing soldiers, treated his best friend, the man who is to day among the most popular of American statesmen? We will answer, While great issues involved in the political contest for Governor-while this glorious man was being assailed with slander, traduced and maligned, George B. M'Clellan stood gloof, never deigning to come to the rescue of his faithful friend, either with a voice to cheer or a word to defend. But we could have overlooked this silent indifference, and attribute it to the lack of have no possible interest in this revolution." feeling which is peculiar to cold-hearted and over ambitious men, had M'Clellan maintained do. In obedience to the dictation of such men as Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland, a bitter sympathizer with treason, and Fitz John Porter, a convicted traitor, George B. M'Clellan allowed his name to be appended to a letter written by Johnson, intended to deceive the honest men of Pennsylvania, and thus defeat and disgrace Andrew G. Curtin.-That letter was held back until the eve of the as the rebellion was precipitated, when the ing thus guided a free people into the path of treacherous men engaged in the plot imagined it could not be counteracted, and when it would accomplish the most mischief. This is the ingratitude of George B. M'Clellan.. This is the style in which he repays those who defend him. We have no comments to offer upon the subject. The conduct is too loathsome for the touch of an honest man. And yet we want the record to stand, if only to show how low the ticket in this and adjoining counties. Let us influence of modern Democracy can debase a man. Before M'Olellan gave himself up to the uses of a band of New York politicans, he had some manhood in him. Yet under the manipulations of the bad men of the Demo: cratic party, the quality of manhood has been entirely worked out of M'Clellan. But, we are willing to let him alone with his friends.

The Home of Andy Curtin. From among the dazzling results which illuminate all parts of the Commonwealth in perfect halo of glory, we take that in the town of Bellefonte, Centre county, the home of Andrew G. Chith. The copperheads all over the State were auxious to disgrace Gov. Curtin at Lewisburg, where the black bottle and cow home, by turning the influence of the vote of were also paraded, the distinguished orator was Bellefonte against him. To accomplish this, a mass meeting of copperheads was called in Bellefonte, at which Woodward appeared in all the power of the hypocrisy peculiar to himself. Added to this, we know that money was sent Congressman, with the influences of his bottle from this city and from Philadelphia, to corrupt the honest men of that borough. All this shows the bittern which the foes of the country were hounding one of that country's bravest defenders. But the result proves that the effort failed. Gov. Curtin's friends increased his vote in Bellefonte about a hundred. It was an increase springing from the affections of his old neighbors-and that inmen, while the friends of the soldiers must look crease constitutes a vindication of the character upon these officials as the brazen faced, tory of Andrew G. Curtin, higher and nobler than sympathizers, who left no pretext unused or any he ever received, because it emanates from effort untried, to disfranchise the brave de- the people who know him. We can assure fenders of the Union. If the half, is true that Gov. Curtin's friends in Bellafonte that he so we hear in regard to the conduct of the officers cepts their demonstrations of confidence as the most valuable ever bestowed, and in the name of the loyal men of the Commonwealth, we thank the gallant little band at Bellefonte for the devotion which they have shown to their distinguished townsman and friend.

THE RESULT IN THE SECOND WARD, Harrisburg, man, at once to institute suits against the is glorious. Twenty majority for Curtin, is a change of sixty-two since the election for Mayor last Spring which shows how gallantly the loyal men of the ward contested the election. But there was another influence at work, which it is well enough, that a certain individual should know, for his future control and benefit. The re copperheads. This charge is on the lips of every sull was intended to convey a rebuke to Mayor Roumfort for the endifference with which he acted while observing therefore it is due to justice that an investiga- a mob of copperheads assailing a delegation of loyal therefore it is due to justice that an investiga- a mob of copperheads assailing a delegation of logical here of the Common Council—sufficient to give men who were in the city on Monday attending a toget here of the Common Council—sufficient to use the Common Council—sufficient to use the city of Monday attending a toget here of the Council her move in the matter, and have these faithless men while they were in a vehicle, and after our country friends had driven off, Mayor Roumfort, who was in the crowd, called out to the rufflans to follow him to his house to take a drink. We know a dozen decent Democrats who voted to throw the ward against Roumfort's friends, purposely to rebuke him. And the rebuke is as withering as it is merited.

A Union GIRL Down in DIXIE, -A correspond ent from the 13th Wisconsin, (now at Stevenson, Ala.,) writes as follows: "At Pine Factories speaks a condemnation more withering than and Pulaski cloth fabrics are produced; and at the latter place we saw a great number of fair, young faces, peering from the factory windows as we marched by with colors flying and bands and the right for having given us the victory! playing "Way down South, in the land of than engage in a bandying of words with any Cotton," &c. Voting Negroes. Before the election, the copperheads were that the object of the war against the rebellion was to place the negro on a level with white men. By the use of such subterfuges, the dirtiest and meanest ever resorted to by men claiming intelligence, much mischief was done and many an unsuspecting voter was seduced brother stands by a brother; as a father supports from his duty. But the proceedings at the polls, where the professions of men become practical, proved that the copperheads were in rethe character of M'Clellan. He defended him: ality"the nigger party." In one of the elect Federal Hill by the Ohio soldiers stood Vallantion districts in this county, the copperhead leaders actually voted "American citizens of Ohio soldiers in the hospital here was 80 for African descent." We give this as a fact, and Brough-unavimous. M'Clellan went into retirement, the voice of it any man doubts it, we refer him to Dr. Heck who can sustain our statement if he is disposed to support the truth. Hereafter, we want to hear no more from the copperheads on the subject of "nigger parties."

How THE REBRIS HATE BOSECRAMS. - The Southern rebelinewspapers have the notion that Gen. Rosecrans is a German, and consequently they abuse the whole German race. The Knox ville Register said, just before Burnside pounced upon Kast Tennessee, and scattered the secunirels of secessionists therefrom: "Rosecrans himself is an unmixed Dutchman, an accursed race which has overrun the vast districts of the country of the Northwest. It happens that we Ethiopian in the ranks of the Northern armies than for an odoriferous Dutchman, who can

THE REBER VIOR PRESIDENT'S CHALLENGE. We love to quote the following from the memorable speech made by the traitor Stephens nearly three years ago. By the way, has his challenge been accepted? "What right has the North assailed? What justice has been denied And what claim, founded on justice and right, has been withheld? Can you to-day name one single act of surong, deliberately and purposely done by the Government at Washington, which the South has a right to complain? challenge the answer."

FORTRESS Monroe, Oct. 14. The U. S. transport Faulkner, from the Charleston fleet on the 10th inst., arrived this morning. She had in two the gunboat Modgie, for repairs, which sunk off Frying Pan Shoals on Sunday last. All on board were saved. They report that the rebels attempted to destroy the Ironsides on the night of the 5th inst. by approaching her in a small steamer and entertain a greater degree of respect for an exploding a torpede amid ship. The concussion exploding a torpede amid snip. In a concussion was:tremendous knocking down the bulk head of the Tronsides, and injuring one man. Her hull was also injured.

The Ironsides, however, is considered torpe-
