DISTRESSING AND SERIOUS ACCIDENT. -On Monday evening William H. Pearsol, the only con of Mr. Pearsol, of the Lancas (er Express, met with a serious accident in Camp Couch, near Philadelphia. William is a member of Nevin's battery, and it seems that he and cornoral George Rigg were playing with each other when Rigg, in "fun" drew, his pistol, which Pearsol seized, and in the act of doing to the weapon was discharged, the ball penetrating the bowels and lodging in the region of the back. The wound is a very dangerous one, but the surgeon has hopes that he may recover.

THERE was a large and respectable audience at Brant's Hall, last evening, to witness the performance of those who inhaled Laughing G 'ss, administered by Professor Lee, and the derful feats of Haller, the Magician. Unroll our Flag and let it wave, From swelling dome and rising spire, The blazing Banner of the Brave Lighting the land with points of fire.

It is the flag our fathers boat 'le's blast, In triumph through the bath 'le's blast, And as it waved in days of yore So let it wave from tower and mast.

Beneath this flag our fathers won The freedom that we fight for still;
At Concord and at Lexington,
And Valley Forge and Bunker Hill.
And we, their sons, will form the corps
To bear aloft its radiant lights,
With drum and fife, past Charleston Bar, And wave it over Richmond Heights.

Our eagle, with unblenching eye, Looks fiercely on this traitor crew, And quits his eyre in the sky To perch upon this flag of blue. Bird of the mountain and the cloud, Whose nest the stooping sun is near, Watch all these stars! when thunders loud

Would shake them from their orbits here.

Where armies marshall, let it wave, And lead them on to victory; Or shroud them in a glorious grave
Like Spartans at the Thermopyles. Our fathers in their coffins turn, When traitors trample in the mire, The stripes that shine, the stars that burn On fort and mast, and dome and spire.

Our flag, the symbol of the free, Has dawned upon the Nation's night, Like sunrise on a stormy sea,
Whose billows kiss the morning light. Its starry wing, baptized with blood, Shall lead the Hosts of Freedom now, As fiery pillars o'er the flood

GOOD, SOUND, MERCHANTABLE HARD of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

CORDS OF 128 CURIO FEET.

PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862.

Messra. Jones & Evans:—Well, gentlemen. your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouch ed for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in Norember last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then remov-ed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swall low anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again. I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these cir cumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised me, as a forlora hope, to try your bitters, and kind-ly procured a bottle. From the time I com-menced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginiau, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of posom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
